Kane

Nancy Justis became SID in 1979 after serving three years as the first fulltime assistant at UNI. A native of Cedar Rapids, IA, she received her B.A. degree in journalism from the University of Iowa in 1973. After graduation, she worked for the Fort Collins (CO) Coloradoan before coming to UNI as an assistant editor in the Public Relations Office. She was a member of the Olympic Press Operations staff in Los Angeles in 1984 and the Pan American staff in 1987 in Indiana. She is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), Women in Communications, Inc., and the U.S. Basketball Writers Assoc. CoSIDA has honored her with publication awards for football programs and brochures and wrestling brochures. Married to Robert Justis, who announces Panther football and basketball games, the couple has one daughter, Nicole.

Kevin Kane, a 1984 UNI graduate, was named assistant SID in June of 1988. Prior to joining the UNI staff, he was pursuing his graduate degree at Western Illinois, where he interned in that school's Sports Information Office. Before his year of graduate school, he spent four years at KCFI Radio in Cedar Falls, IA, as a sports reporter and on-air personality and six months at KFTX Radio in Fort Dodge as Sports and News Director and Program Director. A native of Bernard, IA, Kane majored in Communications at UNI. He's married to the former Laurie Upah of Toledo, IA.

This is Northern Iowa

Located in Cedar Falls, UNI was founded in 1876 as the Iowa State Normal School. From a single building on a 40-acre campus, the University has grown to include more than 40 major buildings and 11,500 students.

UNI emphasizes outstanding undergraduate education with complementary graduate programs at the master's, specialists and doctoral levels. Building on its historic strength in teacher education, Northern Iowa has developed other fine programs in its School of Business, College of Humanities and Fine Arts, College of Natural Sciences and College of Social and Behavioral Sciences.

The City of Cedar Falls is a pleasant and historic college town adjacent to Waterloo. Together, they are part of a major metropolitan area with a population of more than 100,000. It is a center for manufacturing, finance, commerce and cultural activities in northeast Iowa.

Management

Dr. Constantine W. Curris assumed the Presidency of the University of Northern Iowa in August, 1983. He is only the seventh chief executive in the University's 113-year history.

Prior to assuming the UNI presidency, Curris served 10 years as president of Murray State University in Kentucky. The University's new eight-million dollar student center is named the Curris Center.

Other professional experiences include serving as Dean of Students at Marshall University and Vice-President and Academic Dean of both Midway (KY) College and the West Virginia Institute of Technology.

Curris received a bachelor's degree magna cum laude in political science from Kentucky in 1962. He received a master's in political science and public administration from Illinois in 1965 and his Ed.D. degree in higher education from Kentucky in 1967.

Curris serves as Trustee of Midway College, Director of American Humanics and as a member of the Center for the Study of the Presidency's National Advisory Council. He recently served as Chairman of the Iowa Task Force on Teacher Education and Certification and was a charter member of the National Small Business Development Center Advisory Board. He is a member of the Iowa Future Project; and is on the Board of Trustees of First in the Nation in Education/Iowa's Education Research Foundation and Junior Achievement of Black Hawk Land, Inc.

Robert A. Bowsby was selected Director of Athletics in mid February, 1984, after serving as Assistant Athletic Director for Facilities and interim AD when Stan Sheriff resigned the post in September, 1983.

A native of Waterloo, IA, he is a 1970 graduate of West High School. He earned a bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation from Moorhead State in 1975 and a master's degree in recreation administration from Iowa in 1978.

Bowsby served as Assistant Director of Recreational Services at Iowa from 1978-81, working in facility management and with responsibilities for supervision of a wide variety of recreation and athletics facilities on campus.

He joined the UNI staff in April of 1981. His experience at UNI has been broadbased, including involvement in all areas of the inter-collegiate athletics program and promotion of the UNI-Dome. He has worked with a variety of athletic events, special programs and entertainment attractions.

Since the time of his appointment as Director of Athletics, Bowsby has been actively involved in the promotion and marketing of the athletics program, the development of the Athletics Hall of Fame and the formulation of the Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference football division.

He has served on the NCAA Committee on Financial Aid and Amateurism and the NCAA Wrestling Committee.

First Class Facilities

Northern Iowa's fans demand the best from the Panthers on the field and the school provides some of the best facilities in the Midwest; and in particular at the 1-AA level.

The UNI-Dome is one of the nation's finest football facilities, no matter at what level the game is played. The building actually combines the features of three different buildings — a football stadium, field house and large auditorium. It contains facilities to hold a variety of events, such as concerts, exhibitions, trade shows, pageants, rallies and convocations, as well as football, basketball and softball games and wrestling and track meets.

The UNI-Dome has hosted such events as the NCAA gymnastic and wrestling championships, the Iowa High School football playoffs, concerts by Dolly Parton, the Eagles, REO Speedwagon, Fleetwood Mac and the Rolling Stones, antique car shows, tractor pulls and many other non-athletic events.

The UNI-Dome's air-supported, Fiberglass fabric roof allows for ample natural light during daylight hours. Its artificial turf for football games can be rolled up in a minimum of 36 hours. Underneath, on a synthetic floor area, are basketball and tennis courts and an eight-lane, 220-yard oval running track.

Approximately 16,400 spectators can be seated for football and 10,000 for courtside activities. For stage events, such as commencements, concerts and speakers' series, total capacity, using movable bleachers and chairs, can reach 25,000.

A spacious press box atop the east stands has facilities for 20 radio stations, television capabilities and seating for up to 125 people. A photography darkroom, photo bay, concession area and scouting booths are other features. Two huge scoreboards flash messages and information to spectators throughout events. The west press box has been completed to provide a meeting room for the UNI Athletic Club and space for special events.

Head Coach Terry Allen

The nation's youngest coach at the Division 1-A or 1-AA level, Terry Allen, 32, was named head coach of the Panthers January 5.

Now entering his 15th year of service to Northern Iowa, Terry Allen as a player, as an assistant and now as a head coach has played a key role in the establishment of the school's nationally-recognized football program and the overall excellence that is associated with it.

"I'm a UNI guy."

Having come to UNI in 1975 as a recruited athlete out of Iowa City (IA) West High School where he was an all-state quarterback, Allen began an association with the university during a period that can easily be described as the most productive in Panther football history. He took just a few snaps that first year, best known for UNI's playoff game (known as the "Mud Bowl") against Western Kentucky in old O.R. Latham Stadium as the UNI-Dome was rising from the earth across the street. He started the next three seasons, marred in 1977 by a broken collarbone which kept him off the field for three games.

He still holds three school records — total offensive attempts in a season (397), touchdowns scored in a game (4) and points scored in a game (24). Four team school records also were broken when he was a player which still stand.

That was only the beginning.

He's in possession of one other record. He's the only person who has been involved in every football game ever to be played in the UNI-Dome. Over the next 10 seasons, Allen has gone from being a graduate assistant in 1979 under Stan

Sheriff, to a fulltime assistant under Sheriff, Darrell Mudra and Earle Bruce, whom he replaced in January. He was recruited as a player because of his technical expertise in following the Houston veer offense he played under Sheriff. As a coach, he has aided the receivers, running backs and quarterbacks and called the offensive plays under Mudra. Along with Mudra and assistants Walt Klinker and Bill Salmon, the Panthers advanced to two 1-AA national semifinal games in the last five years. As head coach, his game plan calls for retrieving the wide open offense abandoned by Bruce.

Allen has coached three Panther all-Americans — tight ends Brian Baker and Sherrod Howard and quarterback Mike Smith.

He got the job he wanted. "I'm a UNI guy," he says. "It's a goal of every college coach to be able to coach his alma mater. I'm proud to be an alum of this institution, to have been an assistant coach here and to carry on in its tradition."

In 1977, Allen broke his collarbone, missing three games. Backup quarterback Dana Deines receives pointers.

Allen as an assistant.

An Interview With Terry Allen

What is your coaching philosophy? "My philosophy has been developed through observation and participation with three different coaches who I have played and worked for. I want the players to realize it is their football program and I'm here to accommodate that as much as possible. I need to develop the best staff I can and to develop an offensive and defensive scheme best suited to our personnel."

What is your philosophy for the football program? "To play and win with Iowa kids. I feel strongly about the caliber of athlete in this state. The players are of a makeup required to be successful at the 1-AA level. I realize we have to do some recruiting out of state, but the bulk will be made up of Iowa talent. The nature of our players are the focal point of this program — their dedication and work ethic. Also, with the UNI-Dome and the type of offense, we believe in a wide open offense that is fun and exciting, not only to play, but to view and participate in."

What are your strengths as a head coach? In what areas do you feel there are needs for improvement? "I have been associated with this program as both a player and coach. I have a pretty good idea what it takes to be successful and what the needs and interests are of the athletes. I know what it takes to be successful in the classroom and on the field. In some ways my age is an advantage. It wasn't so long ago I was walking across campus. I can relate to the players. I also think I have the ability to hire a quality staff."

"My age might be a disadvantage, however. Having not had any previous head coaching experience, I'm learning more each day and finding out about the responsibility. However, I have not felt overwhelmed."

What are your goals for this year's team? "The biggest goal with this group is getting the program back on its feet. The last eight months or so, these players have been on a physical and emotional roller coaster. We need to get the program back on steady ground. Winning is important, of course, but having the players happy and having them feel like they know what direction the program is headed in, that's more important. We've talked a lot with our team. About confidence in what we're doing as a team and in the program and in themselves as individuals. When you lose confidence in yourself or the program, then you tend to lose those close ball games and begin to question many things. My responsibility there is to provide confidence in the program so the players know what they're responsible for and how to do it. They are responsible for developing personal confidence."

How do you rate the football staff you've put together? After going through spring football, I couldn't be more excited with the group. The holdovers — (Walt) Klinker, (Bill) Salmon and (Mike) Kolling — I've worked with a number of years and feel strongly about their abilities. I have a special place in my heart for (Mark) Farley — for being a former player and getting a shot for going on and coaching. His enthusiasm and personal commitment for the program is outstanding. (Jay) Norvell has been more than I had hoped for. He's very professional and very, very enthusiastic and takes great pride in his segment and ability to teach. I can't say enough positive things about Ardell (Wiegandt). His football knowledge is exceptional and the players hold great respect for him. His previous experience is a calming factor for me."

What will be the offensive keys? On defense? "The development of the offensive line as a unit. There's probably not a group of individuals on a team where experience is more important. We're not blessed with a lot of experience, so we need to develop experience and confidence. We have a lot of new faces in the other positions that haven't yet been put to the test, but I feel pretty good about their football ability. I know we have talent, but how the talent is handled under fire is the question."

"We have the chance to be a very good defensive team. The key there is in the secondary. Mike has done an excellent job of coaching this spring and making the players aware of their weaknesses. The strength in defense is in personnel. We could get physical at times, but we should be able to out-finesse the opponent with our personnel."

Allen as head coach.

Briefly, your thoughts on the relationship between academics and athletics in college football today.

"The problem today is with the image in athletics and, unfortunately, there's been a lot more talk and print about the bad rather than the good. I can't see much that is different now than 10 years ago, but more light has been shed on the bad. Our academic and athletic relationship here leans very heavily in the academic direction. Dr. (Darrell) Mudra really had a lot to do with developing my thoughts as far as the value of participating in athletics and the academic and social development of an individual."

Do you feel 1-AA football is in trouble? "No. I think the NCAA feels pretty strong about the system it has developed. There's been talk for years about more or fewer divisions."

The Panther Assistants

Walt Klinker
Offensive Line

A former Big 8 center at Colorado, Klinker was hired by previous head coach Darrell Mudra six years ago and he has been retained by Earle Bruce and Terry Allen. Klinker played at Colorado from 1959-61 and was an all-American pick. He recently was voted the best two-way center in the history of Colorado football. He began his coaching career at the high school level. He was on the Colorado staff one year before coaching at Claremont Men's College in California two years. He spent the next nine years in the college ranks — five years at New Mexico, one at Fresno State and one more year at UM. Prior to taking the UNI job, he was an administrative assistant in the Wyoming athletic department.

Ardell Wiegandt
Defensive Line

Wiegandt rejoined the Panther staff this spring after becoming a volunteer assistant under Darrell Mudra during the 1987 season. He most recently was defensive coordinator for the Ottawa Roughriders and prior to that, was coordinator for the Montreal Alouettes in 1987. From 1985-86, Wiegandt handled the defensive line one year and the linebackers another for the Buffalo Bills. Other coaching assignments included stints with Wyoming (1983-84, offensive line, linebackers), Calgary Stampeders (1977-82, head coach 1980-81, offensive coordinator, offensive line, defensive coordinator, defensive line 1977-79), the Birmingham Vulcans (1974-75, linebackers, defensive coordinator, defensive line) and at North Dakota State (1969-73, defensive coordinator, linebackers). Wiegandt played under Mudra at North Dakota State from where he graduated in 1966.

Mike Kolling
Defensive Backs

Kolling rejoined the Panther staff two years ago following a two-year hiatus when he was an assistant with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders. He coached eight years at UNI before moving to the CFL club. Kolling has coached both the linebackers and secondary at UNI. He graduated from South Dakota State in 1972 and played briefly with the Denver Broncos and the Birmingham Americans of the WFL. Kolling was an assistant at South Dakota State one year and an assistant at North Dakota State two years before being named to the Panther staff, the first time in 1977.

Bill Salmon
Running Backs

Without a doubt one of the all-time greatest quarterbacks in UNI history, Salmon joined the Panther coaching staff six years ago. He led the Panthers as a player to the NCAA II playoffs in 1975. Known for his excellent throwing arm and football knowledge (he called about 75 percent of his own plays), he was superb at running the Panther veer attack. A three-year starter, he was named to the AP third team all-American list. The Minnesota Vikings picked him up following his last collegiate season, but a winter knee injury eventually spelled the end of his playing career.

Mark Farley
Linebackers

Farley is yet another Panther assistant who played his collegiate ball at UNI and now is coaching at his alma mater. Originally a walk on, he earned a full scholarship with the Panthers and was named Co-Defensive Player of the Year in the Gateway Conference in 1985. He received his bachelor's in 1987 with an industrial education major and has completed hours towards his master's in health education with primary emphasis in health promotion/fitness management. He's a certified strength and conditioning specialist and has handled those responsibilities for both football and men's basketball. After his eligibility expired, Farley moved directly into a graduate assistant's position with the Panthers before becoming a fulltime aide. Amongst his honors include twice being named honorable mention all-American and CoSIDA academic all-American. He also was given the UNI Purple and Old Gold Award for the most visible senior athlete. He's a native of Waukon, IA.

Bob Thurness
Offensive Line

Dr. Robert Thurness joined the Panther staff during spring drills after spending four years as athletic director and seven years as head football coach at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, IA. At Coe, he coached 55 first team all-conference players and six All-Americans. He also coached kicker Rims Roof, who held the national record for 102 consecutive kicks without a miss in 1985. His career record at Coe was 28-11-1 and includes two co-championships and two undefeated teams. He led the Kohawks to the school's only NCAA (Division III) playoff appearance in 1986. While at Coe, he served as District 6 Division II chairman of the All-American selection committee and was a member of the Western Region Division III Playoff Selection Committee. He served as an assistant in 1981, joining the Coe staff after seven successful seasons as head coach at Marion (IA) High School, which finished third twice in Class 3A. It won the state title in 1980. In addition, he has served as head coach at four other high schools and also was an assistant at the University of Dubuque. A 1962 grad of Coe, he holds four advanced degrees.

Jay Norvell
Receivers

A former all-Big Ten defensive back at Iowa, Norvell comes to UNI from Notre Dame where he had been a graduate assistant while working towards his masters in Management of Science in Administration. He also was a graduate assistant at Iowa from 1986-87 and has participated in Iowa's Football Camp and the Larry Station Football Academy. Norvell led the Big Ten in interceptions in 1985, the same year he was named honorable mention all-American. He originally was recruited as a tight end, the position he played during the 1983 season. He played professional ball with the Chicago Bears and Denver Broncos briefly.

Terry Noonan
Athletic Trainer

Noonan was named athletic trainer four years ago after serving as interim head trainer for one year. Prior to that, he had served as assistant trainer at UNI since 1983. From 1979-81, he was a graduate assistant at UNI and then spent the next two years as a physical fitness instructor at Hawkeye Institute of Technology. From 1981-83, he was head trainer at Columbus High School in Waterloo, IA, before joining UNI as a fulltime staff member. He is a nationally certified athletic trainer and has served as an examiner for the NATA Certification test.

Robert Kincaid
Academic Advisor

A native of Waterloo, IA, Kincaid joined the athletic staff in 1983, serving as academic advisor on a parttime basis. A graduate of East Waterloo High School, he graduated from Adams State in 1966 with a bachelor's degree in physical education with a minor in business administration. He spent four years at Northern Colorado as an assistant basketball coach and assistant dean of students while working on his masters in student personnel and administration. He also has been an accountant and auditor and has served as a counselor for juvenile Court.

Dick Timmerman
Equipment Manager

Timmerman joined the Panther staff in September of 1982 after spending 22 years as equipment manager and athletic trainer at Upper Iowa University in Fayette. He is responsible for overseeing equipment for all 19 intercollegiate sports, with primary responsibilities for football and basketball. Behind the Scenes

To Get You Started

A Review: The 1988 Gateway Conference football season was highlighted by Western Illinois winning its first ever league championship and advancing to the NCAA 1-AA playoffs. The Leathernecks compiled a perfect 6-0 GCAC mark and finished 10-2 overall. They lost to Western Kentucky, 35-32, in the first round of the playoffs.

The Gateway's strength showed up in the polls. Western was ranked third in the final poll and had been ranked as high as second earlier in the year. During the season, three other conference schools — Northern Iowa, Eastern Illinois and Indiana State — were ranked. The GCAC has placed at least one member in the 1-AA football Top Twenty poll 41 consecutive weeks (four seasons).

Final NCAA statistics had UNI's Milo Popovic ranked eighth in punt returns and the Panthers led the nation in kickoff returns. Mike McCabe of Illinois State led the nation in punting, while Western's Mike Krause ranked seventh. WIU's Emrich Wilcox was fifth in interceptions. Illinois State ranked third in net punting, Eastern Illinois was sixth in kickoff returns, WIU was sixth in turnover margin, seventh in scoring offense, fifth in passing defense and ninth in passing offense, and Southwest Missouri State ranked fifth in rushing offense.

In single game highs, UNI scored 77 points against Wayne State (NE). SMSU rushed and passed for 752 yards against Missouri Southern, and held its opponents to a minus-60 yards rushing.

Several GCAC records fell in 1988. Popovic set the record for most punt returns in a game with seven against EIU. Mike Borich of WIU tied the record for most receptions in a game with 10 against Southern Illinois. McCabe booted a punt 74 yards against Indiana State to tie the record for longest punt. UNI had nine punt returns against EIU to set another record.

The 1989 schedules of Gateway members show competition with the Big Eight (UNI vs. Kansas State), the Big Ten (Indiana State vs. Minnesota) and the Mid-American (Indiana State vs. Ball State), as well as 1-A independents Northern Illinois (twice), East Carolina and Akron.

Only nine all-Gateway Conference first team selections from last year return in 1989. Four are on offense and five are on defense. Fifteen players return from the second team.

UNI's returning statistical leaders include Steve Hougom (82 carries for 341 yards) and Darrin Eilander (32 for 131) in rushing, Ken Macklin (116 of 217 passes for 1,415 yards and five TDs) and Courtney Messingham (16-31 for 231 yards and 1 TD) in passing, Rory Feddersen (16 for 267 yards and 1 TD) and Popovic (12 for 150 and 0 TDs) in receptions. Returning defensive players include Steve Peitler (87 tackles, 53 solos) and Tim Peterson (73 tackles, 29 solos).

Outlook

A(Nother) Whole New Ballgame

As the 1989 football season approaches, Northern Iowa head coach Terry Allen's assessment of his squad's prospects reflects both a spirit of realism and a touch of optimism.

For a coach who has been involved in the Panther program for no less than 14 years, but approaching only his first as head coach, a conservative approach is only fitting.

"We'll be a very young team," Allen says. "This will be the third program a lot of these athletes will have worked under. We made great strides in the spring in teaching the basics of our offense and defense. We needed to simplify and put together in the players' minds the means of communication from two previous programs. The loss of 19 seniors didn't help the situation."

Those seniors participated on two playoff teams which advanced to the 1-AA semifinals. With their absence, only three starters return on offense, while the defensive side of the ball is blessed with eight returning starters. In total, 26 of 45 lettermen return from last year's disappointing 5-6 team.

In addressing his team's anticipated weaknesses and strengths, Allen knows that graduation took a heavy toll along the Panther offensive line, in the receiving corps and at the running back position. But to buoy any sinking feelings, Allen points out that two senior quarterbacks are on hand, though both have seen only limited playing time at UNI; and that some of the best football players are on the defensive side, including inside linebacker Bryce Paup and defensive end James Jones, both who have been touted as preseason All-Americans.

"The defense is going to have to carry us early in the season until the offense has an opportunity to mature," Allen says. "We're focusing our defensive strengths around Bryce to best accommodate his strengths. That, and the defensive scheme that Ardell (assistant Wiegandt) brings will do nothing but enhance our chances of being a good football team."

All told, it should be an interesting year for Panther fans, who have witnessed the Purple and Gold win 48 games in the last six years against only 22 losses.

A big reason for UNI's success under former head coach Darrell Mudra and current head mentor Allen, who served as quarterback coach under Mudra, has been the team's ability to move the football and put points on the scoreboard. The Panthers always have been able to put the ball in the air, along with having one premier running back to balance the rushing game. Northern Iowa has established a reputation as being one of the nation's premier offensive teams.

Whether or not the Panthers can match those offensive numbers, or retrieve that wide open offense seemingly put on hold during Earle Bruce's brief stopover in Cedar Falls, remains to be seen. With only three offensive starters back off last year's team, and only two of them able to be on the field at any one time, that could be a difficult assignment.

Offensive Line:

Young, but loaded with potential

Fundamentals must be the byword for the offensive line in 1989 as all but one starter from the 1988 season are gone. Although the line will be green, great potential could outweigh limited experience. At center, Matt Sindlinger was redshirted last year after transferring from Waldorf Junior College where he was named all-region. James Bodensteiner transferred from Ellsworth just this spring and Mike Fontana is expected to come in this fall from Iowa Central Community College.

At right tackle, junior Seth Bonnette also was redshirted last year after transferring from Waldorf and David Pratt transferred this spring from the College of DuPage.

Now emerging as a top-flight lineman, freshman redshirt Joseph Judge has moved into a possible starting position at right tackle. Backing him up are untested players — Ellsworth Junior College transfer Dave Creery and Air Force transfer Mike Leick.

The only starter returning in the line is senior David Campbell at right guard. Junior Steve Dhaemers was converted from defense to offense this spring to take advantage of his size and to beef up the offensive line. Dhaemers' backup, Pat Williams, was converted from a tight end last year under Bruce.

Backfield:

Untested, but full of surprises

Replacing Woody Wright, Errol Peebles and last year's surprise ground-gainer, Wes Anderson, may prove to be a tough challenge simply because UNI does not have a proven openfield threat heading into fall practice. However, the Panthers do have the young horses just waiting to break out.

One of the most pleasant surprises coming out of spring drills was the ability shown by sophomore Mike Schulte who was moved from a wide out position to running back. Schulte showed in scrimmage after scrimmage that he has the attributes of a Carl Boyd, UNI's All-American from a couple of seasons ago, who could not only run the ball, but became the Panthers' leading receiver as well. You don't replace a Boyd in one season, but Schulte could do it with experience.

Schulte is backed up by freshman redshirt Charles Young who underwent knee surgery after spring ball. Originally thought to be just a sprain, his injury has turned out to be much more serious and his status for fall is uncertain. Lack of depth is definitely a concern here.

Sophomore Steve Hougom, who led the nation in rushing yards as a prep, was moved to halfback from fullback when starter Darrin Eilander bruised a lung in one of the first spring scrimmages. Eilander is recovering slowly, though it is expected he will be back 100 percent this fall. Eilander has been used primarily as a backup to the past greats but has established his own reputation as a hard hitter on the specialty teams.

Also at halfback are sophomore Greg Wallace and freshman redshirt Ben Johnson who was switched from the secondary this spring to add depth.

Receiver:

Feddersen to supply threat

One of the three returning offensive starters is here in junior split end Rory Feddersen. In a position of such importance in Allen's pro-style offense, his experience is critical.

Feddersen's '88 numbers were not that great in Bruce's ground attack offense, but as a freshman two seasons ago he caught 33 passes for 469 yards. He has two of the surest hands on the team and can catch the ball in a crowd.

Backing him up are sophomore Brad Gehrke and freshman redshirt Simon Nelson who was moved from the defensive secondary. Gehrke primarily has seen action on the special teams but saw considerable time during spring ball and definitely will play more this fall.

At flanker, punt return specialist Milo Popovic also has gotten the nod at a starting role with the graduation of Wes Anderson. Popovic transferred from Moraine Valley Community College last year.

Backing him up is Northern University High grad Franklin Reed, another redshirt freshman, who had a good spring.

Tight end also was affected by graduation with the loss of four-year starter Sherrod Howard. Last year's backup, Troy Green, is listed second here behind freshman Chris Nuss who elected to play basketball for the Panthers this past season.

Quarterback: A blend

Hoping to be the triggerman for such an aerial attack are four athletes, none with considerable playing time at UNI. Senior Ken Macklin started for the Panthers last season after transferring from Phoenix College. The spring of '88 he practiced under Darrell Mudra's system. The fall of '88 he played under Earle Bruce's system. The spring of '89 he practiced under Terry Allen's system. In addition, he tore tendons in the thumb of his throwing arm last fall, missing the last two games of the year. Consequently, Macklin's experience has been varied and not consistent.

Replacing Macklin at the time of his injury was senior Courtney Messingham, who also has had a varied past. Recruited as a quarterback, he was switched to defensive back upon his arrival on campus. Plagued by injuries, he has not been able to settle into a position. Though not seeing any game action at quarterback until last fall, he did run the scout team on various occasions. Despite his lack of experience under fire, he led the Panthers to their final two victories last year.

Freshman redshirt Jay Johnson gave both Macklin and Messingham a taste of competition in the spring. Allen feels he will be a great quarterback in time.

The fourth signal caller is sophomore Troy Alexander who completed five of nine passes last season. He was held out of all contact work this spring, however, still recovering from shoulder surgery performed at the end of last season.

Kickers/Punters:

New faces emerge

Two-year starter Doug Jackson, who handled much of the placekicking and all of the punting chores, has used up all eligibility. An interesting battle is being waged for placekicking duties this year. The heir apparent is Marshall University transfer Brian Mitchell. Kicking for the Thundering Herd's 1-AA playoff team as a freshman two years ago, he made 12 of 19 field goals, the longest being 49 yards, and 42 of 43 extra points.

Playing behind him in the spring was sophomore Tracy Tenpenny, who shared duties with Jackson last fall, primarily handling kickoffs. He was three-for-three in extra points and is extremely consistent in short-range field goal kicking.

Leading candidates for punting include junior Dan Rush, who averaged 39.6 yards on 12 punts behind Jackson last year, and backup split end Brad Gehrke.

Defensive Line: Formidable

Fortunately, the defensive line is not as inexperienced as the offensive line, particularly with the return of junior James Jones who has started at right end since he was a freshman. Line coach Ardell Wiegandt said Jones could play for anyone in the country, at any level, despite the fact he still has two years eligibility remaining. He was fifth on the team in tackles last season and led the team in quarterback sacks.

Another parttime starter returning is senior Todd Eagen at the other end spot. He recorded 31 tackles, including four for loss, last season.

Senior Mike Brinkman, a transfer from Waldorf Junior College last season, seems to have nailed down the starting nose tackle spot. He tallied 36 tackles and three sacks last year. He's backed up by senior Parnell Davis, a Triton Junior College transfer last year.

Linebacker: Loaded

Most defenses are only as good as its linebackers and UNI should have some good ones to count on this fall.

Backing up the front line at inside linebacker are two more exceptional athletes who compliment James Jones' prowess up front. Senior Steve Peitler returns to his starting role and is the top returning tackler. He was credited with 87 stops last season, including 53 solos, after transferring from Phoenix College along with QB Ken Macklin.

On the other side matching wits is UNI's second preseason all-American pick, Bryce Paup. Wiegandt is just as complimentary about Paup as he is about Jones, saying "there are not many athletes who have Paup's physical ability and his athletic talent." Paup finally is playing back at inside backer, his most productive position, after playing outside linebacker and defensive end in the past.

The outside positions are a mixture of old and new. On one side, junior Matt Brinkman, brother of tackle Mike, seems to be holding onto a starting position after transferring this spring from Waldorf Junior College. On the other side, sophomore Brad Baumler is listed no. 1. Baumler started two games last year and was credited with 31 tackles and three sacks.

Secondary: Klieman a leader, surrounded by quality

Defending the pass has been an important segment in UNI's scheme for several seasons because of the emphasis put upon the aerial attack by the Panthers' opponents. The secondary has been an area of concern in the past but UNI's air defense just might be up to the challenge this year.

The Panthers have four players returning who have started more than 50 percent of their games at UNI. Senior Mark Hein is listed at strong safety after playing outside linebacker last year. He was fourth on the team in tackles with 71 and deflected three passes.

Junior Chris Klieman returns to his starting role following an injury which sidelined him for the last eight games in 1988. Two years ago, he led the team in solo tackles (65).

Sophomore Duane Petersen took over Klieman's position last year and did exceptionally well as a freshman. Currently, he's listed as a starter at right corner.

Returning Starters in Bold

David Campbell

By Ben Hildebrandt, KCRG-TV Reporter/Cameraman

What do a black hole and University of Northern Iowa offensive guard David Campbell have in common? They both gobble up everything in sight!

An average culinary day for Campbell begins with a six-egg omelet, toast and a high protein weight-gain shake. By nightfall, after a hardy five meals laced with a mix of health food and junk food, dash of pasta and sprinkle of steak and potatoes, Campbell is set for bed. Right after one more little snack — two heaping fistfuls of candy, especially peanut butter cups, and another large weight-gain shake for good measure.

"The snack before bed is the one that has really helped me put on extra weight this past year," says Campbell.

This past year, Campbell has gained more than 30 pounds from constant eating and working out in the UNI weightroom. The fifth-year senior lineman stands 6-5, weighs 260 now and hopes to gain 10 more pounds by the fall campaign.

Offensive line coach Walt Klinker sees Campbell, a Spencer, IA, native, as the rock of his offense.

"Dave was a high school tight end and we recruited him because of his great height and speed (Campbell runs a 4.9 40)," says Klinker. "Coming into the program, Dave was skinny. He weighed 215. We knew he had the potential to be a good football player. The problem has always been putting on weight. He finally has done that, and now he is the man we look to in the trenches."

After a redshirt freshman year, Campbell played on the scout team for two seasons. Last year, he saw part-time action with the offensive line. Klinker says Campbell has developed over the years and is "reaching the potential we always knew he had."

"I guess I have paid my dues," smiles Campbell. "The first couple of years I got down on myself. It was a tough time because I lost a lot of self-confidence. I've always been tough on myself. If things didn't go right I would blame me. I guess I still do that. But now, with practice and experience, I make fewer mistakes."

As the only experienced offensive lineman returning and a team co-captain this season, Campbell is excited about the chance to be a team leader.

"It's going to be a great challenge," he says. "I've sat back and been led for the past five years. Now, it's my turn. I'm not a real talker. No Knute Rockne, no 'get out there and win one for the Gipper'. I lead by example."

Campbell's newfound confidence leads him to predict a great year for the offensive line he anchors.

"We hear so much about the offensive line being the weak link in the Panther game," he says. "Even though we are young and very inexperienced, the five of us together have great potential. We could be the best offensive line in the state (including Iowa's and Iowa State's) by the end of the year."

Campbell adds there is a strong core of starters on the line, but if any man becomes lacadaisical, he can be replaced. "Everyone is hungry right now. We've got several good players back and if the potential of a great season isn't enough motivation for one guy, there are several others who are motivated."

The team's potential is something new head coach Terry Allen brought, says Campbell. "Coach T.A. is the best thing that could have happened to our team. He's been with the program for many years, knows the history and is a players' coach. He works with his team."

When you sit and talk to David Campbell, you notice two things. The 6-5 athlete is like a gentle giant. He feels football players often are misunderstood. He thinks many people believe athletes are "dumb" and that they "just have to hit an opponent hard enough to knock them down". He waxes philosophical by saying there are strategies and tactics and literally hundreds of diagrams needing to be memorized.

"It's not just a game of brute force," he says. "You have to think an awful lot out there. Every play is different and if you don't understand the complexities of the game, you could easily get hurt."

One thing Campbell understands is the complexities of the game. Klinker says the reason he is a captain is because everyone on the team respects him.

"He has played with pain. When he is sick, he still plays. David asks no quarter and gives no quarter. But what is most important is his work ethic. He has worked hard to become a good football player. Worked on the field, in the weight room, watching films over and over. And learning the aspects of the game. More than just the fundamentals. The complexities," Klinker said.

Campbell's hard work may continue to pay off after his college gridiron days are over. Scouts from the NFL already have seriously looked at the senior.

"If Dave has a good year," says Klinker, "he will have an opportunity at professional ball. The scouts have looked at him because of his physical size and athletic ability. Now all he has to do is perform."

When given a goal, Campbell works towards it. He's proven he can perform. He takes his job of team captain seriously. With student-athlete problems publicized nation-wide, he considers his actions carefully.

"The responsibility makes me think more," he said. "I don't want to hurt the team by doing anything stupid."

Odds are Campbell won't make mistakes on or off the field. His goals of cohesiveness, a winning season, having fun and simply playing well his senior year are within reach.

As a black hole chews up nearby objects for eternity, come the fall, David Campbell is set to move his appetite from peanut butter cups and omelets to defensive linemen and linebackers.

James Jones

By Dearrel Bates, Quad-City Times

The 1988 football season is now a memory for James Jones. The memories—both good and bad—may help spur the former Davenport Central prep star to perhaps new heights this fall.

Now a junior at the University of Northern Iowa, Jones has been an impact player since he came aboard as a Panther a couple of years ago. He became a starter at defensive end as a freshman in the season's fourth game and has been there since, earning Gateway Conference honorable mention status last all.

"I think a lot of our football players lost some confidence last season," said Jones, fifth on the team in tackles with 59 and the leader in sacks (six) and fumble recoveries (three) in '88.

"I was playing pretty well, but it was almost a relief when Coach (Earle) Bruce announced he was leaving. It seemed to take a big load off the minds of a lot of people connected with our football program."

Last year, the football team went through a rocky eight-month period. First, former Coach Darrell Mudra resigned in May. Then Bruce—the former Iowa State and Ohio State coach—was hired in July before resigning in December after a 5-6 season.

"Coach Bruce changed our defensive concept when he came, and it was like learning things all over," Jones said about the switch to a five-man defensive front. "Offensively, we went from a passing attack to more of a running team."

"I can't say the defense we changed to wasn't successful; we still ranked in the top ten in rushing defense and were 14th in the nation in overall defense. But not everybody was comfortable with it."

When the brief Bruce era ended, Terry Allen was installed as the head coach. He had been a quarterback at UNI, an assistant under Mudra and had stayed on as an assistant to Bruce.

With Allen, fans can expect to see more wide-open offensive football. In addition, there will be a return to the Panthers' 3-4 defense, with a couple of outside linebackers sometimes jumping into the defensive line alignment.

"I know it's going to create more stunts and blitzes for the defense, and that's what I enjoy," said the 6-2, 255-pound Jones. "Sacks are the premier play for any defensive player."

"Quickness is one of my biggest assets, and the defense we'll be using allows for more free-lancing. The thing you must do, however, is control your aggression; as a defensive lineman, you can't afford to get over-anxious."

Jones' position coach, Ardel Wiegandt, is one of his biggest fans. A former player for Mudra when he coached in the Canadian Football League, Wiegandt was a volunteer assistant when Jones was a freshman and then was hired by Allen to coach the defensive line.

"James is a talented player with some tremendous athletic ability," Wiegandt said. "He can play a down lineman's position or at inside linebacker; he has a great career opportunity to become not only one of the best ever to play at Northern Iowa but also one of the best Division 1-AA players."

"James needs to improve his strength to become a great player on the 1-AA level or on any collegiate level, or even beyond that."

"He's going to find teams trying to double-team him, so we're going to find ways to be flexible with him. For instance, we're going to move him around, trying to get him one-on-one with an offensive guard."

"Because of James' quickness and intelligence, he's going to beat that guard most of the time. Defensively, we believe we must exploit our athletes' talents to let them go after people to get the turnovers we need."

Jones nearly went to one of UNI's Gateway Conference opponents, Eastern Illinois.

"When I was a senior in high school, there were a lot of major colleges who were recruiting me," he said. "Midway through my senior year, I broke my leg and I stopped hearing from everybody. I thought maybe my football career might be over."

"I visited Eastern Illinois and they offered me a scholarship. I was about to sign when UNI wanted me to come for a visit."

"As soon as I stepped in the (UNI)-Dome, I knew that was the place I wanted to play football and go to college."

Jones feels playing indoors at the Dome gives him and his Panther teammates an advantage.

"It's tough for teams coming into the Dome to adjust for the one game," he said. "It seems to be easier for the defensive linemen to get the offensive linemen turned around on the turf."

The Panthers hope to take that defensive advantage and turn it into a big plus with eight starters returning. Only three are back on offense.

"At least at the outset, the defense may have to carry the offense a little," Jones said. "I think you'll see the offense come around."

"I think it's a very realistic goal for our football team to get back into the playoffs and perhaps even win a national title. But those things are down the road; we need to have a good start."

That start comes Sept. 2 at home against Mankato State before a trip to Division I opponent Kansas State on Sept. 16.

"Everybody likes going against the Division I schools; you never have any problem getting up to play them to test your talents," Jones said. "I think next year we play three—Iowa State, Kansas State and Oklahoma State—so it should be fun."

Bryce Paup

By Troy Dannen, Iowa Girl's High School Athletic Union Publications Director

Four linebackers are named 1-AA All-American each year. One or two of those athletes make it with raw talent, and one or two others have reached the top through hard work, alone. Then, every so often, a player combines both raw talent and hard work to reach the pinnacle of 1-AA football. Northern Iowa's Bryce Paup is one of those rare players.

At 6-5, 235 pounds, no. 55 has the physical tools to be one of, if not the best, inside linebackers in the nation. After being recruited by only a few NAIA and Division III schools in high school, his hard work which resulted in a starting position as a sophomore is apparent.

Paup is about to begin his senior year at UNI after graduating from Scranton (IA) High School, located in west central Iowa. After deciding not to play football at a smaller school, it was his girlfriend who convinced former UNI head coach Darrell Mudra to give Paup a look.

"I didn't want to go to a smaller school," Paup said. "I was just hoping to make the team when I came here."

He was a long way from the NFL back then, but as time has advanced, so has Paup's skill on the field. Defensive line coach Ardell Wiegandt has seen time in both the Canadian league and NFL, and he rates Paup as one of the most talented 'backers in the country.

"There are not many athletes who have Paup's physical ability and his athletic talent," Wiegandt said. "I feel he has a great opportunity to go on and be an All-American this year. He is a super pass rusher and is quick enough to be strong against the run."

It's easy to say a player should be an All-American, but Paup can back it up. Playing out of position last season, he was sixth on the team with 57 tackles, 10 for loss, including five sacks. He also forced a fumble. As a sophomore, he was credited with 112 tackles and seven sacks and he recovered two fumbles.

Last season was the third time in three seasons he was forced into a position change, playing at defensive end under former coach Earle Bruce. The reason was to create an end combination along with James Jones that could prove lethal to opponent offenses. However, his most natural position is inside linebacker.

"In some ways it (position changes) has been a hindrance, but it has given me experience that could help if I go on to the pros," Paup said. "I wished they hadn't moved me last fall. It was pretty frustrating not being in on all the plays. Inside is my favorite position."

"He adapted well to the new position (ILB) last spring," Wiegandt said. "He has a great knowledge of everyone's responsibilities. Paup has the ability to make the great play, and near the end of the spring he was playing very well at inside linebacker."

One of Paup's goals for himself and the team is to lead the way in becoming the no. 1 ranked defense in the nation. With that, he hopes not only All-American honors come, but also elusive Gateway all-conference recognition.

"I hope I'm all-conference this year," Paup said. "I thought it was strange last year (when he made only honorable mention) and I'll make sure it doesn't happen again."

"I would like to make the pros," he said. "Ever since I was a kid, it has been my goal to play in the NFL. If I don't get drafted, I'll probably try out as a free agent or go to Canada."

If Wiegandt is right, Paup has nothing to worry about.

"He has all the physical requirements to play professional football," Wiegandt said. "That alone projects him as a draftable player, somewhere in the top five rounds. He'll get an opportunity to play professional football. Compared to other players I've coached, he has the assets to play professional football. He has that special quality that not many athletes have."

Physical talent alone is not going to give Paup All-American status and a pro football career. Desire and a strong work ethic are two other assets that have him staring in the face his dream of a pro football career.

A 6-5 man who can bench press 400 pounds (despite never having lifted weights in high school) and who can run a 40 somewhere around 4.7 can make most people do as he pleases. As a defensive captain, however, Paup is using more than just size and strength to make his teammates perform.

"Bryce has the ability to help the other players around him play better," Wiegandt said. "He helps our team in more ways than making tackles. He plays at a very high level and helps his teammates play at a higher level."

It may have been Steve Besch, Paup's high school coach, who gave him the necessary advice about being a captain.

"Our first game (his senior year) went pretty bad and I let it show," Paup said. "Coach pulled me aside and said that I couldn't do that because 'they look to you for leadership'. It was the first time I'd really thought of that."

"I've learned to stay in the game mentally better since I have been calling signals," he said. "As a captain, I have to keep the other guys mentally involved in the game."

Obviously, Paup has the physical assets and the leadership qualities to be all-Gateway, All-American and even a pro. Once Paup puts his mind to something, he doesn't stop short of his goal.

"I'll do whatever it takes to play professional football," he said. "I hope to at least get a chance to make it. If I can't do anything given the chance, it's my own fault. At least I will have had the chance."

Paup's girlfriend gave him the chance at Northern Iowa. He's making the most of it.

(Attend. 14,443)

Northern Iowa ... 0 14 7 20 0 - 41
Northeast

Louisiana ... 7 28 0 6 3 - 44

Highlights: UNI played without the services of Kodak All-American running back Carl Boyd, who broke his leg the week before against Arkansas State. The Panthers, ranked fourth, trailed 35-14 at the half but they came back to score seven unanswered points in the third period. In the fourth, they scored 20 more and tied the game with seven seconds left in regulation on a five-yard pass from Mike Smith to Sherrod Howard. The two-point conversion pass to Woody Wright sent the game into overtime. UNI's Errol Peebles fumbled on NLU's three in the first overtime possession. NLU's Teddy Garcia missed a 41 yard field goal on the Indians' first play, but he connected on his next 41 yard attempt to give NLU the lead. UNI's Danny Helmer missed a 38 yard field goal to give NLU the victory. Wright, replacing the injured Boyd in his first start, rushed for 112 yards on 20 carries. Smith's six touchdown passes set a playoff record.

Northern Iowa ... 6 15 7 21 - 49

Highlights: The Panthers defeated 12th ranked and 1986's national runnerup to advance to the semifinals. The Panthers took advantage of three Arkansas State fumbles in the fourth quarter to stretch the margin. UNI compiled 530 yards to ASU's 363. (Attend. 3,887)

Youngstown State ... 7 7 7 7 - 28
Northern Iowa ... 7 10 14 0 - 31

Highlights: UNI foiled a Youngstown State attempt at a comeback, intercepting a Penguin pass and holding YSU on two consecutive fourth down conversions in the fourth quarter. YSU scored its last touchdown with only 8:51 left in the game, necessitating the Panthers' heroics to preserve the win. Even with the interception and fourth down saves, UNI's Carl Boyd fumbled the ball at Youngstown's 20 with just over a minute to play. The Penguins drove to UNI's 23, but missed a 40 yard field goal with seconds left. Boyd rushed for 126 yards on 23 carries.

1985 DIVISION 1-AA SEMIFINALS

December 14 at Cedar Falls, IA
(Attend. 12,300)

Georgia Southern ... 14 3 7 16 - 40
Northern Iowa ... 14 6 3 10 - 33

Highlights: Georgia Southern brought its "Hambone" offense to the UNI-Dome. The Eagles scored their last touchdown with only 34 seconds left in the game after UNI had tied the contest at the 2:44 mark. The game see-sawed back and forth until it came down to which team had last possession, or at least enough time to make a score possible. The game was tied four times.

1985 DIVISION 1-AA

QUARTERFINALS

December 7 at Cedar Falls, IA
(Attend. 6,220)

Eastern Washington ... 0 0 7 7 - 14
Northern Iowa ... 10 7 0 0 - 17

Highlights: UNI took a 10-0 first quarter lead on a 32 yard field goal by Kevin Mote and a 13 yard pass from Mike Smith to Brian Baker, who later broke his hand. The Panthers had a 17-0 half-time advantage but didn't score again, while EWU pulled to within 10 points in the third period and scored its last touchdown with 12:47 left in the game on an 84 yard punt return. The Eagles got as far as their own 44 with time running out on the clock, but the quarterback was sacked for a loss of four on a fourth down play. Errol Peebles rushed for 129 yards on 26 carries, his fifth 100-plus game of the year.

1975 DIVISION II PLAYOFFS (FIRST ROUND)

November 29 at Cedar Falls, IA
(Attend. 2,500)

Western Kentucky ... 0 7 7 0 - 14
Northern Iowa ... 6 0 0 0 - 12

Highlights: In what has since been dubbed the "Mud Bowl," UNI struggled with Western Kentucky in heavy rain, 42-degree temperatures and a 16 mph wind in the last game to be played in O.R. Latham Stadium. The Panthers closed to within two points when they rallied with 12:25 left in the game. The last touchdown was set up when Jim Fransen put WKU in a hole by booting a 64 yard punt to its one yard line. UNI had two chances to cash in in the final period but two errant field goals by Fransen buried the Panthers chances deep into the muddy field. Fransen missed from 38 and 27 yards.

Schultz ran for 160 yards on 38 carries and scored two touchdowns. He was named outstanding back of the game and teammate Loren Buser received the outstanding lineman award.

1960 MINERAL WATER BOWL

November 26 at Excelsior Springs, MO

Highlights: Iowa State Teachers College ran into a bulldozer from Hillsdale College (MI) which won the contest 17-6. The Panthers never really got going after finishing the season with a fine 9-0 record and winning the North Central Conference title.

In the Pros

Steve Wright, Tackle, Los Angeles Raiders

Despite an abundance of offensive line talent, the Dallas Cowboys signed Wright as a free agent in 1981. In 1983, he was traded to the Baltimore Colts and became their starting right guard but was slowed by an ankle injury. He signed with the Michigan Panthers in December of 1984, with his contract assigned to the invaders following consolidation. In the spring of 1987, he was picked up by the Los Angeles Raiders. Wright was a four-year letterman at UNI, playing offensive tackle his first three seasons and tight end as a senior.

Joe Fuller, Nickel Back, Minnesota Vikings

Without waiting for the NFL draft, Fuller, a 1985 Kodak and Football News first team All-American, signed with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League. With his option expiring with the Roughriders, he signed with the Vikings this past spring. Fuller played four years for the Panthers. He led the nation in 1983 in punt returns.

Jeff Bealles, Defense, Ottawa Rough Riders

Bealles signed with the Ottawa club of the Canadian Football League following his senior year with the Panthers in 1987. He was a third team Associated Press All-American and second team Football News 1-AA All-American. A four-year starter, he has been one of the few players to start as a freshman at UNI.

The Gateway Conference

The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference enters its eighth year of existence and its fifth season of operating a seven-school NCAA 1-AA football division. The GCAC was founded as a women's athletic organization by 10 midwestern universities with similar academic and athletic interests.

In August of 1985, the GCAC's President's Council voted to add a 1-AA football division for six of its members to their previously all-women's athletics organization. Forming the football division were Eastern Illinois, Illinois State, UNI, Southern Illinois, Southwest Missouri State and Western Illinois. This move marked the first time in college annals that men's football was added to a women's conference. In June of 1986, Indiana State became the seventh member of the Gateway football division.

The football division of the Gateway quickly has become a national power. In the Gateway's inaugural football season, UNI carried the league banner to the semifinals of the national playoffs before being stopped by eventual national champion, Georgia Southern. The strength of the fledgling Gateway was confirmed in July 1986 when the NCAA 1-AA Football Committee voted to waive the league's two-year waiting period and grant the GCAC an automatic bid to the national championships. Eastern Illinois captured the league crown that season and advanced to the quarterfinals before dropping a two-point decision to Eastern Kentucky.

In 1987, UNI again represented the league well by advancing to the semifinals, only to lose again to the eventual national champion, Northeast Louisiana, in a 44-41 overtime game.

League Personnel

The only commissioner to govern the Gateway Conference, Patty Viverito is entering her eighth year in that capacity. The 37-year old native of Chicago was selected following a nationwide search in 1982. She has a wide and varied background in athletic marketing and administration. Formerly an account executive for the Tidewater Tides minor league baseball team, she served as special projects director at the University of Texas from 1979-81.

Viverito earned her bachelor's degree from Northern Illinois and her master's degree, with honors, in sports management from Massachusetts.

Tracie Dittmore joined the league staff as Director of Information in September of 1988. A 1980 graduate of Kansas State, she served the previous eight years in the Big Eight Conference office as Assistant Service Bureau Director and was promoted to Associate Director in 1983. During her tenure, the Big Eight hosted two NCAA Midwest Regional Basketball Tournaments and the 1988 Men's Final Four.

As a student at KSU, she worked four years in the sports information office and was a sports correspondent for the Wichita Eagle-Beacon. She is a native of Holton, KS.

The NCAA 1-AA Playoffs

The NCAA 1-AA championship playoff system is in its 12th year with around 90 teams from four regions competing for the national championship. The tournament was expanded from eight to 12 teams qualifying in 1982 and to 16 teams in 1986, with seven conference champs from the Big Sky, Ohio Valley, Southern, Southland, Southwestern Athletic, Gateway and Yankee Conferences receiving automatic berths. UNI's Gateway Conference, the newest league, became eligible in 1986. The top two independent teams receive berths and the remaining teams are selected at large by a committee.

The Panthers compete in the Central Region and received a first round bye in 1985 with its no. 4 ranking in the final 1-AA poll. The Ohio Valley Conference, along with UNI, Eastern Illinois, Illinois State, Indiana State, Southern Illinois, Southwest Missouri State and Western Kentucky, are assigned to this region.

In 1987, UNI again was ranked fourth in the 1-AA poll and hosted the first two rounds before travelling to Northeast Louisiana for the semifinal matchup.

Past 1-AA champions are Florida A&M (1978), Eastern Kentucky (1979), Boise State (1980), Idaho State (1981), Eastern Kentucky (1982), Southern Illinois (1983), Montana State (1984), Georgia Southern (1985-86), Northeast Louisiana (1987) and Furman (1988).

Besides Northern Iowa, other Gateway Conference teams which have competed in the 1-AA playoffs are Southern Illinois and Eastern Illinois.
