The 1996-97 Northern Iowa Wrestling Media Guide was written and edited by Kevin Kane, Assistant Athletic Media Relations Director, with design provided by Dave Moll, Athletic Media Relations Intern. Photography and cover design by UNI Office of Public Relations.

To the Media

Press facilities in the West Gym are very limited. Only working media are allowed access to the press area, which is located on the south side of the arena. Head coach Don Briggs and team members are available for interviews in person or by telephone on most occasions. Interviews may be arranged through Assistant Athletic Media Relations Director Kevin Kane (319-273-3642) or directly through the Wrestling Office (319-273-6473).

To access UNI wrestling information on your fax machine, dial (770) 399-3066 from the handset of your machine and follow the instructions. The Missouri Valley Conference passcode is 682 and UNI's request numbers are: 1775 (latest release, notes, records) and 1776 (latest meet results).
Don Briggs says the theme for the 1996-97 season is "Bouncing Back."

The UNI coach hopes that bounce is strong enough to give the Panthers quite a presence when the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships come to the UNI-Dome on March 20-22.

Hosting the prestigious event for the first time will just give the hungry Panthers a little more incentive, Briggs says.

"It is easier for us to focus on the nationals because it is here," Briggs said. "There are five guys I expect to be seeded at the nationals this year -- it's been a while since I've been able to say that. I mean legitimate, viable seeds, not a shoestring 12th."

Briggs hopes that kind of presence at the national tournament will be the culmination of a comeback from a disappointing 1995-96 season.

The Panthers struggled to a 5-12 dual record during a season that was cluttered with injuries.

Rarely were the Panthers able to field a full 10-man team for dual meets and at least once their numbers were down to seven. There was always the temptation to bring a wrestler or two out of redshirt seasons to fill the lineup, but Briggs resisted.

Now, he hopes the Panthers reap the benefits.

"In all honesty, if you look back at last year, we sacrificed a lot," he said of keeping people like John Zelinski and Amir Alexander out of competition.

"With that in mind, there would have been about two, maybe three more meets we would have won. But I wasn't going to sacrifice the individual that way."

"Now if you look at the whole thing, we've got some depth. Last year we didn't have any depth. We knew if we had some injuries we'd be in trouble and that's what happened. I can't see that happening with this team."

This year's Panther squad will have a nice blend of youth and experience and the best part about the experienced wrestlers is that, for the most part, they are young.

All-American Tony Wieland heads the pack of veterans after he placed eighth in the nation last year at 190 pounds. Yet he is still just a sophomore.

Five of the eight Panthers who qualified for the NCAA meet are back.

Scott Murray has been there three times. Other returning qualifiers are Chris Bahr, Dan Kjeldgaard and Burt Beamer. Two others who missed last year with injuries -- Ryan Cummings and Ben Barton -- have been to NCAA events in the past.

An indication of the improved strength is that some past NCAA qualifiers may not be able to make the lineup.

Here is a look at each weight:

118 pounds -- A weight without a wrestler much of last year, there are four candidates this season.

Jeff Bellows, a transfer from Illinois who started the season here last year, has recovered from an ankle injury and is expected to be the man. Zelinski, the redshirt freshman from Franklin, Wisconsin, will be ready if needed. Also available are freshmen Nick Marin and Tim Everett.

126 pounds -- Murray is here for the season. Last year, he bounced back and forth between 118 and 126, not knowing for sure where he'd be. This year he will be at 126 all the way through the NCAA. He had a 26-16 record last year and is 75-43 for his career. Three freshmen -- Mark Rial, Ben Barnes and Mike Corsiglia -- add depth to the weight.

134 pounds -- This is one of those young, untested weights. Iowa State transfer Darrin Youngblut starts the season as the favorite. There's a possibility true freshman Nick Flach would wrestle, but Briggs would rather hold out all of his freshmen.

142 pounds -- Freshman Glen Pero has Briggs excited. "This puts a lot of pressure on him, but he's going to be one of our top two guys this year," said Briggs. "People are going to like him." Behind the former Wisconsin state prep champ are sophomore Chad Venz and junior Ken Primola.

150 pounds -- Ryan Cummings, Chris Bahr and Amir Alexander make this the deepest weight for the Panthers. Cummings is coming off an injury that gave Bahr a chance to qualify for the NCAA last year. Having three solid candidates here makes Briggs smile.

158 pounds -- Junior Jason Haag moves up a weight and starts the season on top at this weight. Redshirt freshman Andy Krueger could challenge and there is also a strong possibility that one of the 150-pounders could move up and take this spot.

167 pounds -- Senior Dan Kjeldgaard moves up from 158 and is solid here. He struggled making the lower weight last year, but still qualified for the NCAA meet after overcoming a mid-season injury. His eight wins by fall shared the team lead with Murray. Behind him are sophomore Darrel Wieland and junior Robert Armey.

177 pounds -- This is another weight with two solid performers. Junior Ben Barton missed much of last year with a neck injury but is back to 100 percent. With Barton out, Ken Bigley was more than an adequate replacement and Briggs would not be afraid to use either this year.
190 pounds — There is little depth here, but Wieland proved to be a sturdy performer last year as he posted a 34-17 mark on his way to earning all-American status. His victory total was the second highest ever for a UNI freshman.

Heavyweight — Burt Beamer, who is 10th on the UNI freshman win list with 23, had off-season knee surgery, but enters the year with the other knee bothering him. He went to the NCAA last year as a true freshman and gave the Panthers a solid season. He is backed up by senior Bret Jones.

What all this adds up to is a brighter outlook than the Panthers have had in a few seasons.

"I like this team better than any team we've had the last four or five years," said Briggs. "The fact that we've got a couple of standouts — I like that. We've got some guys that are bouncing back from last year, from injuries and from redshirt years. I like the attitude. I like what I see in the room.

"The thing I see that's different, the guys are kind of mad about what happened last year. They're not proud of it. It's like they want to show everyone that we are a legitimate Division I top 10 program.

"Our goal has to be shooting for the top 10. If we fall short, 12, 13, or 14, I can live with that. But 20th or lower, I can't live with that."
The 1996-97 season marks the 15th year of the Don Briggs era in Northern Iowa wrestling, a period that has been marked by consistently competitive and winning teams.

Only the sixth head coach in school history, Briggs' accomplishments as the Panther head man are quite impressive, although one would have a hard time coaxing the modest coach to admit it.

But Briggs' record speaks for itself. Under his direction the Panthers have placed in the top 30 at the NCAA Championships every season and have been ranked as high as fourth in the nation. UNI was ranked fifth and eighth in 1988 and 1989, respectively, in the final Amateur Wrestling News poll. The Panthers equalled their best finish at the NCAA Division I Championships in 1992 by finishing 10th, matching the finish of Briggs' first season in 1983 when he was voted National Rookie Coach of the Year by his peers. He has led Northern Iowa to 11 consecutive NCAA Regional titles with his other three teams placing second.

During his tenure, he has posted a 157-90 record, making him the second winningest coach in school history and giving him more victories at the NCAA Division I level than any of his predecessors. Since first joining the UNI staff as a graduate assistant in 1974, Briggs has coached 51 NCAA All-Americans and 14 national champions.

Highly respected among his peers, Briggs has won 10 NCAA West Regional Coach of the Year awards and served a two-year term as president of the National Wrestling Coaches Association from 1988-90.

Eleven of the 14 teams Briggs has coached have had winning records, only five below a .600 winning percentage, and his .636 career percentage ranks him among the nation's elite. He has accomplished that feat while sticking to his philosophy of competing against the best collegiate wrestling has to offer.

Before being named head coach in 1982, Briggs served as an assistant to long-time head coach Chuck Patten for seven seasons and as a graduate assistant one year.

A native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Briggs graduated from Jefferson High School and later received his bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Iowa in 1971. While wrestling for the Hawkeyes, he placed fourth in the Big 10 at 134 pounds as a sophomore and third as a junior and senior. He was voted team captain as a senior. Although he did not compete his first year at Iowa, Briggs compiled a 30-5-1 career record, posting consecutive marks of 12-2-1, 12-2 and 6-1.

Briggs served one season as assistant coach at Cedar Rapids Prairie High School before becoming a graduate assistant at UNI in 1974. He completed his graduate work with a master's degree in physical education in 1975.

Briggs is an avid hunter and fisherman in his spare time, but is best known as a skydiver. In fact, he completed his 2000th jump this past October.

He and his wife, Dianna, reside in rural Cedar Falls.

1996-97 University of Northern Iowa Wrestling
Coaching Staff

Joel Greenlee
Assistant Coach

Joel Greenlee is in his eighth season as a Panther assistant, his sixth as the top aide to head coach Don Briggs. In addition to his duties in the wrestling room, Greenlee is heavily involved in recruiting and scheduling. He also directs the team's overall and individualized weight training programs and other conditioning programs.

Greenlee brought impressive credentials to his new post in 1989 after concluding one of the most successful careers in Northern Iowa history. He ranks third on Northern Iowa's career victories list with 127 and his name can be found in every career and single season category in the UNI record book. Competing at heavyweight, he set the UNI standard for career dual wins with 58 and never lost a collegiate dual meet, posting a 58-0-3 mark, while his overall record of 127-16-4 gives him the top winning percentage in school history.

Greenlee was an NCAA qualifier all four seasons and earned all-America honors twice, placing fourth as a junior and second his senior year. He also competed in the National Wrestling Coaches Association All-Star Classic his final two seasons.

The Waverly, Iowa, native has wrestled competitively on the international level since ending his collegiate career, having been ranked as high as third at 286 pounds while representing the New York Athletic Club. He has been a member of the United States Freestyle Team and has regularly competed in the Cerro Palada Tournament in Cuba, winning the 286-pound title in 1993 and 1995. He also has recorded second and third-place finishes at the National Freestyle Open and taken third at the World Team Trials three times.

Greenlee toured the Soviet Union with the U.S. team in January 1991 and competed at the Tbilisi Tournament. He also accompanied the United States Freestyle Team to the Olympic Games in Barcelona in 1992.

He was a High School All-American at Waverly-Shell Rock High School as a senior after capping a 27-0 season with a state championship.

He and his wife, Roxann, reside in Cedar Falls.

Alan Fried
Assistant Coach

Former Oklahoma State national champion Alan Fried was appointed to the Northern Iowa staff in August. Fried came to UNI after spending the last two years as a volunteer assistant at Indiana.

Fried enjoyed one of the finest collegiate careers of his era at OSU, earning all-America honors three times while compiling a 129-6 record in four seasons.

He capped a perfect 31-0 senior season by winning the NCAA title at 142 pounds after runner-up finishes at 134 pounds as a freshman and sophomore. He also went 34-0 as a junior, but was unable to compete due to the Cowboys' NCAA probation. He captured three Big Eight Conference championships and was an academic all-conference selection.

Other accomplishments on the mat include a U.S. Olympic Festival Gold Medal, two Freestyle University Nationals titles, two Espoir National championships and an Espoir World title.

A native of University Heights, Ohio, Fried was the first four-time champion at the Junior National Freestyle tournament and was a three-time Ohio state high school champion at St. Edward High School while compiling a 139-3 record.

Fried still competes at the international level, advancing to the semifinals of the 1996 U.S. Olympic Trials. He is considered a strong contender for the U.S. team in 2000.

Fried received his bachelor's degree in psychology from OSU in 1994.

Joe Stephens
Volunteer Assistant Coach

After completing his collegiate career a year ago at Northern Iowa, Joe Stephens joins the Panther staff this season as a volunteer assistant coach. Stephens began his career at the University of Nebraska in 1991 and wrestled three years for the Cornhuskers, compiling a 47-40-1 mark. He qualified for the NCAA Tournament as a freshman and placed fourth at the Big Eight Championships at 134 pounds. After redshirting the following year, he posted an 11-8 mark as a sophomore and then went 26-11 for the Huskers in 1994-95.

After transferring to UNI last year, Stephens became the Panthers' regular 142-pounder and posted a 17-17 mark to finish his career at 64-57-1. He qualified for the NCAA Tournament as a freshman and placed fourth at the Big Eight Championships at 134 pounds. After redshirting the following year, he posted an 11-8 mark as a sophomore and then went 26-11 for the Huskers in 1994-95.

For the past 14 years, Northern Iowa head coach Don Briggs and his staff have proudly carried on the rich tradition which has placed the Panthers among the elite in collegiate wrestling since The Great Depression. Since Coach Paul Bender sent his first team to the mat representing Iowa State Teachers College in 1923, the Panthers have rolled up 573 victories and a .682 winning percentage in 856 dual meets and have had only 11 losing seasons in seven decades.

When the subject of national championships is brought up, Northern Iowa takes a back seat to very few. The University is one of just nine institutions in history to capture the NCAA Division I Championships, accomplishing that feat in 1950. In the school’s 18-year Division II era, it won two national titles and finished third or better 12 times.

Individually, only a handful of institutions boast more Division I national champions than UNI’s 20. In all, the Panthers have crowned 42 national champions through the years and more than 100 all-Americans.

Only six coaches have guided the Panthers in 72 seasons of intercollegiate competition, winningest being Chuck Patten, whose teams compiled a 217-87-8 record in 18 seasons. Dave McCuskey enjoyed the longest reign—20 seasons—and led Iowa State Teachers College to the national championship in 1950 on his way to 102 victories and a .754 winning percentage.

Wrestling legend Bill Koll began his successful coaching career at his alma mater, guiding the Panthers for 11 seasons in the ‘50s and early ‘60s.

And Don Briggs has led UNI back into the Division I ranks with top 20 NCAA finishes 12 times in the last 14 years. He has coached 27 all-Americans and racked up more Division I wins than any coach in school history with 157.

When Bender fielded that first team, little did anyone know it would be the first step toward building one of the most successful traditions in Iowa sports and eventually bring the school more recognition and attention than any sport in its history.

It would be several years before ISTC, as it was known then, would begin the climb to the pinnacle it would someday reach, but the colorful story which decorates the years since has no equal in Northern Iowa sports annals.

The Pre-World War II Years

Bender guided the first squad to a victory over Cornell in its only meet of the season and posted an 18-9-1 mark during his four-year stint. That tenure included only one losing season and victories over Oklahoma, Cornell and Wisconsin. The program was still in the development stage, however, with little national recognition and no all-Americans.

In 1930, Bender was appointed dean of men at the institution and turned over the reins to the man who built one of the greatest mat powerhouses in history. Dave McCuskey compiled a 102-31-7 mark, guided the Panthers to an NCAA title, four runnerup finishes and coached nine wrestlers to a total of 16 NCAA titles.

The first of many significant years for ISTC was 1931. It was the year McCuskey graduated and accepted the wrestling post, and also was the season which saw the school crown its first NCAA placewinners. Jesse Arends took second in the 118-pound class while teammate Orville Orr placed third at 155 pounds. McCuskey’s matmen achieved their first national finish with a seventh-place tie in 1934.

The next milestone came in 1937 when the Panthers claimed their first individual NCAA title as Ray Cheney took the 135-pound championship and led the team to a third-place finish. ISTC placed no higher than eighth from ’37 to the time when World War II forced the cancellation of the national meet in 1944-45. However, when the layoff ended in 1946, ISTC thrust itself into the national wrestling limelight for decades to come.

The Golden Era

The end of the war came in 1946 and with it the return of thousands of servicemen to colleges throughout the United States. It also was the year of the Panther. Gerald Leeman became a national champion at 128 pounds and won MVP honors at the national tournament. Cecil Mott also won a title at 121 pounds as McCuskey's squad finished second in the team competition.

A veteran of D-Day and the Battle of the Bulge named Bill Koll also won an NCAA title for ISTC and completed the first leg of one of the most amazing careers in wrestling history. Koll (145), Russ Bush (128) and Bill Nelson (165) took titles the following year with Koll becoming the second Panther in as many seasons to take home the MVP award. ISTC could not improve on its second-place finish that year, though, and dropped to fourth in 1948 with Koll being named the tournament MVP for the second consecutive year.

Koll capped his brilliant career with his third title and a 72-0 career mark, he was taken down only once in three seasons. The Panthers were national AAU champions in 1949 and NCAA runnersup with Nelson earning his second title at 155 with Bill Smith (165) and Keith Young (145) taking their first championships.

McCuskey had to wait 20 years, but his dream of a national championship came true in 1950. Iowa State Teachers College hosted the NCAA tourney in the Men's Gym that year and delighted the hometown fans by running away with the team crown. That 1950 squad generally is regarded as one of the top collegiate teams of all-time.

After breezing to an 11-0 record in which none of the opponents reached double figures, and taking the AAU national championship, ISTC racked up enough points in the semifinals to walk away with the championship. Nelson took his third crown at 155 with Young, at 145, and Smith, at 165, each winning their second. Other Panther placewinners were Frank Allman (121), Luverne Klar (128), Floyd Oglesby (136) and Fred Stoecker (HWT).

Young became ISTC's third three-time national champion in 1951 and Gene Lybbert placed third at 130 pounds en route to a team fourth-place finish.

The McCuskey era ended in 1952 when the long-time mentor resigned to accept the head coaching position at the University of Iowa. Lybbert (130) and Bill Weick (157) won NCAA titles that year, leading the squad to a runnerup finish, and capping a six-year span (1947-52) in which ISTC compiled a 53-4-3 dual mark, claimed three straight outstanding wrestler awards in the NCAA meet, won 16 individual national championships, two national AAU crowns, one NCAA title and four second-place finishes.

The Move to Division II

Koll took over for McCuskey in 1953 and guided the Panthers to fourth place. During his 11-year tenure, ISTC had three more individual national champs and went 71-42-6. Jim Harmon won at 157 pounds in 1953, Weick returned in 1955 to win at 157, and Bill Dotson became the school's only NCAA champion in Division I and Division II in 1963.

Patten was named the school's fifth head coach in 1965 and for the next 18 years led the Panthers to dominance in Division II. His 217 victories signifies him as the winningest coach in school history. Patten coached 58... athletes to all-America status, 16 to national titles. His 1975 and '78 teams were Division II national champions, with the '70, '72, '74 and '80 squads claiming second place. His teams placed in the top three in 11 of the 18 seasons he was at the helm.

Kirk Myers (190) and Gary Bentrim (142, 158) were three-time national champs for Patten, while Don Parker (177), Kent Osboe
(HWT), Jim Miller (134) and Ken Snyder
(142) were two-time winners.

Myers capped his career with a fifth-place Division I finish in 1982. He is the only Panther to win 30 or more matches in all four years of competition, and his 134 victories ties him for the most in any division in school history.

Mike McCready, the 1972 national heavyweight champion, also took the gold medal at the 1975 Pan American Games and went on to become Iowa's most successful Greco-Roman wrestler with seven titles to his credit.

Back to Division I

Patten retired from coaching in 1982 and Briggs, his long-time assistant, took over as UNI stepped up to NCAA Division I competition. Briggs led the Panthers to 10th and 11th-place finishes his first two seasons and has kept his teams in the top 20 nearly every year.

Along the way, some of the best and most exciting wrestlers to don the Purple and Gold have called the West Gym, known as the Men's Gym until 1980, home.

Joel and Justin Greenlee, Rich Powers, Gary Steffensmeier and Mark Schwab are just a few of the names and all-Americans Briggs has recruited and coached.

Between them, the Greenlees claimed five all-America honors and finished second in the nation three times at heavyweight. They combined for a career mark of 256-51-4 (.830), with Justin and Joel ranking second and third on the career victories list, respectively. Joel has the best winning percentage in school history while Justin tops the career pins list.

Another great in the Briggs era was 118-pounder Mark Schwab, who holds the school standard for wins in a season with 49 in 1985-86. Unfortunately, Schwab's career was thwarted by a knee injury his sophomore season, but when healthy, he was undoubtedly the best at his weight in the nation and one of the finest in the world.

The duo of Rich Powers and Gary Steffensmeier came along in 1988 and thrilled UNI fans with amazingly similar careers through 1992. During that time, each captured three All-America honors and flirted with a national championship.
Steffensmeier gained the 1990 NCAA final at 150 pounds and was ranked first in the nation for a time as a junior while Powers entered the 1992 national tournament favored to win at 177 pounds before falling in the semifinals. Each also appeared in the NWCA All-Star meet. When they ended their careers together in 1992, Powers had the most wins in Division I in UNI history with 134 and Steffensmeier ranked fourth with 115.

The Panthers have dominated the NCAA West Regional for over a decade, claiming the team title the past 11 years and finishing second the three seasons before that.

The future promises nothing but continued success as Briggs and his staff face the final years of the century. A young but very enthusiastic group of wrestlers will take to the mat for the Panthers this season and, almost 50 years after first hosting the NCAA Championships, the University will once again have the opportunity to play host to the best in collegiate wrestling in 1997 when it will be the site of the NCAA Division I Championships.

Armed with that young talent and the prospect of having the national championships in Cedar Falls, it would seem all the essentials are there for Northern Iowa wrestling to meet the challenges of the years to come.

Ed Ewoldt Scholarship
In January of 1992, Northern Iowa officials announced the establishment of the Ed Ewoldt Wrestling Scholarship, the first fully-endowed scholarship in the history of the University's athletics program.

The scholarship was made possible by a $120,000 gift to the Northern Iowa Foundation by Ron Magruder of Orlando, Florida. Each year, beginning with the 1992-93 academic year, the Panther wrestling program has awarded a full scholarship from the interest generated by the gift.

Ewoldt began attending UNI, then known as Iowa State Teachers College, in 1948 and graduated in 1954, competing on the wrestling team his last two years. He went on to teach and coach at West Central-Maynard (IA) High School from 1955-58 and Wheaton (IL) Central High School, where he coached Magruder, from 1959-88.

"Ed has had a tremendous impact on my life," Magruder said, "and has helped me get where I am today. This is my way of thanking him for being a great teacher, mentor and friend."

Magruder is the president of Cracker Barrel Old Country Store, Inc. He also serves on the Florida Citrus Bowl Committee, the Business Advisory Council at the University of Mississippi and the Foundation Board at the University of Central Florida.

The recipient of the Ed Ewoldt Scholarship for the 1996-97 season is sophomore Tony Wieland, who earned All-America honors last year at 190 pounds.

The University of Northern Iowa

A campus-wide commitment to great teaching lies at the heart of the University of Northern Iowa's reputation for providing exceptional undergraduate education, as well as complementary programs at the master's, specialist's and doctoral levels. Building on its historic strength in teacher education, the University has developed a number of outstanding programs in business, natural sciences, humanities and fine arts, and social and behavioral sciences.

The University's academic reputation again has proven a key factor in landing a spot as the only public institution in U.S. News and World Report's top 15 regional universities in the Midwest for 1996.

UNI's 11th-place ranking is two places higher than the previous year's rating. This marks the second year in a row that Northern Iowa was the only public university ranked in the top 15, which are chosen from more than 100 public and private institutions in the region.

UNI received a "1" rating in academic reputation, the highest of any of the top 15 universities in the Midwest region. That rating consistently has improved over the past four years, from 26 in 1993, 20 in 1994 and 13 in 1995.

The magazine also named UNI the Midwest's most efficient regional university and first in "best value". This marks the fifth time in six years that UNI has been cited by the magazine's "America's Best Colleges" issue in such categories as overall "best", "best buy", "up and coming" and "most efficient".

Enrollment on the 860-acre campus stands at about 13,000 students from every county in Iowa, 40 states and 48 foreign countries.

UNI's heritage and philosophy place great value on providing a student-centered educational experience. The University nurtures a premier learning environment--it is small enough to offer students individualized attention, yet large enough to provide a variety of resources and opportunities, as well as distinguished faculty.

The school was founded in 1876 as the Iowa State Normal School. In 1909, it became Iowa State Teachers College. In 1961, the name was changed to State College of Iowa, and in 1967, the Iowa Legislature acted to change the status of the institution to that of a university under its present title.

While maintaining its heritage in teacher education, the University has continued its metamorphosis toward a multi-purpose institution, with nationally acclaimed programs in many disciplines. UNI's accounting program continues to be ranked among the best in the nation. The College of Business Administration has become the largest undergraduate business school in Iowa and has gained a reputation as one of the finest in the Midwest. Student groups ranging from chemistry to conservation to public relations have been recognized by their respective national groups for the excellence of their programs.

Northern Iowa is located in Cedar Falls, an inviting and historic community of about 36,000 people. Together with the adjacent city of Waterloo, the metropolitan area has a culturally diverse population of 115,000 and combines big city opportunities with small town friendliness. Cedar Falls/Waterloo is a center for industry, finance, commerce, recreation and cultural activities for northeast Iowa.
Robert Koob, President

Robert Koob, a native of Hawarden, Iowa, and a 1962 graduate of UNI, was appointed the University's eighth president in August, 1995. He is the first alumnus in the University's 120-year history to return as its president. "It is an honor for me, as a UNI graduate, to return as president," Koob said upon his appointment. "I can't imagine anyone being more honored in the state of Iowa."

The Koob presidency has stressed a commitment to strategic planning to guide the institution's efforts, the effective use of technology in higher education, the importance and value of developing a university community, and has renewed the University's commitment toward teaching and learning. Koob believes in reaching a better understanding of each student's abilities, and ensuring students achieve a university education of the highest quality as they become valued and productive members of society.

"It is important that we define our niche well and that Northern Iowa understand it's an institution committed to four-year undergraduate education, with appropriate graduate programs, but that teaching is its fundamental focus," he says. "We want everyone on the campus to understand that that's (teaching) an honorable and appropriate future for them, and that faculty understand that their good work is appreciated by the state. We want students to understand the education they receive will put them in contention for the appropriate positions when they graduate, as well as prepare them to be good citizens. And we want the people of Iowa to believe they're getting good value for their dollars."

Before coming to UNI, he was senior vice president and vice president for academic affairs at California Polytechnic State University at San Luis Obispo, Calif., since 1990.

Prior to his position at Cal Poly, the 54-year-old Koob was vice president of academic affairs at North Dakota State University in Fargo, N.D., from 1985-90, and served a one-year term as interim president there from 1987-88.

At Cal Poly, Koob was a director and chair of the Cal Poly Foundation, and served on a number of CSU system committees, including the CSU Commission on Telecommunications Infrastructure.

He began his teaching career at North Dakota State in 1967 as an assistant professor of chemistry, advancing to professor in 1972. He served as chair of the chemistry department for six years, acting chair of the physics department for a year and dean of the College of Science and Mathematics from 1981-84 before assuming the vice presidency.

Koob graduated from State College of Iowa (now UNI) with a B.A. in chemistry and earned his doctorate in chemistry from the University of Kansas in 1967. He and his wife, Yvonne, have seven children.

Christopher Ritrievi, Athletic Director

Christopher Ritrievi is in his fifth year as Northern Iowa's athletic director. Since the day he joined the department, he has worked to develop a competitive Division I athletic program at UNI.

A former Division I athlete himself, Ritrievi earned three varsity letters in wrestling at Princeton University, where he received a bachelor's degree in economics in 1979. He earned a master's in business administration from Lehigh University in 1983.

His career in intercollegiate athletics started as a graduate assistant at Lehigh. He has served in administrative and coaching positions at the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference, Bowling Green State, Princeton, Pennsylvania and Stanford, where he had been associate athletic director prior to coming to UNI.

During his tenure at Northern Iowa, he has reorganized the management of the athletic department to make it more effective and has set priorities to increase the competitiveness of Panther teams. Emphasizing increased operating budgets for all sports and increased scholarships for women's sports, the department has enjoyed its best performances since joining the NCAA's Division I in 1989.

Since 1992, UNI has celebrated Missouri Valley Conference championships in men's cross country, indoor and outdoor track, and volleyball. The football team has won four Gateway Conference titles and has enjoyed the highest attendance, including six of seven UNI-Dome football sellouts. In 1995-96, six sports enjoyed their highest conference finishes since joining the MVC in 1991.

The department has successfully hosted NCAA playoff games in football and volleyball and the 1996 West Regional Wrestling Championship. In March, the UNI-Dome will host the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships.

The department operates on a balanced budget and student-athletes graduate at rates equal to or better than the student body as a whole. And after a year-long process, the department received NCAA Certification last March.

Ritrievi served as vice president for the MVC athletic directors in 1994-95 and chairs the MVC long-range planning and Gateway Conference finance committees. He also has been named president of the Division 1-AA Football Athletic Directors Association for the 1996-97 academic year.

The 39-year-old native of Levittown, Pa., is married to the former Stephanie Homeyer, who grew up in Wellsburg, Iowa.
In 1992, Northern Iowa athletic director Chris Ritrievi, wrestling coach Don Briggs and a small group of wrestling supporters and administrators had the idea of bringing the NCAA Championships to the UNI-Dome. After all, the University of Iowa and Iowa State University had enjoyed success in hosting some of the most well-attended Division I tournaments in history, drawing from the strong base of amateur wrestling enthusiasts in Iowa.

Why couldn't the UNI-Dome, a versatile, 16,400-seat facility built in 1976, play host to such an event? After months of preparation and a formal bid to the body's Wrestling Committee, the NCAA sent a group of officials to the Cedar Falls campus in the fall of 1993.

The result was the awarding of the 1997 Championships to the University, bringing the tournament to Cedar Falls for the first time since 1950.

Northern Iowa, then known as Iowa State Teachers College, won that 1950 team title before the NCAA split into divisions a decade later.

UNI's program then joined the Division II ranks, or the College Division as it was known then, in 1962 and hosted that national tournament four times—1963, '64, '77 and '78.

The University and Cedar Falls/Waterloo community are proud to again host the best collegiate wrestlers in the nation, Mar. 20-22, 1997, in the UNI-Dome!
