The First Annual Northest Iowa Heritage Hills Christian Music Fest will be held August 1, 2 and 3 at Heritage Farm Park outside of Clermont on U.S. Hwy. 18.

Bands will perform on two stages and will include Akison Road, The Allers, Avolyn, Bxebi Norman, Brook of Stone, Capital Lights, Chilie

138 John Waller, Lightning Owls, Meredith Andrews, Pillar and Shane McDonald, with more performers to be added up to show time.

Heritage Farm Park, the site of the event, is a recreational and educational facility that celebrates and preserves Iowa's rural agricultural and cultural heritage.

Needful in the beautiful rolling hills and valleys of Northeast Iowa, just north of Clermont and next to the Historic Montauk site, it is an easy scenic drive from all directions. There are many historic buildings, including the Heritage Barn and Silo, the Rural School House, a Blacksmith Shop, Log Cabins, Cistern and more. Parking is first in size and their RV and dpartment Parking is off site for the festival.

Along with three days of Christian music, there will be inspirational speakers, inflatables, games, sports and a wide variety of foods to sell at the festive atmosphere. There will be something for all age groups.

Friday night features Brook of Stone, a local rock band.
