ABOUT THE ARTISTS

Ashley Hall is an internationally renowned trumpet soloist, chamber musician, clinician, and coach. From small rural villages in the developing world to grand concert halls, both personally and professionally Ashley has engaged in her passion for building community and inviting people into the experience of music as a tool for connection.

As the principal trumpet of the Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra, Ashley enjoys regular cross-discipline artistic collaborations in connection with their highly successful Summermusik Festival. She has performed with the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra, Sydney Symphony Orchestra, Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, North Carolina Symphony, New World Symphony Orchestra, Sinfonia Gulf Coast, and more.

Her work as a soloist and recitalist has taken her around the globe including performances in Taiwan, South Korea, New Zealand, Australia, Germany, Mexico and China. Recent career highlights include solo appearances in Taipei, Taiwan with the Grace Orchestra, multiple performances with the North Carolina Brass Band, Lexington Brass Band, Atlantic Brass Band, and the Sheldon Theatre Brass Band. Other recent highlights include solo recital tours, national and international tours with Stiletto Brass Quintet, and being the featured trumpet solo artist and clinician at both the International Women's Brass Conference and the National Trumpet Competition.

Mrs. Hall holds a bachelor's degree in trumpet performance from the University of Cincinnati-College Conservatory of Music and an artist diploma from the Longy School of Music.

Rebecca Wilt has received national and international recognition as a virtuoso collaborative pianist and coach. She has worked with many of the world's prominent wind instrument performers, as well as some of the country's foremost vocalists, and has performed in many of the world's greatest venues in North America, Europe, and Asia. Ms. Wilt studied with John Wustman, "dean of American accompanists" and pianist for Luciano Pavarotti, as well as Jon Spong, and Jessica Paul. She has also served as pianist and vocal coach for several opera productions. In addition to degrees in vocal coaching/accompanying, Rebecca also holds two degrees in vocal performance.

Ms. Wilt has performed in collaboration with members of the New York Philharmonic, the Boston Symphony, the National Symphony, the San Francisco Symphony, the Los Angeles Philharmonic, and more. She frequently gives workshops and master classes at universities and colleges all over the country on topics involving vocal coaching, instrumental chamber music, rehearsing with a pianist, and the competition road. Currently on the faculty at the University of North Carolina Greensboro, she is also on the summer faculty for the Center for Advanced Musical Studies in Enfield, New Hampshire, the AIMS opera festival in Graz, Austria, as well as appearing as a guest artist at various festivals all over the world.
