High Ranks
UNI is coming off its 18th FCS playoff appearance and 13th quarterfinal game in program history. The Panthers had six wins against Top-25 opponents in 2015. UNI brought in the fifth best recruiting class in the FCS according to Hero Sports for 2016 and will have over 20-plus years of NFL coaching or playing experience on the 2016 coaching staff.

Staffing
UNI welcomes back UNI alum and former tight end Ryan Mahaffey to the coaching staff this year as co-offensive coordinator after he spent the last two seasons at Notre Dame. The Panthers also hired Heisman Trophy finalist and Kansas State alum Collin Klein to the program as the UNI quarterbacks coach.

Taking the Reins
Leading the attack this fall will be the dual threat duo of seniors Aaron Bailey and Tyvis Smith. In 2015, both rushed for more than 1,000 yards, giving UNI two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season for the first time in UNI history. The Panthers finished the season with a school record 3,266 yards on the ground, ranking them No. 15 in the country in rushing offense.

Defensive Schemes
Karter Schult, a senior out of Tripoli, Iowa, wrapped up last season with a school record 23.0 tackles for loss, ranking him No. 15 in the country. He started all 14 games for the Panthers, earning 82 tackles and 15 sacks while getting selections to the All-MVFC first-team, STATS FCS All-America second-team and CoSIDA Academic All-America first-team.

Dome Domination
The 2015 season marked the 40th year in the UNI-Dome, with UNI posting an all-time record 201-51-1 inside the facility. It’s not just the players that have made the UNI-Dome special, the fans add a 12th-man atmosphere that is unmatched in FCS football. UNI has finished ranked in the Top 20 in attendance in 12 of the last 15 seasons.

UNI head coach Mark Farley, once known as the “walk on from Waukon”, has led the Panthers to a mark of 129-61 in his 15 years at the helm of the program. Entering his 16th season as the head coach of the Northern Iowa Panthers, Farley is set to hit the ground running.

In Missouri Valley Football Conference play, Farley has guided the Panthers to a record of 78-34 for an impressive .696 winning percentage in league play. Farley is the MVFC’s all-time coaching wins leader with 78 league victories.

Included in that 15-year run for Farley and the Panthers are seven conference championships, nine playoff appearances, 12 top-25 final rankings, three national semifinal appearances and one national title game appearance in 2005. Farley holds the UNI record for postseason coaching victories with 13 with an overall playoff record of 13-9.

Through his leadership, the Panthers have returned to the glory days when they won seven straight conference titles and made seven consecutive FCS playoff appearances in the decade of the ‘90s. In Farley’s 15 years at the helm, UNI has won at least a share of seven Missouri Valley Football Conference titles. UNI has also advanced to the quarterfinals (2003, 2007, 2011, 2015), semifinals (2001, 2008) and the national title game (2005) in seven of those nine playoff appearances. Twelve of Farley’s 15 previous Panther teams have finished the season ranked in the top-25, defeating 79 top-25 ranked foes in the process.

UNI finished the 2015 season ranked No. 6 in the FCS Coaches Poll, its 12th top-25 final ranking with Farley at the helm. He led the Panthers to its fourth FCS quarterfinal appearance since 2001 after taking down six top-25 ranked teams throughout the season. The Panthers broke 11 UNI records and one MVFC record on the way to a 9-5 season where they saw five players earn All-America honors, including Deiondre’ Hall who was voted to seven different teams and was named MVFC Defensive Player of the Year. Hall was drafted by the Chicago Bears in the fourth round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

He coached the tandem of Aaron Bailey (2015 MVFC Newcomer of the Year) and Tyvis Smith to 1,000+ yard rushing performances, the first time in school history that UNI has had two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season. Farley saw the offense shutter the school record for rushing yards in a season, with Bailey setting a UNI record for rushing touchdowns in a season and an MVFC record for rushing scores in a season by a quarterback. Farley also earned his 129th career coaching win during UNI’s second round playoff win over No. 5 Portland State, tying him with Stan Sheriff as UNI’s winningest coach in school history.

The Panthers reached their eighth FCS playoff appearance and 11th top-25 final ranking under the direction of Farley in 2014 after a record breaking season on and off the field. Farley saw six different athletes get named to seven different All-America squads and 13 earn All-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors. During the 2014 season, Farley led the Panthers to wins over then undefeated Illinois State and North Dakota State, ending the Bison’s 33-game winning streak.

Out of UNI’s 13 All-MVFC selections, Farley was key in the development of All-American running back David Johnson, who broke 15 school records during the 2014 season. Johnson was named to four separate All-America squads his senior year, including earning the title of College Football Performance Awards All-Purpose Performer of the Year, eventually getting drafted and starting for the Arizona Cardinals. On the defensive side of the ball, Farley oversaw the Panther corps earn a top-15 ranking in the FCS in eight different categories, including a No. 3 ranking in team sacks.

The 2013 season started on a bright note with the Panthers going 4-0 for the first time since 2007, jumping as high as fourth in the FCS rankings. The Panthers opened the season with a win over FBS and in-state foe Iowa State, defeating the Cyclones 28-20 in Ames. UNI spent seven weeks ranked in the top-15 and received votes from both the Coaches and Sports Network polls for the remaining five weeks of the season.

Farley led a young team in 2013 to an overall record of 7-5 and 3-5 in the MVFC. He was at the helm to see 12 student-athletes earn all-conference honors and three finish with All-American recognition, including star placekicker and seven-time All-American Tyler Sievertsen. UNI faced four ranked teams during the season, defeating No. 9 McNeese State and No. 9 Youngstown State, while also playing No. 1 North Dakota State to a one-point game.

During the 2012 season, Farley led a young Panther squad through a rough schedule, finishing 5-6 overall and 4-4 in the MVFC. Farley put confidence in a young quarterback from Oklahoma as Sawyer Kollmorgen guided UNI through the season, eventually picking up MVFC Freshman of the Year and MVFC Newcomer of the Year awards. The Panthers faced two BCS opponents and four ranked FCS opponents during the season.

UNI won back-to-back MVFC titles in 2011 following a 7-1 run through the league. UNI clinched a share of the MVFC title with a 23-20 double-overtime win at Illinois State to close the regular season. The Panthers also achieved Farley’s sixth 10-plus win season since taking over in 2001. The Panthers posted a mark of 4-2 against ranked foes in 2011, including a 28-21 win over No. 12-ranked Wofford in the second round of the FCS playoffs.

The Panthers won their third MVFC title in four years in 2010. The Panthers started slow at 2-3 following an overtime loss at Southern Illinois, but rallied to win five games in a row and clinched the regular season conference title with a week remaining in the regular season. UNI eventually dropped a 14-7 opening round NCAA Playoff game to Lehigh to end the 2010 campaign.

UNI led the MVFC in rushing offense (216.58 yards/game), rushing defense (104.42 yards/game), sacks (3.08/game) and tackles-for-loss (6.92/game). UNI ranked No. 9 in the nation in sacks, No. 9 in rushing offense and No. 10 in rushing defense.

In 2009, the Panthers rose to No. 2 in the national polls following a 5-1 start to the season. Included in that run was a near-upset of the Iowa Hawkeyes at Kinnick Stadium.

In 2008, Farley directed the Panthers to back-to-back conference championships for the first time since the 1995-1996 seasons. The Panthers posted a mark of 12-3 overall and earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA FCS Playoffs. UNI scored a pair of playoff wins over Maine and New Hampshire.

The Panthers’ 2007 season will go down in the books as one of the finest ever. UNI became the first team in the 23-year history of the Missouri Valley Football Conference to post a perfect 11-0 regular season. UNI also became the first MVFC team to record a perfect 6-0 mark in road games. The Panthers attained the No. 1 ranking in the Sports Network poll and held the top spot for the final six weeks of the regular season.

As a result of the Panthers’ success in 2007, fans came out in droves to the UNI-Dome. UNI set a single-season average attendance record by drawing 16,118 fans per game. Also, for the first time in school history UNI sold out three straight games in the Dome beginning with a Homecoming crowd of 17,074 vs. Southern Illinois, followed by Youngstown State with 16,528 and Indiana State with 16,624.

When the year was done the accolades rolled in with Farley earning National Coach of the Year honors in winning the Eddie Robinson Award, an honor given to the top FCS coach by The Sports Network. Farley was also named the 2007 Bruce Craddock MVFC Coach of the Year.

In 2006, Farley guided the Panthers to another top-25 ranking and a second-place finish in the ultra-competitive Missouri Valley Football Conference. UNI's offense finished the year ranked No. 4 in the nation and senior defensive back Dre Dokes led the nation with seven interceptions.

Farley's 2005 Panthers made school history by reaching the first NCAA FCS national championship game in the program's history. The Panthers reached the final by edging out No. 15 Eastern Washington (38-35), No. 1-ranked New Hampshire (24-21) and No. 4 Texas State (40-37) in overtime.

UNI's 2005 Missouri Valley Football Conference title run is one that will stick in the memory banks of all Panther fans. UNI dropped to 2-2 in the league and 4-3 overall after a disappointing 38-3 loss to Illinois State.

"We talked after that game that our goal was to go from worst to first - and not just first in the Gateway conference," Farley said.

The Panthers then pulled off the unthinkable as they knocked off three-ranked opponents in three weeks to capture a share of the conference title.

UNI scored a 21-7 home win over No. 11-ranked Youngstown State. UNI followed it up with an amazing 23-20 double-overtime win at No. 6 Western Kentucky. Western Kentucky was set to win the game on the final play, but UNI’s Everette Pedeselcaux blocked the field goal and the Panthers eventually won the game on a 20-yard touchdown strike from Eric Sanders to Justin Surrency.

The Panthers concluded their conference run with a dramatic, come-from-behind thriller with No. 4-ranked Southern Illinois in a raucous UNI-Dome in front of 15,536 fans. The Panthers trailed 24-10 entering the fourth quarter but responded with 15 points in the final 15 minutes to score a 25-24 win. UNI scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 4th-and-2 when Sanders hooked up with Jamie Goodwin for a 35-yard score. UNI then held the Salukis when senior linebacker Darin Heideman nabbed SIU running back Arkee Whitlock short of the first down marker and the celebration was on.

“I think it’s the most quality team you could put together,” Farley said. “When I say a team, it was 56 guys who stepped up, put together a run and beat many teams, and we had to do it on the road. It’s hard to put together a team like this without any superstars, but with guys who were always there for you and believed in each other. It’s a special group.”

Farley earned Northwest Region Coach of the Year honors from Don Hansen’s Football Gazette, and he finished 15th in the Eddie Robinson Award balloting.

“This is home to me,” he said at the time of his selection as UNI’s head coach.

“Through football, I’ve been presented with great opportunities in my life and this is by far the best experience. I am so excited for this opportunity.”

In his first season, Farley led the Panthers back to the FCS elite. UNI finished 11-3 overall in 2001, placed first in the Gateway Football Conference with a 6-1 mark, and advanced to the FCS national semifinals for the fifth time in school history. It was the Panthers’ first conference title and playoff appearance since 1996.

During the season, UNI defeated five ranked FCS opponents and FBS Football Bowl Subdivision opponent Ball State, which went on to defeat Motor City Bowl-bound Toledo later in the year. The Panthers finished the season ranked fourth in both The Sports Network and ESPN/USA Today final FCS polls.

The conference and the nation took notice. Farley was named the league’s Bruce Craddock Coach of the Year and American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Region 4 Coach of the Year. He placed third in the Eddie Robinson Award balloting. He received 16 first-place votes, the most of any candidate. He still sits atop the conference with the best record for rookie coaches.

The following year did not live up to pre-season expectations following the success of 2001 as the Panthers finished 5-6 overall. Injuries, graduation and inexperience on defense took a toll.

The Panthers re-grouped in 2003 to claim a share of the conference title when it won a hard-fought, come-from-behind contest against previously undefeated and No. 2-ranked Southern Illinois in the final regular season game. UNI went on to defeat No. 24-ranked Montana State in the UNI-Dome in the first round of the playoffs, then was sent on the road to No. 3 and eventual national champion Delaware, where it fell 37-7 on a cold and snowy afternoon to finish 10-3 overall. The Panthers were ranked fifth in The Sports Network/CSTV final Top 25.

Throughout the season, UNI defeated four ranked teams and appeared on television five times. Farley again was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award.

When all was said and done in 2004, the Panthers were judged on their first five games, and not their final six. Despite six consecutive victories by an average margin of 23.7 points, UNI couldn’t overcome a 1-4 start to begin the year. As a result, the Panthers were passed over for the FCS playoffs but finished on a high with a 7-4 record, including a 5-2 mark in the always tough MVFC to place third behind post-season selections Southern Illinois and Western Kentucky. Their strong finish earned them a No. 25 ranking in both The Sports Network and ESPN/USA Today final polls.

Farley grew up not far from Cedar Falls, and the UNI-Dome, in a small community called Waukon. He was a three-sport standout at Waukon High School. He played quarterback his junior year and tailback his senior year, while also seeing time at strong safety. He was a forward on the basketball team (all-conference two years) and a pitcher and short stop for the baseball team (all-conference three years). Despite his success, he wasn’t highly recruited and he took a year off before pursuing his college degree.

His job as a truck driver brought him through Cedar Falls each Monday. He would drop into the UNI-Dome to check out the Panther football team. In the fall of 1982, he walked on to the team, redshirting that first season. He received the Special Team Award his second year, then became a starting inside linebacker three years. He earned honorable mention all-America honors twice, was named MVFC co-Defensive Player of the Year, was selected a team co-captain, and was named a two-time academic all-American. He led the team in tackles three consecutive years.

During Farley’s three years as a starter, UNI compiled a 27-7-1 record and advanced to the 1985 FCS semifinals.

“When I came (for the interview), I wanted to stop back (in the Dome),” Farley said. “I came to the doors and I stood on that balcony on the concourse. I just wanted to get that energy from the Dome, because there’s still something about this place. I looked at the banners and remembered the players that were here. We can be proud of this university in football.”

Farley went straight from a player to a graduate assistant for two years under Coach Darrell Mudra and then was elevated to a full-time assistant. Between 1987-96, he was the position coach for such former UNI stars as Bryce Paup, James Jones, William Freeney and Andre Allen. Paup and Jones went on to play in the NFL, of course, while Allen and Freeney played in the Arena League and CFL. Four times Farley’s players were named league Defensive Players of the Year.

In total, he coached five UNI all-Americans and 22 all-conference selections the first time around on staff. He also was the punt return specialist. That segment had a NCAA average ranking of sixth from 1989-1993, with two second-place statistical rankings. He also served as the team’s Strength and Speed Coordinator. He was a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and a Certified Level 1 Coach of the U.S. Weightlifting Federation. He designed and coordinated the reconstruction of UNI’s strength facility and implemented individualized computer weight training programs.

With the success of individual players, the Panther program grew into a national power under Mudra and then, Terry Allen. As previously mentioned, UNI won seven consecutive MVFC titles, made seven straight FCS playoff appearances between 1990-1996, eight total, including advancing to two semifinal games. The Dome was packed with several sellouts.

In an interview following Farley’s hiring, Mudra, a former head coach at Florida State, now retired and living in Florida, said, “I had three helpers who went on to become NFL head coaches. Farley is as good as any coaching prospect I worked with. I just feel like (UNI) couldn’t have hired a better guy. He’s a perfect fit for that situation. I think he’s bright - real bright. Probably the most important thing is, he’s really involved in football. If you cut his head open, nothing would come out but footballs. He’s real intense.”

Jones, a 1991 NFL third-round pick by the Cleveland Browns, said of Farley in a post-hire interview, “He makes athletes get the most out of themselves. One thing all of us under him did was work hard. That’s the way he coached it, and that’s what he expected out of you. He was just one of those coaches you wanted to go out there and play your hardest for. He’ll probably still have (that) energy when he’s 65. That’s just Coach Farley.”

When Terry Allen left the Panthers in 1997 to become head coach at the University of Kansas, Farley was one of UNI’s assistants to follow. Farley was the Jayhawks’ inside and outside linebacker coach.

In Lawrence, he coached two all-Big 12 players, one all-American and five Players of the Week. He produced the KU all-time sack leader for season and career and recruited the 1999 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year. He was rated one of the top recruiters in the Midwest by MoKan Recruiting Service. He also assisted with the punt return and block specialists. His players blocked or returned a punt for a touchdown against 11 of the league teams at least once.

Having worked under, or played for, three of the best football minds in Mudra, Earle Bruce and Allen, there’s little doubt Farley knows football. However, it is also his passion, not only for the game, but for the University of Northern Iowa, that has helped carry the Panthers back to the top of FCS football.

“This program is not broken,” Farley said upon his appointment. “The previous staff did a good job... We just want to take it a step higher, raise the bar to our expectations at the University of Northern Iowa. We want to win the MVFC - we WILL win the conference... people are scared to come in (the UNI-Dome). We want to fill this place. You don’t know how exciting it was as a player and as a coach with 16,000 people, keys ringing all the time on kickoffs. That’s neat. I love it when the opposing team stands at that doorway down there and that is all happening.

“I want our players to feel that because that is a special feeling, and that is why we’re here and that’s what we’re after to achieve, because if you win the Gateway, you can win the national championship. That’s how tough this conference is.”

Farley also is a players’ coach, a coach willing to listen to his players, but who also sets high standards for his team. He set the tone in his first meeting with the squad.

“The first thing that we talked about was this program,” he said. “This program is the most important thing. It was here before we were here, and it will be here after we leave. Right now, we represent this program and this university. We represent the community, we represent the state, and we will do everything that we can to put UNI football at the level we’re proud of and always have been at this university. This place is important to alumni, just as it is to me.”

Head coach Mark Farley has 129 wins through 15 seasons, tying him as the all-time winningest coach in UNI history. His 129 wins are the most by a head coach at a Valley school.
Associate head coach Bill Salmon has served as an assistant coach in all 36 Panther FCS playoff games in the program's history and will begin his 30th year as part of the UNI coaching staff. During the 2016 season, Salmon will serve as UNI's Associate Head Coach and will also be in charge of the running backs.

In 2015, Salmon was the leader of an explosive offense that broke the school record for rushing yards in a season (3,266). He coached Tyvis Smith to a 1,000+ rushing performance and helped the Panthers to their first ever season with two 1,000+ rushers in the same year with Aaron Bailey joining Smith in the 1,000-yard club. He was a part of the offensive staff that outscored its opponents by 10.1 points per game, ending the season in the FCS playoff quarterfinals. He coached Bailey to MVFC Newcomer of the Year honors and Tyvis Smith to All-MVFC honorable mention status on the way to UNI finishing ranked in the Top 15 in the country in rushing offense.

Salmon was an integral part of UNI's return to the FCS playoffs during the 2014 season, coaching senior running back David Johnson to a standout season. Johnson broke 15 school records in 2014, earning All-MVFC first-team honors and four separate All-American selections and a spot at the Reese's Senior Bowl and NFL Combine. The UNI offense finished the 2014 season leading the country in redzone offense and securing a top-30 ranking in scoring offense.

Salmon also helped lead a talented 2013 offense which saw 1,962 yards on the ground and 2,276 yards through the air to combine for 4,238 total offensive yards during the season. Along with his associate head coach and offensive coordinator duties, Salmon served as the running backs coach. Salmon coached first team All-MVFC honoree David Johnson to 1,286 rushing yards in a season.

In 2012, Salmon served as the wide receivers coach along with his offensive coordinator duties, leading the receiving corps to a successful season. Salmon saw senior Terrell Sinkfield rack up 499 yards through the air as one of Sawyer Kollmorgen's main targets. Salmon also led a young group on the receiving team with Brett LeMaster shining as a sophomore with 601 receiving yards and four touchdowns. As offensive coordinator, Salmon helped the UNI offensive finish with 2,594 yards in the air and 1,637 yards on the ground.

During the 2011 campaign, Salmon helped UNI to a 7-1 MVFC record, sharing the MVFC crown. He led the Panther offense to a top-35 scoring offense ranking, sending the team into the quarterfinal round of the FCS Playoffs. He also saw offensive standouts Terrell Rennis, Jay Teply and David Johnson receive All-MVFC honors.

In 2010, Salmon led the UNI offense to a No. 9 ranking in the nation in rushing offense and No. 1 ranking in the Missouri Valley Football Conference. Salmon also took over as the Panthers’ running backs coach in 2010, where he oversaw the running of honorable mention all-MVFC back Carlos Anderson.

In 2009, Salmon directed the Panther offense to a Missouri Valley Football Conference-best 417.3 yards per game. UNI also topped the MVFC in passing efficiency and ranked 11th in the nation in that category. The Panthers put up 367 points on the season (33.4 per game), including seven games of 28 points or better.

Quarterback Pat Grace was the MVFC first-team selection at quarterback, tight ends Ryan Mahaffey and Schuyler Oordt were second-team honorees, and wide receiver D.J. Hord was named honorable mention under Salmon’s guidance.

Salmon (SAHL-mun) rejoined the Panther staff in 2001 as associate head coach, offensive coordinator and assistant in charge of the wide receivers. Prior to his return to UNI, Salmon served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Kansas from 1997-2000. Salmon was also the running backs coach for the Jayhawks in 1999 and 2000. “It's still UNI,” he said upon his return to the Cedar Valley. “Still football. Still people I know. It's easy. This is home.” Salmon is a native of Cedar Falls, a graduate of Cedar Falls High School and a UNI football alum. Salmon started three years at quarterback (1973-75) for the Panthers and was known for his excellent throwing arm, quick release, great quickness, speed, football knowledge (he called about 75 percent of his own plays), and was superb at running the Panther veer attack. He ran as good as any running back, and was not afraid to do so.

He was a third team all-America selection and North Central Conference Offensive Player of the Year following his senior campaign when he led UNI to the NCAA Division II playoffs. He set a multitude of school records, including throwing for 4,342 regular season career yards and gaining 5,371 yards in total offense. He was drafted in the 10th round by the Minnesota Vikings, but an off-season knee injury ended his playing career.

Former UNI director of athletics and head football coach, Stan Sheriff, called Salmon “the greatest and smartest quarterback I’ve ever coached. He can throw the ball a mile, runs like any back and could even kick if we asked him to. I’ve never seen a quarterback with as much talent, confidence, poise and knowledge as Bill Salmon has. But it’s his take-charge attitude and game-breaking capabilities which really makes him great.”

Salmon first served as a UNI assistant from 1983-96, coaching the wide receivers and running backs. He was Farley’s first appointee when he was hired at UNI as head coach.

“Trust is the number one reason,” Farley said when describing why he wanted Salmon on his staff. “I was a defensive coach and I wanted someone I could turn the offense over to, and let them control that phase of the game.”

In 2005, the Panthers’ offense flourished and set a school record with 6,008 yards of total offense. UNI also set school marks in points scored (449), offensive plays (1,024) and first downs (298). UNI ranked No. 6 in the nation in pass efficiency, No. 31 in passing offense, No. 32 in scoring offense and No. 34 in total offense. The Panthers placed first in the Gateway in passing efficiency, fourth in total offense, fifth in rushing offense and fifth in total offense.

The Panther offense continued to put up impressive numbers in 2006. UNI ranked No. 4 in the nation in total offense (408.3 yards/game), 8th in passing efficiency (152.45 rating), 10th in rushing offense (219.3 yards/game) and 11th in scoring (31.0 points/game).

In 2006, the Panthers led the league in total offense.

In 2007, UNI led the league in total offense (457.31 yards/game) and ranked second in the league in passing efficiency (168.19 rating). The Panther offense set school records for points (469), rushing yards (2,956), rushing touchdowns (39), first downs (322) and rushing first downs (163). The UNI offense put together one of the finest seasons ever in 2007 under Salmon. The Panthers scored 469 points to set a school record and tallied the most rushing yards (2,956) in school history.

In 2008, the Panther offense set a school record with 661 rushing attempts while earning a No. 3 seed for the FCS playoffs and racking up a school-record tying 12 victories. He tutored a pair of freshmen to the Missouri Valley Football Conference’s All-Newcomer team in Jarred Herring and Josh Collins in 2008. Collins led the Panthers with 502 receiving yards and 32 catches, while Herring led the team with four touchdown receptions.

Salmon has coached 33 Panther all-conference selections, 13 all-Americans and six wide receivers who have gone on to play in the NFL, including wide receiver Dedric Ward, who was a third-round selection in the 1998 NFL draft by the New York Jets.

His wife’s name is Kim. He was born Jan. 27, 1954, in Des Moines, Iowa. He graduated from Cedar Falls High School in 1972, where he was an all-conference, all-district and all-state selection and a team MVP.

Ben Barkema is in his second season as offensive line coach for the Panthers.

Barkema, an Iowa native, was the tight ends coach at Missouri State University for two seasons prior to UNI. He also worked with the MSU special teams and was involved with MSU’s digital recruiting efforts.

Barkema helped coach an offense that broke the school record for rushing yards in a season in his first year on the staff, coaching the offensive line that ended 2015 ranked No. 15 in the FCS in rushing offense. He saw senior Jacob Rathmacher earn first-team All-MVFC honors as well as true freshman Col Twain on the All-Newcomer team.

Barkema has coached three current NFL players in Jake Knott with the Miami Dolphins, A.J. Klein with the Carolina Panthers and Jeremi-ah George of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

In his first season with Missouri State, Barkema coached two standout tight ends in veteran Matt Swan and newcomer Gannon Sin-clair. Swan went on to earn MVFC Scholar-Athlete second team after starting all 12 games while Sinclair earned eight starts and finished with three touchdowns. During his second year, he also saw Sinclair and punter Chris Sullens earn MVFC honorable mention status. During the 2015 season, the Panthers finished the second ranked No. 13 in passes intercepted, No. 9 in red-zone defense, No. 18 in rushing defense and No. 19 in scoring defense on the way to being one of the most powerful defenses in FCS football. He coached linebacker Brett McMakin to All-America status in 2015 and had McMakin and Jared Farley represented on the All-MVFC squads.

In 2014, he saw two linebackers, Jake Farley and McMakin, earn All-MVFC honors. Farley finished the season leading the Valley in tackles while McMakin ended his season ranked 34th in the country in total sacks.

The 2013 season for the Panthers saw a young defensive core shine while making big plays for the team. Johnson coached the defense to finishing in the top-30 in the FCS in four defensive statistical categories, including being ranked 19th in the country in total defense. Johnson also saw senior linebacker Jordan Gacke finish with All-MVFC honors.

Prior to his work at Loras, Johnson was a graduate assistant/video coordinator at the University of Wyoming in 2002.

A 2000 graduate of the University of Kansas with a degree in sports science, Johnson completed his master’s degree in athletic administration at Loras in 2005.

COACHING STAFF

Brandon Lynch will enter his fourth season as an assistant coach for the Panthers, primarily in charge of the defensive backs and is also starting his second season as the assistant head coach for defense in 2016.

In 2015, Lynch coached the secondary to record breaking performances, concluding with all four starting secondary athletes getting a chance at the NFL. He saw consensus All-American Deiondre’ Hall go to the Chicago Bears in the fourth round with Makinton Dorleant signing a free agent contract with the Green Bay Packers. He coached the UNI cornerbacks to a No. 13 rank in the FCS in passes intercepted and the UNI defense to a No. 16 rank in scoring defense, thanks in large part to Hall setting a new school record in career pick-sixes in 2015. He coached both Hall and Dorleant to their third straight all-conference nods along with a combined 10 All-America honors, ending their seasons with spots at the NFL Combine and NFLPA Senior Bowl, respectively.

Lynch was an integral part of UNI’s defensive unit finishing ranked in the top-15 in the country in eight different statistical categories during the 2014 season. Lynch saw Hall and Dorleant earn their second consecutive All-MVFC honors after a standout season as the anchor for the Panther defense, along with Tim Klfoyo who earned MVFC First-Team while leading the MVFC in interceptions. Lynch was also key in helping Ray Mitchell break the school record for career interception return yards at 270 through two seasons with the Panthers.

Lynch helped a young defensive core of athletes to a successful 2013 season, seeing defensive backs Hall, Ray Mitchell and Dorleant earn All-MVFC honors. Lynch helped a defense to a final ranking of 19th in the FCS in total defense and a ranking of eighth in scoring defense.

Lynch was one of 12 coaches selected to take part in the NCAA and NFL Coaching Academy in Dallas in 2012. He also was part of the Bill Walsh Minority Internship in 2013 where he worked closely with then Minnesota Vikings head coach Leslie Frazier. He was in charge of coaching the defensive backs during the program.

Lynch played college football at Middle Tennessee State. Lynch served as team captain for MTSU in 2002 and 2003. He was a member of Middle Tennessee’s first Sun Belt Conference championship team in 2001.

Lynch went on to play in the National Football League for both the Tennessee Titans and the Indianapolis Colts. He was a member of the Super Bowl championship Colts squad in 2006. Lynch was coached by Jeff Fisher and Tony Dungy in the NFL.

Lynch graduated in 2006 with a degree in Liberal Arts. He and his wife, Francesca, have three children - Jordan and Peyton (daughters) and Brandon II.
Bryce Paup is entering his fourth season as the defensive line coach at the University of Northern Iowa. Paup is also in charge of player development.

The 1995 NFL Defensive MVP has taken the Panther defensive line to new heights since taking the reins in 2013. UNI has finished each year ranked in the top-40 nationally in rushing defense, total defense, sacks and tackles for loss.

In 2015, he saw Karter Schult and Isaac Ales anchor a defensive line that finished the season ranked No. 19 in sacks and No. 21 in tackles for loss. They kept teams at bay on the ground, only allowing 124 rushing yards a game, a statistic that puts them at No. 18 in the FCS. Paup was integral in developing Schult from an inside tackle to a defensive end, with Schult breaking the UNI record in tackles for loss in a game, tackles for loss in a season and career quarterback hurries. He led both Schult and Ales to All-Conference nods with Schult also being named to the STATS All-America second-team. Paup also stressed hard work off the field to his linemen, with Schult and Ales earning Academic All-America honors.

Paup was an integral part of UNI’s defensive unit finishing ranked in the top-15 in the country in eight different statistical categories during the 2014 season. He led the defensive line to a No. 3 ranking in FCS football in team sacks, seeing defensive lineman Ales finish in the top-35 in tackles for loss and sacks. Under his direction, senior Xavier Williams was named to four different All-America teams and earn a spot in the Senior Shrine Bowl.

Paup led a talented defensive line during the 2013 season, seeing defensive tackle Xavier Williams earn All-America honors. Williams also earned All-MVFC recognition along with fellow defensive lineman Collin Albrecht. Paup coached the line to finish second in the MVFC in tackles for loss and third in team sacks where Albrecht finished in the top-30 in the FCS in sacks per game.

Prior to UNI, Paup served as the head coach at Southwest High School in Green Bay, Wis. from 2007-2012, posting a 43-21 record.

The Fighting Blue Hens (10-3) rode an outstanding effort by quarterback Joe Flacco and benefitted from a pair of momentum-shifting fumble recoveries to deliver UNI’s only loss of the year. Trailing by 12 with 8:03 left in the game, the Panther offense took the field and began its attempt at a comeback. UNI senior quarterback Eric Sanders, who entered the game with 12 career fourth quarter or overtime rallies under his belt, led the Panthers on a 2-minute, 51-second drive that saw tight end Austin Howard haul in a 4-yard pass in the back of the end zone to cut Delaware’s lead to 32-27. The Panthers’ drive left just 5:12 on the clock, with Delaware’s offensive unit proceeding to consume most of that remaining time on a 55-yard drive that saw Flacco dive in from 1 yard out for the game-icing touchdown. The score returned Delaware’s lead to 12 points and left Sanders and the Panthers with just 41 seconds in which to work. Sophomore running back Kevin Richardson. UNI senior safety Tanner Varner turned the tables on the Mountaineers with an interception midway through the second quarter. Varner stepped in front of a Trey Elder pass to put the Panthers in position to retake the lead. Senior running back David Horne did just that when he scored from two yards out with 8:20 left in the second quarter. The Panther defense came up big again late in the second quarter. Senior linebacker Darin Heideman forced a fumble and junior safety Matt Tharp jumped on the ball to give the Panthers another short field. The UNI offense threatened to add another touchdown before the half the Appalachian State defense held and forced a Wingert field goal. Appalachian State broke through in the second half with a one-yard touchdown run by Richardson to trim the UNI lead to 16-14 with 6:05 to go in the third quarter. The majority of the third and fourth quarters were dominated by both defenses and then the Mountaineer defense made a game-changing play. Appalachian State’s Jason Hunter scooped up a fumble by UNI sophomore quarterback Eric Sanders and took it 15 yards for a touchdown to give the Mountaineers a 21-16 lead with 9:14 left in the game.

For the third straight week, kicker Brian Wingert provided the winning margin, this time with a 25-yard field goal in overtime. Sanders passed for a career-high 417 yards and tied a career-best with 24 completions. UNI was able to force the overtime by driving 72 yards in 10 plays with senior David Horne capping the drive with a four-yard run with 1:27 left in the game. Sanders then connected with senior wide receiver Justin Surrency for the two-point conversion that knotted the game at 37-37. Inexplicably, Texas State head coach David Bailiff told his squad to take a knee and the final 1:16 went off the clock without even an attempt to move the ball down the field. Texas State had all three timeouts and seemed happy with its chances in overtime. Wingert’s three-pointer gave the Panthers a 40-37 in overtime. The Panther defense clinched the victory when Todd Tharp intercepted a Barrick Nealy pass in overtime to set off a wild Panther celebration.

Highlights: UNI advanced to the quarterfinals with a dramatic 41-38 win over No. 15-ranked Eastern Washington. Eastern Washington scored first but the UNI took its first lead of the game after a pair of one-yard touchdown runs by David Horne. EWU battled back behind the arm of Walter Payton Award winner Erik Meyer and took a 21-17 lead late in the second quarter. But again the Panthers responded – this time an Eric Sanders-to-Justin Surrency touchdown pass gave UNI a 24-21 halftime lead. The Eagles took control of the game in the third quarter with a touchdown and field goal and appeared to lock the game away in the fourth quarter with another touchdown to give them a 38-24 lead. However, the Panthers would rally behind the arm of Sanders and feet of Horne to tie the game at 38-38. EWU could not move the ball and punted the ball back to the Panthers with 3:43 remaining in the fourth quarter. The Panthers drove 55 yards with help from a 28-yard sprint by Horne to set up the gamewinning 31-yard field goal by Brian Wingert to win it with 51 seconds left in the game.

Highlights: UNI’s season came to a close at third-ranked and second-seeded Delaware. The first major snow storm of the season snarled travel plans on the East Coast, delaying the Panthers’ departure on Friday and forcing the team charter to fly into Baltimore, Maryland, followed by over an hour bus ride to Newark. The game’s kickoff was delayed by half an hour, allowing UD staff to clear snow off the field. Though it stopped snowing prior to kickoff, a stiff wind caused havoc in the kicking and passing games. To make matters worse, UNI quarterback Tom Petrie was suffering from the flu and with a high temperature. The Panthers fell behind 17-0 with 4:42 left in the first quarter. The Blue Hens scored on a two-yard run with 9:17 left. Following a blocked UNI punt that was returned to UNI’s nine-yard line, and a pass interference call in the end zone, UD went up 14-0 on a three-yard run at the 6:24 mark. Benny Sapp fumbled the ball on the ensuing kickoff return, eventually resulting in UD 24-yard field goal. The Panthers got back in the game when Petrie scored on a one-yard run with 13:50 left in the half. The score followed a Blue Hen fumble recovered by Kevin Stensrud on the UD 49. UNI had a chance to pull within 17-14 or 17-10 with just 4:09 remaining, but Petrie’s pass to Marlus Mays was intercepted on the two yard line, and the Panthers never really threatened after that.
