Seniors Kate Galer (1) and Kate Marovich lead UNI's quest for a "threepeat" in 1996.

Panthers Aim For Valley

"Three-Peat"

The Northern Iowa volleyball team hopes to steal a page from recent professional basketball lingo as it chases a third consecutive Missouri Valley Conference title in 1996. As the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers and, later, Chicago Bulls pursued their dreams of a "three-peat", the Panthers try to become the first team to rule the Valley for three straight seasons.

If UNI is to extend its MVC reign, it must withstand the loss of some key fixtures from its championship teams of the past two seasons. The most notable loss is that of setter Kara Galer, the two-time MVC Player of the Year and the school's all-time assist leader. Also gone from a year ago are outside hitter Jill Schoeberl, a two-time all-MVC pick, defensive specialist Michelle Becker and hitter Deann Moeller.

So, does a two-year run that included a 57-4 overall record, 39-1 conference mark, 46 consecutive home victories, two MVC tournament championships, two trips to the NCAA Tournament and the first national ranking in school history come to an end and do the Panthers go back to being just another contender?

Or do a pair of returning all-conference performers and a veteran coach on the verge of his 400th career victory drive an otherwise inexperienced Panther squad to that coveted "three-peat"?

"Our expectations are the same as they always are even though each year's team is different," said Panther coach Iradge Ahrabi-Fard, who will join an elite group of coaches who have recorded 400 collegiate victories with his first win of the 1996 season.

"That puts extra pressure on us, but I like that. I know this will be one of our most challenging seasons," he added. "People may look at us and see some of the people we've lost and think we're going to be happy to be in the top half of the conference. Well, that's not our program and we don't think that way."

Jill Wolf stepped into a starting role last year as a junior.

Senior Kate Galer led the Missouri Valley in kills last season.

The Panthers should be powered this season by a pair of Kates—Galer and Marovich.

Galer led the Valley a year ago in kill average while ranking second in digs and third in hitting percentage. She already has gone over the 1,000 mark in career kills and digs and could make a run at UNI's all-time kills mark at season's end.

And, although 1996 will mark the first year in memory Galer hasn't received sets from Kara, her twin sister, that fact isn't likely to allow opposition coaches to rest any easier. She already is a two-time all-conference performer and one of the preseason favorites to succeed her sister as Player of the Year. The twins were separated by a year in eligibility when Kate redshirted her first season at UNI.

"Everyone knows about Kate and her skills," Ahrabi-Fard said. "She is certainly one of the best all-around players in the Valley. Even when other teams key on her, she seems to find a way to make it happen. She's one of our captains this year and we'll be looking to get her a lot of balls."

The Panther coach, who enters his 16th season at the helm, thinks Marovich is set to emerge as one of the league's top players in her final season. The 6-1 senior averaged nearly three kills per game as a junior and was tops in the MVC in service aces while ranking third in blocks and fifth in hitting percentage.

"Kate is going to be better than ever and, I think, will be one of the best players in the Missouri Valley," said Ahrabi-Fard. "She can hit those slides, she can hit the middles, she can block, she can dig, she can pass and serve tough...she can do it all."

Two other seniors are being counted on.

Tina Parkin, a 6-2 middle hitter, returns after ranking 16th nationally in block average last season. She and Marovich form a strong blocking tandem, but the concern with Parkin entering the season is her health. She is recovering from an off-season injury and was not able to resume workouts until mid-summer, so how quickly she returns to form is a point of concern for Ahrabi-Fard.

Outside hitter Jill Wolf is back after becoming a key contributor last year, her first on the team as a junior. She played especially well in the post-season and for the season averaged over two kills and 2.5 digs per game while hitting at a .202 clip. She started much of the latter half of the season and looks to be the front runner to reclaim a spot in the starting lineup.

"Jill has a chance to surprise a lot of people," Ahrabi-Fard said. "She has the potential to be very good and she showed that last year, especially the latter half of the season."

For the first time in five years, the Panthers will have a new setter as redshirt freshman Shannon Perry takes over following the graduation of Kara Galer. And although Perry has some big shoes to fill, Ahrabi-Fard thinks the only ingredient lacking in his setter now is experience.

"Obviously, we're not going to be as strong at setter in some areas," he said, "but just as good in others. I think she's going to surprise a lot of people. Her setting skills are excellent...her attack isn't as strong (as Kara's), but she knows that."

"Shannon's very intelligent and thinks very well on the court. She's a good defensive player and an accurate setter," he added. "We had a great setter leave, but we have the same type of intelligent, focused, goal-oriented person following. Are we going to have as good a setter? Well, Kara was one of the best in the nation, but Shannon has the potential to be that good."

A pair of sophomores—Kerri Eich and Shishonee Weber—figure to step into major roles after redshirting last season. Eich will battle for playing time on the outside while Weber is expected to take over many of the defensive specialist duties vacated by the graduated Becker. Each saw part-time duty two years ago as freshmen.

"I think redshirting last year is really going to pay off for Kerri and Shonee," said Ahrabi-Fard. "They've come a long way in the past year. Kerri is going to give some people a run for their money and Shonee should fill in nicely in the back row with the loss of Michelle (Becker)."

Another second-year duo also will step into larger shoes after seeing limited duty a year ago. Mindy Workman, who played in 37 games in the back row, is expected to see an expanded role in that area this season and also will serve as the back-up setter.

Allison Metz, a 6-2 middle hitter, played as a true freshman and turned in some clutch performances down the stretch. Ahrabi-Fard also thinks she has the skills to be a fine outside hitter and could experiment with that move early in the season.

Junior Erin Long has played sparingly the past two seasons, but should provide depth on the outside.

Ahrabi-Fard said if all goes according to plan, newcomers Jeni Schneckloth, Andrea Sherwood and Holly Van Hofwegen will be redshirted. Schneckloth is a 6-0 middle hitter who was a two-time second team all-state pick at North Scott High School in Eldridge.

Sherwood was a two-time first team all-stater from Dike-New Hartford (Iowa) at outside hitter and Van Hofwegen, a 6-1 middle hitter, was a fifth team all-state choice as a senior at Spencer (Iowa).

Southwest Missouri State is set to host the Valley tournament in November with the top six finishers in the regular season advancing, and Ahrabi-Fard thinks the fight for tournament berths will be stronger than ever.

"In my eyes, I think Illinois State and Drake are going to be very tough," he said. "The rest of the MVC will be very strong with some of the teams that didn't finish real high last year improving dramatically. I think Indiana State, Wichita State and Creighton are going to surprise some people. Bradley has been improving each season, too."

And what about Northern Iowa's chances?

"Our players are still hungry and still have a strong desire to win another championship," Ahrabi-Fard added. "They've been working very hard and I think they want to prove that this team can win a championship."

Senior Kate Marovich earned second team all-MVC honors a year ago.

Senior Tina Parkin ranked 16th nationally in blocks last season.

University of Northern Iowa Volleyball...

A Tradition of Excellence

Team Success

In 14 years of Gateway and Missouri Valley Conference competition, Northern Iowa has posted 20 or more victories 12 times, captured six conference titles and appeared in five NCAA Tournaments and three N.I.V.C. Tournaments. The Panthers have compiled a 284-62 overall mark in the last 10 years, 113-13 in conference play, and last year made their first appearance in the national rankings, finishing the season at no. 24.

Excellence in the Classroom

Three Northern Iowa players have been named Academic All-Americans a total of five times. Mary Bernhardt was a three-time First Team Academic All-American from 1985-87 while Kris Schroeder was honored on the Second Team in 1989 and current Panther Kate Galer was a Third Team pick last season. Since the Missouri Valley Conference instituted its academic all-conference squad in 1992, Northern Iowa has had seven selections to the first team.

Individual Honors

Conference and region honors have become commonplace for Northern Iowa volleyball players. In the past 10 years, the Panthers have had 37 all-conference selections, including four league players of the year and 20 first team selections. Seven Panthers have been voted to the all-district or all-region team and Coach Iradge Ahrabi-Fard has been named conference Coach of the Year four times and Region Coach of the Year once.

Great Fans

The Panthers have consistently ranked among the national leaders in attendance in recent years. The 1995 home attendance average of 1,363 ranked 17th in the nation. The friendly confines of the West Gym have helped the Panthers to a phenomenal 132-8 record at home over the last decade, including a 46-match home winning streak entering the 1996 season.

The University of Northern Iowa

Great Teaching Makes the Difference

A campus-wide commitment to great teaching lies at the heart of the University of Northern Iowa's reputation for providing exceptional undergraduate education, as well as complementary programs at the master's, specialist's and doctoral levels. Building on its historic strength in teacher education, the University has developed a number of outstanding programs in business, natural sciences, humanities and fine arts, and social and behavioral sciences.

Northern Iowa prides itself on providing a student-centered educational experience. The University's medium size allows it to offer the faculty, facilities and academic choices of a major university, while retaining a friendly, small college atmosphere. Small classes enable the University to foster one-on-one working relationships between faculty and students. More than 90 percent of UNI's classes have 50 or fewer students.

Students enter the University well-prepared, demonstrated by their selection of high school courses and rank in class. In recent years, over 90 percent of the entering freshmen ranked in the top 50 percent of their high school classes, with about 60 percent ranking in the top 30 percent. The average undergraduate arrives at UNI with an ACT score of 23.

U.S. News and World Report has recognized the University by ranking it seventh among the top 15 colleges and universities and second among best buys in the Midwest Region in its America's Best Colleges Book. It also recognized Northern Iowa as one of two "up-and-coming" Midwest regional universities.

The College of Business Administration has become the largest undergraduate business school in Iowa. The College's Department of Accounting is ranked among the 10 best in the country by educators and accounting professionals. In a national survey of 400 accounting faculty, Northern Iowa ranked as one of their top programs.

Considered a long-time leader in the field of teacher education, UNI has implemented several programs that continue this tradition of excellence. The Regents' Center for Early Developmental Education is a leading setting for research and training in the education of young children. The Center is the only educational resource of its kind in Iowa.

Northern Iowa's 19 men's and women's intercollegiate athletics programs compete at the NCAA Division I level with major conference affiliations. The Panthers boast a nationally recognized coaching staff to maintain consistently competitive programs.

The Northern Iowa campus combines the grandeur of early 1900s architecture with striking, modern building designs that have characterized an impressive growth period over the past dozen years. The attractive, park-like campus contains more than 40 major buildings on 861 acres, yet is compact enough to cross in a 10-minute walk.

UNI is located in Cedar Falls, an inviting and historic community of about 35,000 people. Together with the adjacent city of Waterloo, the metropolitan area has a culturally diverse population of 115,000 and combines big city opportunities with small town friendliness. Cedar Falls/Waterloo is a center for industry, finance, commerce, recreation and cultural activities for northeast Iowa.

The University was founded in 1876 and is one of three state-assisted universities administered by the Iowa State Board of Regents. Additional private support is provided by the UNI Foundation and Northern Iowa Alumni Association, representing more than 70,000 alumni in the United States and other countries.

Coaching Staff

The Ahrabi-Fards: (l-r) Hoorvash, Iradge and Susann

Head Coach Iradge Ahrabi-Fard

After taking the Panther program to the top of the Gateway Conference three times in the final six years of the league's existence, Dr. Iradge Ahrabi-Fard has led his Panthers to Missouri Valley Conference titles the past two seasons.

Recognized as one of the most successful collegiate coaches in the Midwest, Ahrabi-Fard enters his 16th season at Northern Iowa on the verge of another coaching milestone. Sporting a 399-125 record, the UNI coach will move into the 400-victory club with his team's next win. He collected career win #300 at the Gateway Conference Tournament in 1991 against rival Illinois State and coached his 500th match at the collegiate level last Sept. 15 in a win over Drake.

Under his guidance, the Panthers have reached new heights over the past decade, recording a 284-62 mark with six conference championships, five NCAA Championship Tournament berths and three National Invitation appearances, including a trip to the N.I.V.C. Final Four in 1993. Ahrabi-Fard's teams have chalked up at least 20 victories in 13 of his 15 seasons. He was voted Gateway Coach of the Year in 1985 and 1987, and earned recognition as Midwest Region Coach of the Year by his peers in 1985. The past two seasons he was voted Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and, a year ago, led his team to its first national ranking, breaking into the top 25 late in the season and finishing 24th in the final poll after the Panthers bowed out of the NCAA Tournament to Stanford in the second round.

A 1965 graduate of UNI, Ahrabi-Fard has long been involved in athletics on the international level. In his native Iran, he served as President of the Institution of Sports from 1967 thru 1969, head swimming coach for the men's and women's national teams from 1967 thru 1970, Executive Director of the Education Department of Sports Ministry in 1970, and Vice-Minister of Sports Ministry from 1977 thru 1978. He also served as special physical educator for the Crown Prince and Princess of Iran.

As an athlete, Ahrabi-Fard competed on the Iranian national volleyball team internationally and in the Asian Games. He also was a high jumper on the national track and field team and competed his freshman year at UNI.

He was a successful high school coach in several sports at Northern University High School in Cedar Falls prior to taking the UNI job, earning various district, regional and state coach of the year honors in volleyball, track and field, and swimming.

Ahrabi-Fard has authored several books on volleyball coaching and is a highly sought-after speaker/clinician throughout the country.

After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education, Ahrabi-Fard received his master's in physical education from UNI in 1966 and his doctorate in physical education and educational administration from the University of Minnesota in 1975.

Assistant Coach Jan Bittner

Assistant coach Jan Bittner is in her 15th season at UNI after becoming the school's first assistant in 1982.

In addition to her on-court duties, Bittner is UNI's recruiting coordinator and handles most administrative duties of the program including scheduling, team travel and coordination of the summer volleyball camps.

A native of Rockford, Ill., Bittner is a 1976 graduate of Valparaiso University, where she earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and lettered four years on the basketball team. She received her master's degree in physical education administration from Illinois State University in 1981.

Her previous coaching experience includes two years as head girls' volleyball coach at St. John's High School in Houston, Texas, where she compiled a 51-11 record and led her 1980 squad to a Southwest Prep Conference title. Bittner also served three years as head girls' tennis coach and junior varsity girls' basketball coach.

Assistant Coach Bobbi Petersen

One of the greatest players in Northern Iowa volleyball history, Bobbi Petersen joined the Panther program as an assistant coach a year ago.

As a player at UNI, the former Bobbi Becker was a three-time first team all-conference selection and two-time first team all-region pick. She still holds nine school records, including the career marks in kills and digs. Her 40 kills in a 1989 match against Illinois State not only is tops in Northern Iowa history, but also stands as the all-time Missouri Valley/Gateway Conference record. In 1992, she was voted Gateway Conference Volleyball Athlete of the Decade.

She earned her bachelor's degree in therapeutic recreation in 1990 and her master's from UNI in physical education in 1992. Petersen served as a graduate assistant with the Panthers in 1990 and since completing her master's has been employed as a therapeutic recreation specialist in Fort Smith, Ark., and, most recently, in Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Bobbi and Duane Petersen

Student Assistant Jill Schoeberl

After starring for the Panthers on the court the past four seasons, Jill Schoeberl moves to the bench as a student assistant coach for the 1996 season.

After joining the Panthers as a walk-on in 1992, the Cedar Falls native became a starter as a sophomore the following year. As a junior, the lefthander was a second team all-Missouri Valley choice after ranking third in the league in kill average and fifth in hitting percentage. Last season, Schoeberl was the only player in the Valley to rank in the top 10 in four categories—kills, hitting percentage, blocks and aces—on her way to being voted to the all-conference first team.

Schoeberl ranks seventh on UNI's career kills list (1,006), fifth in kill average (2.85), ninth in attacks (2,274), fifth in hitting percentage (.289), sixth in block assists (256) and ninth in total blocks (287).

Missouri Valley Conference

A commitment to excellence, both in the classroom and athletic arena, has been a trademark of the Missouri Valley Conference since its inception in the winter of 1907. Built firmly on a solid foundation, the Missouri valley Conference has made great strides and streamlined its resources and skills to become one of the nation's most progressive athletic conferences.

Athletic accomplishments on the men's athletic side include four national basketball championships, 17 trips to the NCAA Final Four and a 1989 national baseball championship.

Obviously, the inclusion of women's programs under the Missouri Valley banner—the oldest athletic conference west of the Mississippi River—has provided an immediate boost. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference—which began in 1982—merged with the Missouri Valley Conference and was unveiled as part of the new MVC on July 1, 1992.

The St. Louis-based Missouri Valley Conference began its first tradition long ago. Initiated as a basketball conference in 1907, the MVC has produced many individual and team national champions in basketball and other sports.

Seeds for the creation of the conference were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who gathered at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more institutions—Drake University and Iowa State College—were admitted to the league.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, Men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's tennis and women's volleyball.

MVC student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the conference's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers which have followed stardom in the Missouri Valley Conference.

Individual basketball greats such as Antoine Carr, Hersey Hawkins, Benoit Benjamin, Ashraf Amaya and Chris Carr are still active on NBA rosters, while past stars such as Larry Bird, Oscar Robertson, Chet Walker, Wes Unseld, Paul Silas and many others are still to be found in the Valley's record books.

Some 31 institutions in 13 states have at one time or another been a part of what is now the Missouri Valley Conference. Membership has stabilized in the past decade, and now a league that has survived in what has been a volatile environment for the past few years continues its evolution with women's athletics maintaining its ascent.

Current conference members include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, the University of Evansville, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, the University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University, Southwest Missouri State University and Wichita State University.

Doug Elgin is in his ninth year as MVC commissioner. A 1973 graduate of Lafayette College, Elgin previously served as assistant commissioner at the Sun Belt Conference for five years after three years as the University of Virginia's sports information director. A native of Hagerstown, Md., Elgin received his master's from Ohio University in 1975.

1995 Review

Panthers End Magical Season at NAAs—What a Run!

The team motto for the Northern Iowa volleyball team as it entered the 1995 season was "Ditto", in reference to a hoped-for repeat of the accomplishments of the Panthers' outstanding 1994 team.

That certainly was a tall order, considering that team posted a best-ever 28-2 record, dominated the Missouri Valley Conference and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

But just when Panther fans thought it couldn't get any better, the '95 squad was even more impressive and more dominant than its predecessor, adding more pages to the school record book.

UNI rode a school-record 27-match winning streak into its second round NCAA match at Stanford on Dec. 2. The Panthers gave the defending champs an early scare, but the Cardinal prevailed, 15-12, 15-8, 15-3, to put an end to a two-year run which saw the Panthers compile a 57-4 mark, which included a 39-1 record in conference play.

The Panthers also cracked the national top 25 for the first time in school history on Nov. 21 and moved up to 24th the following week. Just a day later, they gained a little revenge from the previous season by defeating Colorado in the first round of the NAAs, 15-7, 15-12, 21-19, in a memorable match in a packed West Gymnasium. The Buffs had ended UNI's season the year before in the second round in Boulder.

After dominating the Missouri Valley Conference like no other team in history during the regular season, the Panthers fulfilled their favorite's role in the league tournament to win their second consecutive title. UNI became the first team in conference history to go unbeaten with a 20-0 mark, losing only four games. During that span, the Panthers took 36 consecutive games from league opponents to tie a school mark set in 1994. By breezing through the Valley schedule, the winning string in regular-season MVC play reached 35.

The closest UNI came to tasting defeat during conference play was a thrilling come-from-behind win at Drake on Oct. 11. The Panthers were left for dead after dropping the first two games of the match, but rallied for a 7-15, 9-15, 15-11, 15-10, 17-15 victory.

For the second straight year, the Valley tournament final was an all-Iowa affair with UNI downing Drake, 10-15, 16-14, 15-10, 15-10. As expected, the Panthers dominated the all-tournament team and, just a day later, coach Iradje Ahrabi-Fard was named Coach of the Year for the second straight season.

The Panthers began the season with a first-place tie at the New Mexico Invitational on Labor Day weekend. After beating Kansas in the opener, they split with a pair of nationally-ranked opponents, downing the host Lobos before falling to Loyola Marymount, their only loss until the NAAs.

A remarkable run began in the Valley opener against Southwest Missouri State at home on Sept. 8. A 3-1 win over the Lady Bears marked the first of what would become a school-record 27 straight wins and a school-record 33rd consecutive home victory. That mark continued through the season and reached 46 with the first-round NCAA win over Colorado.

Northern Iowa was ranked fifth nationally in service aces in the final regular-season statistics compiled by the NCAA. The Panthers averaged 2.57 aces per game, primarily on the strength of three players—Michelle Becker, Kate Marovich and Jill Schoeberl—who ranked second, third and fifth, respectively, in the Missouri Valley. The Panthers were ninth in team hitting percentage at .291 and 17th in blocks with a 3.20 average per game. Individually, Tina Parkin was 16th in blocks with a 1.56 per game average.

Individually, UNI grabbed its share of post-season awards in the Valley with three Panthers—Kara Galer, Kate Galer and Jill Schoeberl—earning first team all-conference honors while another, Kate Marovich, picked up second team recognition.
