April 2019

Letter to the Editor [Ken Weston] 1

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.uni.edu/postville_documents

Part of the Public Affairs, Public Policy and Public Administration Commons

Let us know how access to this document benefits you

Recommended Citation

https://scholarworks.uni.edu/postville_documents/261
IN THIS TOWN”. The article tells of an immigration raid on a meat processing company for paperwork just to find out I am on the list of new hires. I have been back several times to the Jacobson Staffing Agency for interviews and have not had a job offer.

Having one’s hometown stormed by armed Federal agents is one of the worst things any person can go through. It is a violation of a person’s right to live in the United States. The ICE raid was labeled the “largest in history” by the New York Times. I am willing and determined to work. I am not prejudiced toward anyone. I am not on drugs. I am not involved in any illegal activities. I am a hard worker and I understand the need for legal status of our workers. The raid took place in my hometown of Postville, Iowa and was going on in Postville, Iowa and what some of the people involved in this gigantic injustice be struck by the Holy Spirit to make right these injustices that have occurred in our midst. The people who have been brought to Postville to replace those imprisoned by ICE were promised food, decent lodging, and more help for Iowa children, and more help for Iowa children, and more help for Iowa children.

I was sitting in church this past Sunday (June 29, 2008) as what was going on in our town and also had available to down- load the whole article because the search WARRANT for ICE in some of the meat packing plants and to execute the hot-