COACHES

Jim Hall

Panther head coach Jim Hall dives into his 10th season at UNI with a mix of veterans and underclassmen that he says could spell success. The 1989 Midwest Championship Coach of the Year has a 50-86 career record at UNI, including a 2-12 record last year.

By the time he had graduated from Eastern Illinois, Hall held records in the 800 freestyle relay and the 500 yard freestyle. He was an all-American in six events and was named to three all-conference and all-American teams.

Since he began coaching at UNI, the Panthers have broken 33 of the school's 42 records, including every women's record. Last season alone, the Panthers set 16 school marks.

Jeff Noble

Jeff Noble enters his fourth year as the Panthers' head diving and assistant swimming coach with a mix of experience and youth in the diving program.

After graduation from Iowa State, Noble earned a master's degree in recreation administration from Western Illinois. He began his coaching career at Urbandale High School where he coached two state qualifiers. His next coaching job returned him to Western Illinois, where he coached two school record-holders, a conference record-holder and a two-year NCAA Zone Qualifier.

The Panthers

Sarah Graham: A senior tri-captain from Urbandale, IA, Graham carries a double major in Psychology and Sociology and says her eventual goal is to become a sports psychologist. She was a four-year letterwinner and state qualifier at Urbandale High School where she also earned academic all-conference honors.

Katy Lamb: A senior tri-captain from Cedar Rapids, IA, Lamb competes in the distance events for UNI. She qualified for the state meet all four years of high school and earned seven letters in swimming and golf.

Mary McCuskey: An athlete that has been described by Coach Jim Hall as the greatest female swimmer he has ever coached, this Mason City, IA, native typifies UNI swimming. McCuskey owns one relay and four individual records and has been a Gateway Conference champion. In 1992, she was named Gateway Athlete of the Decade in swimming. Her grandfather, Dave McCuskey, was the UNI wrestling coach for more than 20 years, leading the Panthers to the NCAA Championship in 1950.

Shannon Bunger: A junior from Cedar Falls, IA, Bunger was a member of the school record-breaking 400 meter freestyle relay team last year. A four-year state qualifier at Cedar Falls' Northern University High School, Bunger was a member of the 1989 400 freestyle relay state champions while being named to all-state and all-conference teams. A psychology major, Bunger lists her hobbies as running and biking.

Kim Kadlec: A junior from West Des Moines, IA, Kadlec has set three relay and three individual school records while maintaining a perfect 4.00 grade point average. She was a four-year state qualifier at West Des Moines Valley High School and was a member of the relay team that set the state medley relay record.

Emily O'Toole: A sophomore from Marshalltown, IA, O'Toole was a member of two record-breaking relay teams last year. In high school, she was a two-time all state performer in the 100 backstroke and finished in the top 10 in four events. With an undecided major, she said coaching may be in her future.

Nadine Ellis: A sophomore from Urbandale, IA, Ellis set two relay and two individual school records last year. In high school, Ellis was a four-year state qualifier, earning all-state honors in 1990. A speech pathology major, Ellis earned academic all-conference honors in 1990.

Phil Luebke: This senior tri-captain from Iowa City, IA, is the only returning swimmer on the men's side with an individual school record to his credit, the 200 butterfly. While at UNI, Luebke has won the Coaches Award, the Directors Award and was named to the academic all-conference team his sophomore year. He was a four-year letterwinner at Iowa City West High School and lists his chief ambition as setting the UNI record in the 100 meter butterfly.

Steve Oaks: A senior from Waterloo, IA, Oaks has been a member of two record-setting relay teams at UNI. A four-year letterwinner and two-year Most Valuable Player at Waterloo East High School, Oaks hopes to teach and coach at a high school in Iowa.

John Stivers: A senior tri-captain from West Des Moines, IA, Stivers will compete in the distance freestyle for the Panthers this year. The chemical marketing major lettered three times at West Des Moines Valley High School and enjoys singing, weightlifting and reading.

Jay Atwood: A junior from West Des Moines (IA) Valley High School, Atwood has become a successful college swimmer after a stellar high school career. A high school academic all-American, Atwood qualified for the state meet three times and was a three-time district champ. At UNI, he has continued his academic success, winning the Director's Award for academics four times.

Ian Barnhouse: One of the freshmen that Hall expects to excel for the Panthers this season, Barnhouse comes to UNI from Iowa City (IA) West High School where he lettered three times in swimming. He will compete this season in the 100 meter breaststroke.

Jon Havenstrite: A sophomore from Cedar Falls, IA, Havenstrite was a four-year letterwinner in high school. He is expected to compete in freestyle this season and says his chief ambition is to be a good person.

Tim Perkins: A junior public administration major from Dubuque, IA, Perkins will swim mid-distance races for the Panthers this season. An academic all-stater from Hempstead High School, he competed at state four times and set several school records.

Ryan Person: A junior from Runnells, IA, Person is expected to compete in the breaststroke and individual medley. He was a two-time state qualifier and was named Most Valuable Swimmer at Southeast Polk High School in 1990. Winner of the Director's Award for academics in 1991, Person says his principal goals are to break the school record in the 100 meter breaststroke and graduate from college.

1992-93 Outlooks

The Northern Iowa swimming and diving teams look to turn last year's school records into victories this season with squads that coach Jim Hall calls significantly improved over last year.

"We're going to be in there with everyone we swim," he said.

Returning on the women's side are 8 letterwinners, including five school record-holders. Leading the returnees is former Gateway Conference Athlete of the Decade Mary McCuskey. McCuskey holds UNI records in the 200, 500, 1000 and 1650 freestyle. Joining her are record-holders Kim Kadlec, Emily O'Toole, Jennifer Sondall and Nadine Ellis. Newcomers this season include Tina Purdy, Sarah Murphy and Andi Brown.

The men's team looks to end an eight-meet losing string this season with depth and several promising newcomers. Leading the returnees is Phil Luebke, holder of the UNI record in the 200 meter butterfly. Joining him this season are captains Jon Stivers and Steve Oaks, along with freshmen Ian Barnhouse and Gus Skarlis, Jr. Hall said he expects the captains to be strong leaders this season.

"Steve and Phil stand out," he said. "They've been around me for three years, so they know what's going on."

One of the Panthers' strengths this season will be the diving team. Freshman Jennifer Folsom was the Most Valuable Diver at West Des Moines (IA) Dowling High School while freshman Debra Brown was a three-year letterwinner at Indianola (IA) High School.

On the men's side, junior Jason Pavelka is a two-year letterwinner and will provide leadership, while freshman Brett Clark comes in after a high school career that saw him take second and third place finishes at the state meet.
