PERSPECTIVES ON IOWA’S DECLINING FLORA AND FAUNA
A SYMPOSIUM
Presented at the 92nd session of the Iowa Academy of Science
Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa, 18 April, 1980

Introduction
Farrar, D.R. ................................................................. 1

The Forest Resources of Iowa in 1980
Thomson, G.W., and H.G. Hertel ................................. 2

Iowa Prairie — An Endangered Ecosystem
Smith, D.D. ................................................................. 7

Iowa’s Wetlands
Bishop, R.A. ................................................................. 11

Iowa’s Waters and Fishes: A Century and a Half of Change
Menzel, B.W. ................................................................. 17

Population Trends Among Iowa’s Amphibians and Reptiles
Christiansen, J.L. .......................................................... 24

Iowa’s Avifauna: Changes in the Past and Prospects for the Future
Dinsmore, J.J. ................................................................. 28

Iowa’s Mammal Fauna: An Era of Decline
Bowles, J.B. ................................................................. 38

Perspectives on Preservation: History, Present Status, and Future Needs
Roosa, D.M. ................................................................. 43

Abstracts of papers, 93rd session of the Iowa Academy of Science, Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, April 24, 25, 1981