UNIVERSITY OF NORTHERN IOWA

A campus-wide commitment to great teaching lies at the heart of the University of Northern Iowa's reputation for providing exceptional undergraduate education, as well as complementary programs at the master's, specialist's and doctoral levels. Building on its historic excellence in teacher education, the University has developed outstanding programs in business, natural sciences, humanities and fine arts, and social and behavioral sciences.

UNI's heritage and philosophy place great value on providing a student-centered educational experience. The University's medium size allows it to offer the faculty, facilities and academic choices of a major university, while retaining a friendly, small college atmosphere.

Throughout the years, the University's academic reputation has proven a key factor in landing recognition as one of the top undergraduate institutions in the region.

U.S. News and World Report has recognized the University by ranking it among the best values and most efficient of regional universities in the Midwest in 1997. In past years, UNI has been cited by the magazine in other categories such as "best," "best buy," "up and coming," and "#1 in academic reputation."

The book, Crime at College: The Student Guide to Personal Safety, credits UNI with having the safest campus/community in the country.

Enrollment on the 860-acre campus stands at about 13,000 students from every county in Iowa, 40 states and 48 foreign countries.

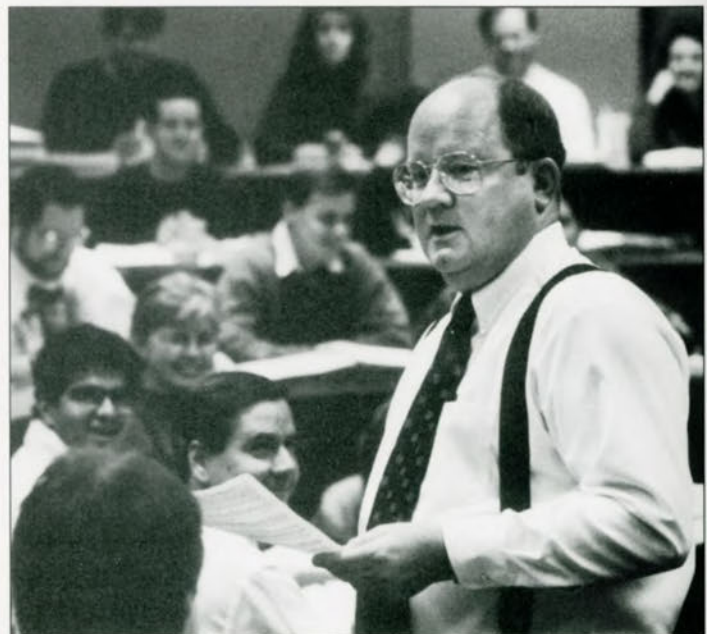

The school was founded in 1876 as the Iowa State Normal School. In 1909, it became Iowa State Teachers College. In 1961, the name was changed to State College of Iowa, and in 1967, the Iowa Legislature acted to change the status of the institution to that of a university under its present title.

While maintaining its heritage in teacher education, the University has continued its metamorphosis toward a multi-purpose institution, with nationally acclaimed programs in many disciplines. UNI's accounting program continues to be ranked among the best in the nation. The College of Business Administration has become the largest undergraduate business school in Iowa and has gained a reputation as one of the finest in the Midwest. Student groups ranging from chemistry to conservation to public relations have been recognized by their respective national groups for the excellence of their programs.

UNI also realizes the value of a liberal arts education and has implemented a rigorous General Education curriculum that equips students with a broad understanding and knowledge of how to apply and acquire new information throughout life.

The University of Northern Iowa has a compact, park-like walking campus located in Cedar Falls, an inviting and historic community of about 35,000 people. Together with the adjacent city of Waterloo, the metropolitan area has a culturally diverse population of 115,000 and combines big city opportunities with small town friendliness. Cedar Falls/Waterloo is a center for industry, finance, commerce, recreation and cultural activities for northeast Iowa.

Panthers to Host Valley Tourney

The 1999 State Farm/Missouri Valley Conference Tournament will be played at the West Gym on the University of Northern Iowa campus on Nov. 18-20. As the host institution, UNI is guaranteed one of the six spots in the tournament field, with the winner of the tournament receiving an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

The West Gym has served as home for the Panthers since 1975 and hosted a total of four conference tournaments (1986, '87, '90 and '94). Constructed in 1925 at a cost of $180,000, the 2,500-seat facility has seen the Panthers compile a 158-10 record in the '90s, including a 50-match home winning streak from 1992-96, which ranks as the fourth-longest streak in NCAA history.

For ticket information, contact the UNI Ticket Office at 319-273-6131.

Media Information

Media facilities in the West Gym are very limited. Only working media are allowed access to the media area, located on the south side of the arena.

Head coach Iradge Ahrabi-Fard and team members are available for interviews in person or by phone on most occasions, including post-match. Interviews may be arranged through Associate Media Relations Director Kevin Kane (319-273-3642) or directly through the Volleyball Office (319-273-6480).

Scoreboard Phone

The Missouri Valley Conference Scoreboard Phone may be reached at (314) 997-9877. Scores from Valley matches are updated each evening.

1999 OUTLOOK

Remember that old adage about it being tougher to stay on top than to get there? The Northern Iowa Panthers will certainly be put to that test during the 1999 season.

The Panthers placed themselves firmly at the top of the Missouri Valley Conference a year ago by going undefeated in 18 league matches and posting a 25-3 overall record. Late in the season they climbed to 24th in the national rankings and went on to win the conference tournament and advance to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in school history.

As the Panthers aim to repeat as they did in the 1994-95 campaigns, they do so with all the essential ingredients seemingly in place.

It would seem the Panthers have the talent, experience and balance to put together another stellar season.

Although he acknowledges his team is the preseason favorite, at least on paper, Panther coach Iradge Ahrabi-Fard says a repeat would be a monumental accomplishment.

The Panthers lost outside hitter Kerri Eich and back row specialists Shishonee Weber and Mindy Workman to graduation, and the veteran coach says those losses will be felt more than some would think.

"The back row specialists last year were the key to our success in nearly every situation," he says. "We would not have won the number of matches we did without those outstanding back row players."

But the Panthers return a nucleus that includes three first-team all-conference performers from a year ago.

"We have a very talented team, maybe the most talented we've ever had," says Ahrabi-Fard. "And I've been very pleased with our off-season workouts and the shape our players are in."

And as was the case a year ago, offensive balance should pose a major problem for UNI opponents.

"A good thing about this team is that nobody can focus on one person," said the Panther coach. "This is the most balanced team we have ever had. Every single person we put out there can inflict some damage. Everyone is good defensively and offensively."

"We're very deep on the outside position and have both of our middles back," he continues. "What concerns me is our depth in the middle and with our setter."

Depth could certainly be the only concern, because the front-line players at those positions are outstanding.

Last year's Valley Player of the Year, Shannon Perry, is back for her final season after taking her place among the top setters in the conference record book.

She's on a pace to break the school assist record midway through the season.

"Shannon has a lot of options and she's wise enough to use them all very well," Ahrabi-Fard said.

Already a two-time first team all-MVC performer, Perry has sparked the potent Panther offense for three seasons and has plenty of weapons to utilize.

Senior Holly VanHofwegen, the Valley Tournament MVP, became one of the most dominating middle hitters in the league, leading the MVC in block average by a large margin and ranking 12th nationally. She also posted sterling offensive numbers, averaging 3.06 kills and posting a .257 hitting percentage.

"Holly's one of the best blockers in the conference, has tremendous ability and can cause lots of problems because of her size," Ahrabi-Fard said.

Junior outside hitter Alexandra Auker made the jump from All-Newcomer to the all-conference first team last year. She is the leading returning hitter from last season's top offense in the conference. Auker emerged as one of the Valley's top all-around performers as the only player in the conference to rank in the top 10 in kills, digs and aces.

And while the aforementioned Panthers all have received their share of notoriety over the past couple of seasons, junior Jeni Schneckloth has quietly become a valuable and consistent force, both offensively and defensively. A year ago, she averaged nearly three kills, a block and over two digs per game while hitting .266, which ranked her second on the team. She was named to the all-tournament team at Florida State and had more kills than any Panther the final month of the season.

Solidifying UNI defensively at the net is senior middle hitter Jodi DeVries, who averaged over a block per game and finished 11th in the league in block average. She was a crucial contributor to the stretch run last season and added bonus offense, leading the conference with a .325 hitting percentage and averaging over two kills per game in the last half of the year.

"Jodi has come a long way," said Ahrabi-Fard. "She's come through in the past when we needed her and now she's developed herself into a very legitimate middle player. She's going to be a real force for us, both offensively and defensively."

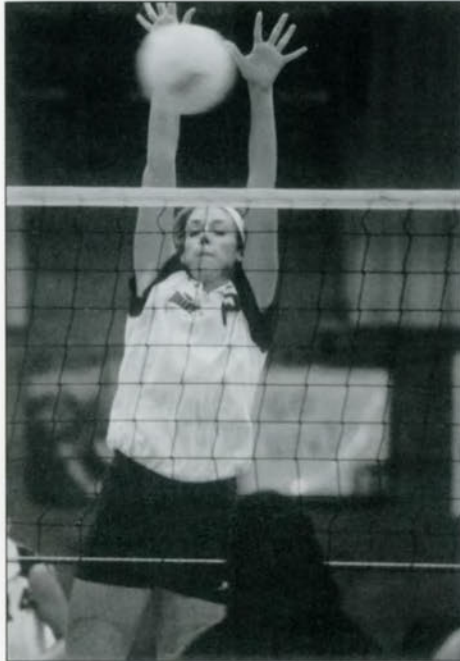

Junior outside hitter Maya Hirsch could see an increased role after limited action the last two seasons while sophomore Kim McCaffrey looks to get back in the mix after redshirting a year ago. She played in 73 of the team's 105 games as a freshman. Ahrabi-Fard said he expects the pair to see a significant increase in playing time.

Sophomore Andrea Carlson and redshirt freshman Dayna Depping will be looking to make their mark for the first time. Depping was an Elite first team all-stater as a senior and is expected to mount a strong challenge for a starting spot.

With the departure of Weber and Workman in the back row, Miranda Weber is the only listed defensive specialist.

Freshmen Jill Arganbright and Kim Kester will likely redshirt. Arganbright will be Perry's understudy at setter. Kester enters the program with gleaming credentials, including the state player of the year last season.

The schedule for 1999 is formidable as the Panthers open at Utah, which defeated Illinois State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament a year ago.

The Oregon State Showcase is followed by additional non-conference matchups with intra-state rival Iowa State and the "Border War" with Minnesota. UNI will meet the Gophers, one of the Big Ten's preseason favorites, in Rochester, Minn.

The Panthers also open the Valley season at arch-rival Illinois State.

COACH IRADGE AHRABI-FARD

Iradge Ahrabi-Fard

18th season
444-136
UNI & Career

The dean of Missouri Valley Conference coaches, Dr. Iradge Ahrabi-Fard begins his 18th season on the Northern Iowa bench.

Since arriving on the scene from his native Iran in 1981, he has established the Panther program as a perennial power in the Midwest and given it national recognition.

Ahrabi-Fard has fashioned a 444-136 record in his 17 seasons, ranking him 22nd among all active coaches in terms of victories. His .766 winning percentage also places him 12th among active coaches.

The Panther coach has led his teams to six conference tournament championships -- 1986, '87 and '91 in the Gateway Conference, and 1994, '95 and '98 in the Missouri Valley.

He collected career win no. 400 at the Sun Devil Challenge at Arizona State on Aug. 31, 1996, against Wright State. He coached his 500th match at the collegiate level Sept. 15, 1995, in a win over Drake and is slated to coach his 600th match this season.

The Panthers were without the veteran coach for the 1997 season as he took a leave of absence to serve as a consultant for USA Volleyball and the development of its various teams. Assistant coach Bobbi Petersen headed the program for the season, but Ahrabi-Fard resumed his leadership role at the conclusion of the campaign.

Under his guidance, the Panthers have posted a 329-73 mark in the 13 seasons he's coached from 1985-98, with seven conference championships, six NCAA Championship Tournament berths and three National Invitation appearances, including a trip to the N.I.V.C. Final Four in 1993.

Ahrabi-Fard's teams have chalked up at least 20 victories in 15 of his 17 seasons. He was voted Gateway Coach of the Year in 1985 and 1987, and earned recognition as Midwest Region Coach of the Year by his peers in 1985. In 1994 and '95, he was voted Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and, in '95, led his team to its first national ranking, breaking into the top 25 late in the season and finishing 24th in the final poll after the Panthers bowed out of the NCAA Tournament to Stanford in the second round.

A year ago, he led the Panthers to a 25-3 mark, 18-0 conference record and sixth trip to the NCAA Tournament, where they were defeated by Indiana in the first round. Northern Iowa spent time in the top 25 for the second time and Ahrabi-Fard again was voted Valley Coach of the Year.

A 1965 graduate of UNI, Ahrabi-Fard has long been involved in athletics on the international level. In his native Iran, he served as President of the Institution of Sports from 1967 thru 1969, head swimming coach for the men's and women's national teams from 1967 thru 1970, Executive Director of the Education Department of Sports Ministry in 1970, and Vice-Minister of Sports Ministry from 1977 thru 1978. He also served as special physical educator for the Crown Prince and Princess of Iran.

As an athlete, Ahrabi-Fard competed on the Iranian national volleyball team internationally and in the Asian Games. He also was a high jumper on the national track and field team and competed his freshman year at UNI.

He was a successful high school coach in several sports at Northern University High School in Cedar Falls prior to taking the UNI job, earning various district, regional and state coach of the year honors in volleyball, track and field, and swimming.

Ahrabi-Fard has authored several books on volleyball coaching and is a highly sought-after speaker/clinician throughout the country.

After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education, Ahrabi-Fard received his master's in physical education from UNI in 1966 and his doctorate in physical education and educational administration from the University of Minnesota in 1975.

Ahrabi-Fard and his wife, Hoorvash, have a daughter, Susann.

COACHING STAFF

Bobbi Petersen
Assistant Coach

One of the greatest players in Northern Iowa volleyball history, Bobbi Petersen is in her fifth season as a Panther assistant. Two years ago, Petersen served as UNI's interim head coach while Iradge Ahrabi-Fard served as a consultant to the U.S.

National Team, and led her squad to a second-place finish in the Missouri Valley Conference with a 13-5 mark, 18-9 overall.

As a player at UNI, the former Bobbi Becker was a three-time first team all-conference selection and two-time first team all-region pick. Although it has been 10 years since she last wore a Panther uniform, she still holds four school records and places second in nine other categories.

Her 40 kills in a 1989 match against Illinois State not only is tops in Northern Iowa history, but also stands as the all-time Missouri Valley/Gateway Conference record. A native of Dike, Iowa, Petersen also holds school records for career and season digs with 1,457 and 471, respectively. She compiled 1,611 career kills and a 3.41 career kill average. In 1992, she was named UNI's Gateway Conference Volleyball Athlete of the Decade.

Petersen earned her bachelor's degree in therapeutic recreation in 1990 and her master's from UNI in physical education in 1992. She served as a graduate assistant with the Panthers in 1990 and after completing her master's was employed as a therapeutic recreation specialist in Fort Smith, Ark., and Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Petersen and her husband, Duane, reside in Dike.

Annie Dailey
Assistant Coach

Former Central College head coach Annie Dailey is in her second season as a Northern Iowa assistant, having been appointed in July, 1998.

Dailey returned to the coaching ranks last season after a 10-year hiatus, but brought impressive credentials to the program.

From 1984-86, she compiled a 76-35 record as head coach at Central College in Pella, Iowa, where she led the Flying Dutch to Iowa Conference titles in 1984 and '86 and a runnerup finish in 1985. She was voted the league's coach of the year in 1984.

After leaving Central, Dailey served as an assistant coach at Wartburg College from 1987-88. Her first coaching experience came as an assistant at Albia (Iowa) High School from 1982-83.

She is a 1981 graduate of the University of Iowa, where she lettered on the volleyball team and was named to the Big Ten all-academic team in 1979.

She and her husband, Dave, live in Waterloo with their son, Kody. She also has a daughter, Kristin Harris, who lives in Grundy Center.

MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE

As it enters the next millennium, the Missouri Valley Conference continues to lead by example as one of college athletics most progressive conferences. Now in its 93rd year of existence, the Missouri Valley Conference emphasizes the importance of the student-athlete and is aggressive in its approach to provide opportunities for its member institutions.

Since its inception in 1907, the Missouri Valley Conference has been regarded as a leader by its peers among today's collegiate athletic conferences.

Based in St. Louis since 1985, the Conference has been aggressive in the approach to playing host to NCAA basketball championship events, producing a revenue-generating in-house television network, bidding out the right to play host to its several sport championships and landing title sponsorships for those events.

Under the direction of J. Douglas Elgin, the ninth commissioner in Valley history, the Valley has played host to the 1993, 1998 and 1999 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Midwest Regionals. In fact, the Missouri Valley Conference will play host to four NCAA basketball championship events in the next six years.

During the past three years, the Valley has led the way for the city of St. Louis in landing the NCAA's basketball crown jewels.

On June 30, 1997, the Conference was selected to play host to the 2001 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four at Kiel Center (March 30 and April 1).

On June 25, 1998, the Valley and the St. Louis Local Organizing Committee were tabbed by the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee to play host to the 2005 Final Four (April 2 and 4) at the Trans World Dome. Along with the 2005 award, the Valley will serve as host for the 2004 Midwest Regional at the Dome.

On December 17, 1998, the Valley and the St. Louis Local Organizing Committee were awarded by the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee the 2002 First/Second Rounds of the South Regional (March 14 and 16) at the Trans World Dome. It will be the first time that the Valley will serve as a first- and second-round host.

The oldest athletic conference west of the Mississippi River, the Missouri Valley Conference has been cutting edge in the area of its television network.

Beginning in 1993-94, the Valley took its television network in-house and began to produce, syndicate and sell a televised package of regular season and tournament events for distribution on local broadcast and national cable networks.

The Valley Television Network includes a package of more than 30 men's and women's basketball games and selected other tournament championship events that air on ESPN, espn2, Fox Sports Network, and on statewide cable systems and local broadcast stations throughout the Midwest.

Starting in 1995-96, the Conference broke new ground by bidding out the right to play host to its volleyball, men's and women's soccer and baseball championships. By establishing uniform host criteria, the Conference is able to assist a host institution in a season-long promotional campaign and provide an avenue where hosts can acquire a title sponsor and achieve a profit for the event.

The seeds for this vision were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who gathered at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907.

The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska.

Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis and women's volleyball.

This season, the league will conduct its 89th outdoor track and field championship, its 82nd tennis championship, its 46th baseball tournament and its 62nd golf championship for the men. Those programs, plus other current sponsored sports of cross country (42 years), indoor track (33), soccer (9) and swimming and diving (6), have helped solidify the Missouri Valley Conference as one of the most respected conferences nationally.

Athletic accomplishments on the men's athletics side include four national basketball championships, 17 trips to the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four and a 1989 national baseball championship. MVC student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the conference's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers which have followed stardom in the Missouri Valley Conference.

The inclusion of women's programs under the Valley banner -- the nation's second-oldest collegiate athletic conference -- has provided an immediate boost. During the 1992-93 academic year, women's athletics were brought under the Valley umbrella for the first time. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference -- which began in 1982 -- merged with the Missouri Valley Conference and was unveiled as part of the new conference on July 1, 1992.

From its early beginning to its current standing on the map of college athletics, the Missouri Valley Conference will always continue to be pro-active in its approach.

Members of the Conference include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, University of Evansville, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University, Southwest Missouri State University and Wichita State University.

1998 REVIEW

A first-round NCAA Tournament upset at the hands of Indiana may not have been the way the Northern Iowa volleyball team envisioned ending its season, but it was hard to look back on the 1998 campaign with anything but pride in its accomplishments.

UNI rode a 23-match winning streak into its first round NCAA matchup with the Hoosiers in Fayetteville, Ark. on Dec. 3. The Panthers were upended by the Hoosiers, 17-15, 15-7, 15-5, to put an end to a storybook season which saw them compile a 25-3 overall record and make their sixth trip to the NCAA Tournament.

The Panthers cracked the national top 25 for the second time in school history, climbing to no. 24 in the final regular-season ranking. They also breezed through the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season at a perfect 18-0, becoming only the second team in league history to accomplish that feat; the 1995 Panthers were the first.

After being picked to finish second in the preseason, the Panthers dominated the Valley, posting three-game sweeps in 12 of those 18 conference wins.

The season also marked the return to the bench of head coach Irdage Ahrabi-Fard after a year's absence while serving as a consultant to USA Volleyball. In his 17th season, the coach ran his career record to 444-136, placing him 11th among active coaches in terms of winning percentage and 23rd in total victories. He was voted Valley Coach of the Year for the fifth time.

Northern Iowa opened its season Labor Day weekend with a second-place finish at the Florida State Invitational, falling in the final match to the host Seminoles. The Panthers finished second again the following weekend at the Northern Illinois Invitational. After losing to the hosts in the first match on Sept. 11, UNI went on to win its next 23 matches, the second-longest streak in school history, which took them to their NCAA date with Indiana.

The Panthers got to the national tournament by winning their sixth conference tournament title Nov. 21 in Wichita, Kan. They entered the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament on Nov. 19 as the favorite and no. 1 seed and came home with the tournament trophy. They downed Drake in the semi-finals, 15-5, 15-4, 12-15, 15-11 before sweeping Illinois State in the championship match, 15-5, 15-8, 15-12.

Led by conference Player of the Year Shannon Perry, Northern Iowa placed three players on the first team all-Missouri Valley Conference squad. Joining Perry on the first unit were junior Holly VanHofwegen and sophomore Alexandra Auker, both making their first appearance on the all-conference squad.

Perry, a junior setter from Overland Park, Kan., who was voted to the all-conference first team a year ago, became the fourth UNI player to win the honor. Her predecessor as the Panther setter, Kara Galer, won the award in 1994 and '95 while Mary Bernhardt and Denise Cuttell won in 1987 and '90, respectively.

Perry guided the Panthers to their third Valley regular-season title in the last five seasons. She averaged 12.05 assists per game in the regular season -- third in the league -- and quarterbacked the league's top-ranked offense, which hit at a .252 clip.

VanHofwegen made the team after enjoying one of the finest seasons by a middle hitter in school history. She averaged 3.06 kills per game to go with a .257 hitting percentage. She led the Valley with a 1.60 block average, which also placed her in the top 10 nationally.

Auker picked up where she left off the previous year when she was voted to the MVC all-newcomer team. The only sophomore on the first team, she led the Panthers in kills and digs, averaging 3.70 and 2.99, respectively. She ranked in the top 10 in the Valley in kills, digs and service aces. She also was voted Valley Player of the Week twice.

Three seniors ended their collegiate careers with the loss to Indiana. Outside hitter Kerri Eich was an honorable mention all-conference pick after being voted to the first team as a junior. She finished in the school's all-time top 10 in kills, kill average and total attempts.

Defensive specialists Shishonee Weber and Mindy Workman averaged 4.29 digs and 0.47 service aces per game between them as seniors while serving as team captains. Workman was the only Panther on the team to play in two NCAA Tournaments, having played on the 1995 team that also was nationally ranked.

Junior middle hitter Jodi DeVries led the Missouri Valley with a .325 hitting percentage and also placed 11th with a 1.00 block average. She was instrumental in UNI's success down the stretch, hitting over .400 in the final two months of the season.

Sophomore Jeni Schneckloth was a solid performer, ranking second on the team in hitting percentage, third in blocks, and fourth in kills and digs.

Sophomore Maya Hirsch recorded nine kills, 12 digs and five blocks while playing in 23 games.

UNI again ranked among the national leaders in attendance, finishing 13th as it averaged averaged 1,510 in nine home dates. The Panthers' 2,057 fans for the Bradley match on Nov. 17 was the largest home crowd since 2,199 gathered in the West Gym in 1994 for a match with Iowa State.

PANTHER TRADITION

Team Success

In 17 years of Gateway and Missouri Valley Conference competition, Northern Iowa has posted 20 or more victories 14 times, captured seven conference titles and appeared in six NCAA Tournaments and three N.I.V.C. Tournaments. The Panthers have compiled a 347-82 overall mark in the last 13 years, 158-22 in conference play, and have reached the national top 25 in 1995 and '98.

Individual Honors

Conference and region honors have become commonplace for Northern Iowa volleyball players. In the past 14 years, the Panthers have had 50 all-conference selections, including five league players of the year and 27 first team selections. Seven Panthers have been voted to the all-district or all-region team and Coach Iradje Ahrabi-Fard has been named conference Coach of the Year five times and Region Coach of the Year once.

Excellence in the Classroom

Three Northern Iowa players have been named Academic All-Americans a total of six times. Mary Bernhardt was a three-time First Team Academic All-American from 1985-87 while Kate Galer was a First Team pick in 1996 after earning Third Team honors the previous season. Kris Schroeder was honored on the Second Team in 1989. Since the Missouri Valley Conference instituted its academic all-conference squad in 1992, Northern Iowa has had 18 selections to the first team, including five a year ago.

Great Fans

The Panthers have consistently ranked among the national leaders in attendance in recent years. The 1998 home attendance average of 1,510 ranked 13th in the nation. The friendly confines of the West Gym have helped the Panthers to a phenomenal 99-5 record at home in the '90s, including a 50-match home winning streak from 1992-96, which ranks fourth in NCAA history.
