Forward Together Update, February 11, 2022

University of Northern Iowa
University of Northern Iowa

Forward Together Update

Important Resources and Contacts

The University of Northern Iowa is monitoring reports and recommendations about coronavirus (COVID-19) from the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and the Iowa Department of Public Health (IDPH) on a frequent basis.

On-Campus Resources

- CARES Act Reporting
- Student Health Clinic Telehealth Services
- Counseling Center Telehealth Services
- Tips for Succeeding in Online Classes
- UNI Study Abroad Center website (COVID-19 impact on Study Abroad)
- Rod Library COVID-19 LibGuide

Remote Work and Learning

- Remote Resources for Library Users
- IT Remote Services and Support
- Resources from the Center For Excellence in Teaching and Learning (CETL)

External Resources

- American College Health Association Considerations for Institutions of Higher Education as Students Return Home (PDF)
- Centers for Disease Control (CDC)
- CDC COVID-19 Parental Resources Kit
- CDC Foundation’s "How Right Now: Finding What Helps"
- Iowa Department of Public Health (IDPH)
- Black Hawk County Health Department COVID-19 site
- World Health Organization
- John Hopkins University COVID-19 situation dashboard
- U.S. Department of State
- COVID-19 in Iowa
University of Northern Iowa

UNI Employee Contacts

- Employees with general questions should contact Human Resource Services
  - Call 319-273-2422 or send an email to hrs-mail@uni.edu
- Employees needing help managing anxiety or any uncertainty related to Coronavirus (COVID-19) should access the Employee Assistance Program
- Employees with general campus safety questions should contact Public Safety at 319-273-2712 or the Office of Risk Management and Environmental Health and Safety at safety@uni.edu or 319-273-5800
  - Report an incident, injury or safety concern
- Employees with health-related questions or concerns regarding students should contact the Student Health Center
  - Call 319-273-2009 to talk to a nurse if you have questions about a student feeling sick or showing symptoms of illness

UNI Student Contacts

- Students with general questions should contact the Dean of Students
  - Call 319-273-2332 or send an email to deanofstudents@uni.edu
- Students who have COVID-19 related concerns to share should email forwardtogether@uni.edu
- Students who need help notifying their professors if they go into quarantine or isolation should submit complete the Panther Health Survey, and the Dean of Students office will help you notify faculty members
University of Northern Iowa

- Students with questions or concerns about classroom or co-curricular changes for the fall semester should email success@uni.edu

- Students with questions related to housing and dining should contact the Department of Residence

- Students should contact the Student Health Center by calling 319-273-2009 first before coming to talk to a nurse and/or making an appointment if:
  - You are feeling sick or showing symptoms of illness
  - Someone you live with is feeling sick or showing symptoms of illness
  - You know or believe you have been exposed to someone with COVID-19 or other infectious disease
  - You have questions about testing
  - You need to schedule an appointment for medical and/or psychiatric care services
  - Other health-related questions (i.e. why to wear a face covering, how to properly wear and clean a mask, why physical distancing matters, etc.)

- Students should contact Student Wellness Services by calling 319-273-3423 or making an online appointment if:
  - You want support in managing your physical, social, emotional, intellectual, financial, occupational, spiritual, and/or environmental wellness
  - You have alcohol and/or other drug questions
  - You have eating/nutrition questions
  - Other wellness-related questions (i.e. feeling isolated, in need of making connections on campus, how to cope/manage stress, etc.)

- Students with questions about Study Abroad programs should contact the Study Abroad Center
  - Call 319-273-7078 or send an email to study-abroad@uni.edu