Graduate Council Meeting
March 23, 2017

Present: Beall, Berendzen, Calderon, Cutter, Edmister, Fontana, Igou, Juby, Ostapyuk, Pohl, Rod-Welch, Ross, & Schwieger.
Absent: Al-Mabuk, Dhanwada, & Isakson.
Chair Pohl called the meeting to order at 3:30 p.m.
There was a motion to approve the minutes of the March 9 meeting. The motion passed.

Graduate College Reports:
• Cutter reminded the group that the Annual Graduate Faculty Meeting is on Thursday, April 27. The program will start at 3 p.m. The general theme is educational value of graduate students coming to a comprehensive university. Both graduate students and coordinators will speak at the event. Everyone is encouraged to attend.
• Schwieger mentioned that the first Annual Graduate Student Visit Day is on Friday, March 31. Campus tours and department visits have been arranged for prospective students. There will be a graduate student panel, and lunch at the Piazza dining center. Twenty eight (28) students are coming from a variety of programs, including communication studies, women and gender studies, music, speech language pathology, and curriculum and instruction. The registration will start at 8:30 a.m. in Scholar Space. Department visits will start after 1 p.m.
• The UNI Graduate Student Symposium is on Tuesday, April 4. There are 27 poster presentations from multiple disciplinary areas, starting at 11 a.m. Also, there are 7 creative performances (12-2:30 p.m., Great Reading Room, Seerley Hall) and 33 oral presentations (1-4 p.m., Maucker Union) on various topics. There will be special guests speaking at the program, including President Nook and an alumni panel. The alumni panel will share their UNI experiences and tell how their graduate degrees have helped them promote the public good. Ellen Neuhaus from Library will speak on UNI Scholar Works. Everyone is encouraged to publicize the event to their departmental colleagues and students.
• The first alumni issue of the UNI Graduate College News is now being finalized.
