MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING
4:00 p.m., Wartburg College, Waverly, Iowa, April 24, 1970

President T. E. Rogers, presiding, with 88 members present.
The meeting was called to order at 4:00 p.m.

The following reports were heard:

1. Board of Directors - R. W. Hanson, Executive Secretary

Since the last business meeting of the Academy, the Board met three times: October at Grinnell College, at which the Local Arrangements Committee reported considerable progress toward the April 1970 meeting. The problem of getting the 1969 PROCEEDINGS printed was a foremost concern, because the State Printer had informed the Editor that there would be no advertising for bids on printing them. The general financial condition of the Academy was again a matter of grave concern, and the need for getting a constitution revision ready in time for consideration at the annual meeting in 1970 resulted in the subsequent appointment of a committee that completed its work late in February.

Events in the legislature during December, January, and February necessitated a special Board meeting on April 4 to consider PROCEEDINGS problems. The Executive Secretary had made some contacts in the state-house to get assurance that the 1969 PROCEEDINGS would be printed in keeping with the Code of Iowa, but the fate of the 1970 PROCEEDINGS was uncertain in view of a move to repeal the part of the Code calling for the printing of the PROCEEDINGS. The governor's office, the chairman of the State Printing Board, and the State Comptroller's office seemed to approve of the idea of shifting funds from one part of the governor's budget to another so as to remove this printing obligation from the State Printer's budget. In the meantime, however, a bill passed both houses that repealed the part of the Code that obligated the state to print the PROCEEDINGS at all after July 1, 1970.

At the April 4 meeting of the Board it was decided that funding for two environmental symposia be sought by means of a proposal to one or more federal funding agencies. This is part of a broader plan to involve the Iowa Academy of Science more specifically in providing scientific advice to state government. The Association of Academies of Science, affiliated with the AAAS, will act as a coordinating agency for grant proposals from a number of state academies and will administer a grant from the National Science Foundation if a grant is made.

Another matter discussed at the April 4 meeting was the means by which more income could be obtained from the farm while at the same time preserving it as a model of good conservation practice.

At the Board meeting on April 23, the meeting was opened at 2:00 p.m. with word that Paul Ehrlich had just cancelled his scheduled appearance. Coming as it did on the heels of the move from Grinnell to Wartburg necessitated by the Teamsters Union strike, the announcement cast a sense of despair on the Board momentarily. But in a matter of a few minutes the decision was made to get along without a speaker on Friday evening. (It is now an historical fact that the program was complete without Ehrlich.)

The Board accepted reports from the various Standing Committees, the Librarian and the Executive Secretary, most of which appear under "Committee Reports." Most new business concerned discussion of means of increasing the Academy's income (from the farm, institutional support, dues, appropriation request from the state legislature for the next biennium). The Board authorized Paul Meglitsch to appoint Thomas E. Rogers as associate editor of the 1970 PROCEEDINGS. Robert W. Hanson was re-appointed as Executive Secretary to June 30, 1971.

A proposed budget was adopted to be presented at the annual business meeting under new business.

A motion was made and seconded to accept the report. Carried.

5. Membership - William Azbell

(The Membership Committee report appears under Committee Reports. Azbell commented from it.)

Azbell moved to transfer 8 Associates to Fellow status. The motion was seconded and was carried unanimously. Azbell moved that 47 nominees named in the report be elected as new Fellows. The motion was seconded and carried unanimously. Azbell announced that a new Sustaining Member has joined along with two new Corporate Members. These are named in the report as are the names of 113 new Associates and 45 new Student Associates. The following names of deceased members were read in memoriam:

McKelvey, Dr. Joseph	Washington, D.C.
Melhus, Dr. Irving E.	Ames, Iowa
Ruden, Sister Mary Lorena	Dubuque, Iowa
Smith, Miss Helen F.	Ames, Iowa

Azbell moved adoption of the report. Seconded, the motion carried.

5. Resolutions - Karl Goellner

Ten resolutions, which appear under "Committee Reports" were read. Goellner moved the adoption of the resolutions. The motion was seconded and carried unanimously.

6. Constitution Revision - T. E. Rogers

President Rogers called for a show of hands by those who had not cast a ballot by mail and who favored the adoption of the Revised Constitution and Bylaws 1970. A similar count of those dissenting was made. The results were as follows: 16 assent, 0 dissent. The report of the tellers (J. W. Kercheval, V. Dowell, W. Waltmann, Jr.) who had counted the mail ballots was read. The combined balloting gave these results: 216 assent, 4 dissent.

President Rogers declared the Revised Constitution and Bylaws of 1970 in effect "at this moment."

A motion was then made to adopt the proposed budget. Seconded, the motion carried. (The proposed budget is found under "Committee Reports.")

The meeting was adjourned at 5:13 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert W. Hanson
Executive Secretary

Report of the Finance and Endowment Committee

The program of the Academy has continued to expand over the past year with little or no improvement in the income. During this time the chairmanship of the F & E Committee changed from Irvin H. Gerks to Harry T. Horner, Jr.

Even though the committee has not met formally, several steps have been taken to augment the proposals previously outlined. These involve increased membership dues, university support and the operation of the Parish Farm.

Membership dues for 1971 will probably be increased to near the level of many other state academies. Since support from the State of Iowa and federal agencies has not improved, the income from increased dues will be of great help.

The University of Northern Iowa has aided the Academy by providing for the Executive Secretary office. Similar support, but along other channels, from both Iowa State University and the University of Iowa could be related to publication of ISTJ and mailing of the PROCEEDINGS.

A thorough study of the Parish Farm reveals that income over the past several years has increased considerably. Even though the study is not completed as of this writing, it appears that several positive steps may be taken to improve yearly income: increase rental fee; change lease from a three year term to a one year term; eliminate several worthless buildings on the property, possibly decreasing taxation and insurance, and terminating our $300 per year service with our legal representative in Reinbeck, Mr. B. E. Hunter.

The number of corporate memberships has not improved during the year. The committee plans to reevaluate this situation and continue its efforts in this direction.

Report of the Science Teaching Committee
April 23, 1970

In view of the plans for the constitutional revision and the abandonment of the Academy's Science Teaching Committee, no new efforts were undertaken by the Committee. The major effort has continued to be the preparation and publication of the IOWA SCIENCE TEACHERS JOURNAL. Manuscripts are reviewed and edited by members of the Committee.

The Committee has continued to serve as a special liaison with the Science Teaching Section. Representation on the ISTS Board and Executive Committee has assisted with this cooperative effort.

The Committee has continued to coordinate the teacher recognition program. Mr. David McCalley, a member of the Committee, has been responsible for most of these arrangements.

With the action to join the articulation group representing most academic disciplines, the Committee has had no role in further efforts for curricular coordination between community colleges and various four-year colleges.

The Committee has made some progress with formulating a science education council for the state. This group would include science educators from all colleges in the state, all science supervisors and coordinators, and the state science consultant. A master plan for the state has been discussed with some encouragement from the National Science Foundation.

Two members of the Committee retain an interest in special programs for improvement of college instruction in the sciences. The uncertain future of the Committee dampened any development of these ideas during the year.

Specific recommendations:

- 1) Continue the program of coordinating the teacher recognition programs.*
- 2) Continue sponsorship of the IOWA SCIENCE TEACHERS' JOURNAL in cooperation with the Extension Division of the University of Iowa.*
- 3) Continue special support and arrangements with the Science Teaching Section.*
- 4) Endorse efforts for developing a master plan for science education in Iowa.*

Five Teachers Get Special Recognition

Five Iowa high school science teachers were named recipients of the 1970 Iowa Academy of Science excellency in science teaching awards at the 82nd Session of the Iowa Academy of Science at Wartburg College.

Recipients were Donald Murphy, chemistry teacher in Des Moines; Donald Narveson, biology teacher in Waterloo; Leroy Huegli, mathematics teacher at Osage; Wesley Warner, physics teacher at Algona, and Donald Lange, earth science teacher in Davenport.

Presentations were made by David McCalley, assistant professor of biology at University of Northern Iowa who was chairman of the committee to select nominations for the awards.

Each teacher was selected from nominations made by administrators, colleagues and former teachers. The nominees were visited in their classrooms and their students and colleagues were interviewed.

The final selection of recipients was based on their professional competence, classroom effectiveness, and contributions to their community.

Each recipient was presented a plaque by the Academy and received a letter from Iowa Governor Robert Ray commending him "not only for this recognition bestowed upon you by your fellow teachers and students, but also for the lasting impact of your teaching."

All of these were screened by the chairman, and the top fifteen papers were circulated among the members of the Committee. Independent evaluations were made and the Committee met on April 11, 1970, at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Four members were present and one member (J. I. Routh) was absent. The individual ratings were evaluated and the following participants were declared winners of the Collins Radio Scholarships:

$500 scholarship

Christine Ann Padesky, Marshalltown High School, Marshalltown, Iowa

$300 scholarships

Nathan Marc Brooks, Yale-Jamaica-Bagley High School, Jamaica, Iowa

Richard Henry Brown, Thomas Jefferson High School, Council Bluffs, Iowa

$100 scholarships

Phillip Duane Dicks, Albia Community High School, Albia, Iowa

Craig William Cornelius, Maquoketa High School, Maquoketa, Iowa

James Stewart Lee, Washington High School, Cedar Rapids, Iowa

Dana Taylor, Bettendorf High School, Bettendorf, Iowa

The chairman of the Committee would like to recommend to the Board, the suggestion that the Resolutions Committee be asked to prepare a statement to thank Irvin H. Gerks for the work that he has done on behalf of the Iowa Academy of Science and his active participation and help in relationship to the Committee and securing financial support from Collins Radio, Inc.

Report of the Conservation Committee

This is the year of the "Birth of Mass Concern for Environment." It ends the decade of the 60's which experienced much change in land management accompanied by appearance of larger and faster farm equipment. It was also a year of adequate to copious summer water conditions in sections of the state. At the end of the year, there were about 43,450 impoundments in Iowa. Hundreds of people flocked to the new Red Rock Reservoir for water-oriented recreation. State fishery resources were boosted considerably by this new 9,000-acre pool. With the 5,000 new registrations, Iowa now has about 75,000 recreation boats in operation. At the year's end, 93 Iowa counties had county conservation boards operating 39,711 acres of recreational land in a total of 674 areas. State parks' attendance reached an all-time high of 10,712,999. Announcement of the discovery of Iowa's spectacular Coldwater Cave has sparked much public interest. Construction of the Conservation Education Training Center at Springbrook was completed except for furnishings. There are now 5 Nature Conservancy areas in Iowa. The Iowa State Preserves Board has prepared management plans for 9 areas and has employed Paul Kline as ecologist for the Board. Game harvests apparently were good for deer and quail but pheasants were down some in numbers. Iowans enjoyed their second hunting season on ruffed grouse. Some Eastern-strain wild turkeys were liberated in the Shimek State Forest. Experiments in rehabilitation demonstration were accomplished on southern Iowa coal strip-mined land (37 acres) by the Land Rehabilitation Advisory Board. Governor Ray reestablished a Citizen's Committee on Conservation of Iowa's Outdoor Resources. The Iowa Academy of Science named a special committee to consider environmental planning for the Academy Parish farm. Gaps in windbreak tree planting on the farm were replanted. Lilac and honeysuckle plants are thriving.

Report of the High School Relations Committee April 23, 1970

The High School Relations Committee did not meet as a group during the 1969-70 school year. However, several members were informed of the activities of the Junior Academy of Science and their advice was sought on some occasions. Much of the Iowa Junior Academy activities have become routine but time consuming. Few of its events or happenings require the services of a full H.S.R. committee although the availability of them in case of need was appreciated.

Only three Junior Academy Regional Meetings were held this school year. A reluctance on the part of the Iowa Science Teachers Section Regional Directors to host these meetings with or without their own Section meetings has been noticed. This has been expressed as a desire to keep from losing money because recent meetings, even on the national level, have been poorly attended and therefore difficult to finance. It is probably well to be cautious since the Academy is not in a position to help bail Regional Meetings out of their difficulties at this time.

One activity of an innovative nature was tried at Spirit Lake. Over 160 Junior Academy students and their teachers attended this meeting. Special field trips and tours were scheduled. The students stayed in cabins at the Lakeside Laboratories. The success of this activity has led to the development of another similar BLOODY RUN SCIENCE SURVEY to be held at Marquette on May 15, 16 and 17. Over three hundred Junior Academy members and their teachers will enjoy a camp-out and participate in a series of biological and earth science field trips conducted by reliable college leaders. A similar activity is being planned at Ames next fall to be in conjunction with the JETS (Junior Engineer Technical Society).

All of our Junior Academy of Science meetings have been insured for possible accidents.

Approximately forty students sent their papers in to the program director for the Junior Academy of Science Annual Symposium. Twenty-six of these papers were selected to be given at the Symposium and to be judged by the Iowa Academy of Science Awards Committee. Two students will be selected to represent the top research papers of Iowa eligible to be given at the American Junior Academy of Science meeting, December 28 in Chicago. Two alternates will be selected and ranked.

The Iowa Junior Academy of Science has enjoyed a successful year. Student and adult officers have been active in developing Academy programs. These students have learned to appreciate the problems of arranging scientific meetings and programs.
