Welcome to "Taste of Postville" '99

The community of Postville, along with the Chamber of Commerce and the "Taste of Postville" committee welcomes you to the second annual "Taste of Postville." The event will open with a parade of flags representing the 21 nations represented in the Postville community. There will also be an American flag and an Iowa flag in the parade.

About 20 food booths are serving delicacies from such countries as the Philippines, Mexico, Ukraine, Russia, just to name a few. There will also be all-American favorites including cream puffs, ice cream, potato pancakes, deer meat, pies and more.

Entertainment is for kids of all ages and there will be games and prizes for the little tykes. The junior class post-prom committee will sponsor games for older kids such as a cookie walk, basketball toss and dunk tank. "Taste of Postville" is sure to provide an international tour, complete with delicious food, diverse music and entertainment from a variety of cultures.

Cultural Kaleidoscope: The art, music and culture of Russia presented by Sergei Shapoval, who will be dressed in traditional Russian folk costume. The presentation includes a slide presentation, video, traditional folk dance, folk instruments and audience participation in folk dancing.

Nordic Players: Known for providing a good variety of music including old-time, country, western and vocal. The group consists of five members who perform on violin, guitar and keyboard.

Magic Show: Local magician Nathan Suckow will dazzle the audience with his repertoire of mysterious tricks.

Balalaika Ensemble: Russian music and dance.

Jewish Accordion: Traditional accordion music by Vivian Montgomery.

The Garage Band: Local members Eric Johnson, Pat Dougherty and Kristi Brockway will entertain the crowd with a wide range of tunes.

Los Muchacos de Norbert: Mexican band who performs Tex-Mex, Cubias and Norteño and Country. From Muscatine County the group is headed by Norberto Ibarra, Jr.

Distorted Eyes: A rock band who perform a variety of styles. Local members are Bruce Day, Josh Martin and Nate Stee.
