End of Semester for Residence Halls

For Winter/Semester break the last move out date for the residence halls is Saturday, December 15, 2018 by 7 p.m. Students will need to check out of their spaces prior to this time if they are not returning for the Spring semester. If a student will not be able to be out by December 15, they need to ask for a "Late Stay" form from their Residence Hall Office. For students that will be continuing in the Spring 2019 semester, the residence halls will remain accessible with an on-call RA 24 hours a day. We do ask that if students plan to be in the halls over the break period, they must sign-up via the weblink that was sent to them in their End of Semester email from their Residence Life Coordinator. IMMIGRATION

Full-time Enrollment Requirement

This is a friendly reminder that all F-1 and J-1 students must be registered as full-time students. (12+ hours of undergraduate credit or 9+ hours of graduate credit). Being enrolled less than full-time without proper approval will result in the loss of your good immigration status and may prevent you from earning your UNI degree. Even worse, you could be arrested and deported from the USA! If you have questions, do not ask your friends, but ask the professional staff in the International Students and Scholars Office. You should review the reminders on our web site (<https://isso.uni.edu/immigration>) at least once per semester. Exceptions to the full-time rule are: certain academic difficulties (improper course level placement, initial difficulty with American teaching methods), medical/health reasons, final semester of study, and graduate students working full-time on research or dissertation. ALL of these exceptions MUST be approved by the Immigration & Advising Coordinator in advance!

Homesick on Holidays

It is not uncommon that homesickness strikes you during the holiday season. When you see the decorations and the empty campus during holidays, the feeling of "homesick blues" may occur. Sometimes, it is the other way around. Some holidays that you enthusiastically celebrate in your home country are nonexistent in the US. You may experience the "homesick blues" when going to classes or work without the day off, knowing everyone in your home country is celebrating. Many people share similar feelings when they are overseas during the holiday. You are not alone. Here are some tips to help you survive it. (1) Feeling homesick on holidays is okay; (2) Surround yourself with people during the holidays; (3) Keep in contact with your family and friends; (4) Celebrate your holiday in creative ways; (5) Learn and observe local traditions about different holidays.
