April 2019

Diversity Council releases statement

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.uni.edu/postville_documents

Part of the Public Affairs, Public Policy and Public Administration Commons

Let us know how access to this document benefits you

Recommended Citation

https://scholarworks.uni.edu/postville_documents/284

This Document is brought to you for free and open access by the The Postville Project at UNI ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Postville Project Documents by an authorized administrator of UNI ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@uni.edu.
What's happening in and around Postville......

The Postville School Board held their organizational meeting on Monday, Sept. 15, following last week's school board election. Re-elected to the seats on the board were Jeff Cox, Laura Lubka, and Jamie Smith. Affirmative votes against the recommendation. Gravel was appointed to the board's duty to "decide the respect of the kids and their futures."

By Sarah Brainard Marsh

The opportunity to study abroad has been a chance for several Postville High School students. Many high school graduates head overseas to discover the cities and cultures of the world. But there are also many who want to stay close to home. Brett Bacon, who spent a semester in Rome, Italy, came home with a new perspective on the US, but himself as an American.

The opportunity to study abroad has been a chance for several Postville High School students. Many high school graduates head overseas to discover the cities and cultures of the world. But there are also many who want to stay close to home. Brett Bacon, who spent a semester in Rome, Italy, came home with a new perspective on the US, but himself as an American.

The opportunity to study abroad has been a chance for several Postville High School students. Many high school graduates head overseas to discover the cities and cultures of the world. But there are also many who want to stay close to home. Brett Bacon, who spent a semester in Rome, Italy, came home with a new perspective on the US, but himself as an American.

The opportunity to study abroad has been a chance for several Postville High School students. Many high school graduates head overseas to discover the cities and cultures of the world. But there are also many who want to stay close to home. Brett Bacon, who spent a semester in Rome, Italy, came home with a new perspective on the US, but himself as an American.
Dear Readers,

We read with great interest the item in the Gazette on Friday, September 12.

It began with these very words: “Two Agriprocessors employees were found with more than a dozen shaved head certificates and Social Security cards in a vehicle...” by Fayette County Sheriff’s Office.

This is a most telling assessment of how present Agriprocessors management are acting. It is a strong judgement against Jacobson Employment Services. This is a most telling assessment of how present Agriprocessors management are acting. It is a strong judgement against Jacobson Employment Services. It began with these very words: “Two Agriprocessors employees were found with more than a dozen shaved head certificates and Social Security cards in a vehicle...” by Fayette County Sheriff’s Office.

It is a strong judgement against Jacobson Employment Services. It began with these very words: “Two Agriprocessors employees were found with more than a dozen shaved head certificates and Social Security cards in a vehicle...” by Fayette County Sheriff’s Office.

We read with great interest the item in the Gazette on Friday, September 12.

It began with these very words: “Two Agriprocessors employees were found with more than a dozen shaved head certificates and Social Security cards in a vehicle...” by Fayette County Sheriff’s Office.

It is a strong judgement against Jacobson Employment Services. It began with these very words: “Two Agriprocessors employees were found with more than a dozen shaved head certificates and Social Security cards in a vehicle...” by Fayette County Sheriff’s Office.

It is a strong judgement against Jacobson Employment Services.