El Centro asks for financial help

El Centro Latinoamericano is asking for financial donations to help defray costs for the daily transportation of volunteers and family members to and from Postville.

The Latino resource center in Waterloo also has provided food, shelter, clothing, diapers, baby formula and other necessities. The offices have served as a staging ground for out-of-town attorneys and other immigrant advocates.

The center asks any individuals or organizations to make donations to the "Postville Support" fund set up at Veridian Credit Union. Donations can also be dropped off at El Centro, at 500 E. Fourth St., suite 321. For more information, call 234-2660.
