PANTHER VOLLEYBALL

TEAM SUCCESS

In 25 years of Gateway and Missouri Valley Conference competition, UNI has posted 20 or more victories 22 times, captured 14 conference titles, and appeared in 12 NCAA Tournaments and three NIVC Tournaments. UNI advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament three times since 1999. In 2002, the Panthers went in as the number four seed in the entire tournament -- #1 in the East Region -- hosting the first two rounds and defeating Wisconsin-Milwaukee and Missouri. UNI finished the year ranked sixth in the nation by the AVCA. UNI has compiled a 569-129 mark over the last 21 years, 292-41 in conference play, and has been ranked in the nation's top 25 in 1995, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2004, with a high ranking of sixth in both 2002 and 2003. UNI's streak of 66 consecutive conference wins from 1997-2001 is the fourth-best in NCAA history.

HOME COURT DOMINANCE

The Panthers moved into their new on-campus home, the McLeod Center, in their final regular season match of 2006. A record crowd of 5,522 saw UNI post a 3-0 win over Bradley on Nov. 18 of last year, marking the first athletic event in the new facility. UNI's former home court, the West Gym, was retired on Nov., 7, 2006, with the Panthers compiling an overall record of 284-37 in 27 seasons -- including a phenomenal 189-12 record since 1990, with 10 undefeated home seasons. UNI has posted two of the 10 longest home court winning streaks in NCAA volleyball history -- a 50-match streak from 1992-96 that is tied for ninth, and a 74-match streak from 1997-2004 that is the second-longest ever. In addition, the Panthers consistently have ranked among the national leaders in attendance, including averaging more than 1,700 fans per match in 2006.

EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

Five UNI players have been named Academic All-Americans a total of nine times. Mary Bernhardt was a three-time First Team CoSIDA Academic All-American from 1985-87, while Kate Galer was a first team pick in 1996 after earning third team honors the previous season. Jill Arganbright earned second team accolades in 2002 and was a first team choice in 2003, and teammate Molly O'Brien was a second-team selection in 2003. Kris Schroeder was honored on the second team in 1989. Since the Missouri Valley Conference instituted its academic all-conference squad in 1992, UNI has had 37 selections to the first team, including 19 in the last seven years.

INDIVIDUAL HONORS

Conference, region and national honors have become commonplace for UNI players. During the past 22 years, the Panthers have had 83 all-conference selections -- including 50 first-team choices -- and nine league Players of the Year. Molly O'Brien was the first ever Missouri Valley Conference player to earn MVC Player of the Year honors three straight seasons, from 2001-2003. Sixteen Panthers have been voted to the all-district or all-region team. Setter Shannon Perry became UNI's first ever all-American in 1999 when she was voted to the AVCA's second team, while Molly O'Brien earned the same honor in 2002. Head coach Bobbi Petersen was named National Coach of the Year by her peers in 2002, while former head coach Iradge Ahrabi-Fard earned the award in 1999. Petersen also was named Central Region Coach of the Year in 2001 and 2002.

POSTSEASON PLAY

The Panthers have played in the NCAA tournament 12 times of the past 21 seasons, with three NIVC appearances during that stretch, as well. UNI has advanced as far as the NCAA's Sweet 16 three times since 1999. In 2002, the Panthers went into the NCAA tournament as the #1 seed in the East Region. In its 12 trips to the NCAA tournament, UNI has posted 11 wins, advancing to at least the second round eight times.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

The Panthers have become a steady fixture in the NCAA Top 25 during recent years. In fact, UNI was ranked at least one week in the AVCA national rankings from 1998 through 2004, and have been ranked in the organization's preseason poll four of the past seven years. The Panthers were ranked as high as sixth in the nation in both 2002 and 2003.

CENTENNIAL SUCCESS

The Missouri Valley Conference celebrated its 100th year of existence in 2006, and eight people with UNI ties were named to the MVC All-Centennial Volleyball Team. Players named to the team were setter Jill Arganbright (2000-03), setter Kara Galer (1992-95), outside hitter Kate Galer (1993-96), outside hitter and current UNI assistant coach Kim McCaffrey Davis (1997-2001), middle blocker Molly O'Brien (2000-03), and setter Shannon Perry (1996-99). In addition, former UNI coach Irdage Ahrabi-Fard (1981-96, 1998-2000) was voted as the team's coach. With seven players on the 21-person team, UNI had the most members of any Valley school, and O'Brien was the leading vote-getter in online fan voting.

MEDIA COVERAGE

For the fifth straight season, UNI will have many of its volleyball matches aired live on radio. For the third straight year, KWLO 1300 AM (Star 1330) will broadcast Panther volleyball and women's basketball. In addition, both College Sports Television and Fox Sports Midwest have televised Missouri Valley Conference matches live from Cedar Falls.

MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE

Fresh off a centennial celebration in 2006-07, the Missouri Valley Conference begins its second centennial as a leader in college athletics and is the nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In the league's first 100 seasons, 32 members combined for 27 national championships, while 56 Valley student-athletes captured NCAA individual titles. In addition, Valley student-athletes and coaches earned 50 National Player or Coach of the Year honors in their respective sports. And the league had a myriad of student-athletes who collected All-America honors and earned national academic distinction in The Valley's first century.

The Missouri Valley Conference continues to lead by example as one of college athletics' most progressive conferences. The Valley emphasizes the importance of the student-athlete and is aggressive in its approach to provide opportunities for its member institutions.

While the success of men's basketball has received the greatest attention, the overall performance of league teams in virtually every sport continues to raise the national profile of the conference.

In volleyball, for the first time in league history, two teams advanced to the second round of the NCAA Volleyball Tournament in the same year as conference champ UNI and tournament runner-up Missouri State advanced with 3-1 victories in opening-round play. The Panthers defeated Big South champion Winthrop and Missouri State defeated Arkansas of the Southeastern Conference.

Based in St. Louis since 1985, the league is assertive in its approach to hosting NCAA basketball championship events, operating a revenue-producing in-house television network, bidding out the right to play host to sport championships and landing title sponsorships for those events.

The seeds for this vision were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who met at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

Indeed, the inclusion of women's programs under The Valley banner has provided a boost. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference -- which began in 1982 -- merged with the Missouri Valley Conference and was unveiled as part of the new conference on July 1, 1992.

And while the inclusion of women's sports under a comprehensive athletic umbrella is a recent development in the league's storied history, over the years, Valley student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the league's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers.

In fact, The Valley began honoring that tradition in the summer of 1997, when the conference began its athletics Hall of Fame. Hersey Hawkins of Bradley, Larry Bird of Indiana State, Wes Unseld of Louisville, Coach Henry Iba of Oklahoma State, Dave Stallworth of Wichita State, Ed Macauley of Saint Louis, and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati were members of the initial induction class. Currently, more than 30 former players, coaches and alums dot the league's Hall of Fame.

Men's basketball, perhaps, has the league's most storied tradition with the likes of Hall of Famers Bird and Robertson, but The Valley has also produced national-caliber student-athletes in its other sponsored sports. In 2001, Missouri State's Jackie Stiles became the first Valley woman to earn the Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the nation's top female collegiate student-athlete. In the sport of track and field, Indiana State's Holli Hyche captured seven national sprint titles in the early 1990s, Southern Illinois' Darrin Plab won back-to-back NCAA outdoor high jump titles in 1991 and 1992, and SIU's Brittany Riley became the World record holder in the weight throw in 2007. In the fall of 1997, Creighton's Johnny Torres was named the collegiate male soccer player of the year for a second-straight year, while SMU's Luchi Gonzalez (2001) and Tulsa's Ryan Pore (2004) have also earned a National Player of the Year honor in men's soccer. Meanwhile league member Wichita State has produced three national collegiate players of the year in baseball, including Joe Carter (1981), Phil Stephenson (1982) and Darren Dreifort (1993).

From its early beginning to its current standing on the map of college athletics, The Valley will always continue to be proactive in its approach.

League members include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, the University of Evansville, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, Missouri State University, the University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University, and Wichita State University. Affiliate men's soccer members include Eastern Illinois University and Western Kentucky University.

PANTHERS ON THE RADIO

Once again this season, UNI volleyball will be broadcast on KWLO 1330 AM (Star 1330). KWLO, with a coverage area of most of eastern and northeastern Iowa, will air at least 12 UNI volleyball matches, plus any postseason action the Panthers participate in. This is the fifth straight year that UNI volleyball can be heard live on the air, making Panther volleyball one of the few teams in the Midwest to have a live commercial radio home.

THE COACHES

BOBBI PETERSEN
Head Coach
Eighth Year

When thinking about the tradition-filled history of UNI volleyball, few names jump out like Bobbi Petersen's. A former standout on the court for UNI – and arguably the greatest player in the school's history – she has continued her connection with the purple and old gold as both an assistant coach, and as head coach. Under her guidance, she has taken UNI volleyball from its usual standard of excellence to a tier with the nation's elite programs.

Now in her eighth year as the Panthers head coach, Petersen has posted an impressive 181-50 record (.784) at the helm of UNI's program, with four Missouri Valley Conference titles and two NCAA Sweet 16 appearances to her credit. She ranks in the top 10 of Division I coaches in winning percentage (.784), with the Panthers winning 20 or more matches in six of her seven seasons at the helm. Last year, she was honored as Missouri Valley Conference coach of the year, after piloting the Panthers to a 28-8 mark (16-2 in MVC matches) and the second round of the NCAA tournament.

Last year marked a return to the top of the Missouri Valley Conference standings, which is a familiar location for UNI. The Panthers have claimed seven of the last nine MVC conference tournament championships – and accompanying NCAA tournament bids – while winning more than 20 matches for nine straight seasons. UNI reeled off a stretch of 19 wins in 20 matches at one point during last year. UNI defeated Winthrop in the first round of the NCAA tournament, marking the sixth straight time the Panthers have won at least their first-round NCAA match. UNI's season ended with a loss at top-ranked and eventual national champion Nebraska.

Last year was not the first time Petersen had been honored with coaching accolades by her peers. She was named the AVCA National Coach of the Year in 2002 along with earning her second consecutive AVCA Central Region Coach of the Year award, after leading the Panthers to a 34-3 mark and a top four national seed in the NCAA tournament.

Injuries and inexperience did not stop the 2005 Panthers from posting their eighth straight season of 20 or more wins. Three players expected to be key contributors each saw time on the sideline due to various ailments. However, with just one senior on the roster, UNI continued to grow and mature with each match. The Panthers also posted wins against a pair of NCAA tournament teams.

In 2004, with a young squad, Petersen guided UNI to its seventh consecutive season of 20+ victories, and a second-place tie in the Missouri Valley Conference standings. Playing its usual rigorous schedule, Petersen saw UNI post a season-best nine-match winning streak midway through the season, which marked the 12th consecutive season that Panther volleyball has won at least nine matches in a row during the season.

Petersen led UNI to its sixth consecutive MVC championship in 2003, as the Panthers defeated Missouri State on the Bears' home court to win the title. UNI finished with a 28-6 record and was ranked as high as sixth in the nation during the 2003 campaign. The Panthers advanced to the NCAA tournament's second round, dropping a close decision at eventual Final Four participant Minnesota.

Petersen took the Panthers to new heights in 2002 as they were ranked sixth in the nation – the highest ranking in school history – while entering into the NCAA Tournament as the number four seed. Along the way, UNI faced some of the toughest teams in the country, including Stanford, the defending national champion in the first match of the season. The Panthers came up big with wins over #3 Florida, #7 UCLA, #8 Pepperdine, #20 Minnesota and #20 Missouri.

In 2001, Petersen led UNI to a 31-2 mark, as the Panthers knocked off third-ranked Wisconsin, #19 Notre Dame and downed Minnesota in an epic five-game marathon in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Panthers eventually fell to #1 Long Beach State in the NCAA regional semi-finals. She also became the first person in conference history to win a league championship as a player (1986 and '87) and head coach when UNI beat Missouri State in the 2001 Valley Tournament final and Southern Illinois in 2002.

As a player at UNI from 1986-89, the former Bobbi Becker was a three-time first team all-conference selection and two-time first team all-region pick. Although it has been more than 15 years since she last donned a Panther uniform, her name still appears on UNI's top 10 lists in numerous statistical categories.

Her 40 kills in a 1989 match against Illinois State not only is tops in UNI history, but also stands as the all-time Missouri Valley/Gateway Conference record. A native of Dike, Iowa, Petersen compiled 1,611 career kills and 1,457 digs during her career. In 1992, she was voted UNI's Gateway Conference Volleyball Athlete of the Decade. In 2006, she was further honored by being voted to the Missouri Valley Conference All-Centennial volleyball team.

Petersen replaced the legendary Iradge Ahrabi-Fard as head coach when he retired in 2001. It marked the second time she had replaced Ahrabi-Fard; she served as interim head coach in 1997, going 18-9 while he was serving as a consultant to USA Volleyball.

Petersen spent six seasons as a Panther assistant prior to her appointment as permanent head coach. In that capacity, she was responsible for nearly all aspects of the Panther program, including recruiting, camps, scheduling, fund-raising and scouting.

Petersen earned her bachelor's degree in therapeutic recreation in 1990 and her master's from UNI in physical education in 1992. She served as a graduate assistant with the Panthers in 1990 and, after completing her master's, was employed as a therapeutic recreation specialist in Fort Smith, Ark., and Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Petersen and her husband, Duane, reside in Dike with their two sets of twin daughters, Baylee and Sydney (7), and Jadyn and Payton (1).

ASSISTANT COACHES

Assistant Coach
Fourth Season

KALANI MAHI

In his fourth year on Bobbi Petersen's coaching staff is Kalani Mahi. Mahi has a wealth of collegiate and international coaching experience. Prior to joining the Panthers staff in 2004, Mahi served as head coach at the University of Oklahoma in the rugged Big 12 Conference, and improved the Sooners' record each of his final three years.

He also has previous experience in the Missouri Valley Conference, serving as head coach at Bradley University (1995-98), where he guided the Braves to three consecutive Missouri Valley Conference tournament appearances and posted the school's most ever wins for a rookie coach. Mahi has also served as an assistant coach at Bradley (1992-95) and Illinois State (1998-2000).

A graduate of Graceland University in Lamoni, Iowa, Mahi was a collegiate club All-American, as well as team captain for the Yellowjackets. He later played and coached professionally overseas. Since 1986, Mahi has worked for USA Volleyball National Development Camps in Lamoni, Iowa. He has a USA Volleyball Coaching Accreditation (CAP) Level II Certification.

Mahi received his bachelor's degree from Graceland in 1987 in business administration and computer information systems. He received his master's in health, physical education and recreation from the University of Mississippi in 1990.

A native of Kaneohe, Hawaii, Mahi and his wife, Chris, have three children, Tayah Kealohilani'ikamahinala'ila'i (7), Halia aloha'onapuamaeole (4), and Nohea Henohea'makama'ikawaileiula (2).

Assistant Coach
Sixth Season

KIM DAVIS

Former Panther standout Kim Davis is in her sixth year on head coach Bobbi Petersen's coaching staff.

A native of Carroll, Iowa, the former Kim McCaffrey was one of the best players in UNI history, having been named to the Missouri Valley Conference All-Centennial Volleyball Team in 2006. She helped lead UNI to its second NCAA Sweet 16 appearance as a senior in 2001, earning first team all-conference honors for the third time and being selected to the All-Central Region squad.

A team captain, Davis was one of three Panthers to collect 400 kills in 2001 with 410. She also led the team in digs with 379. Davis ranked in the top 10 in the Missouri Valley Conference in kill average (3.50), dig average (3.24) and service ace average (0.39).

She finished her career with 1,272 kills, at that time good for fifth on UNI's career chart, and 1,015 digs, placing her sixth. She also was only the fourth person in school history to go over the 1,000 mark in both career categories.

In the classroom, Davis was a two-time first team MVC scholar-athlete selection. She and her husband, Shane, have a son, Camden, born March 24, 2006.

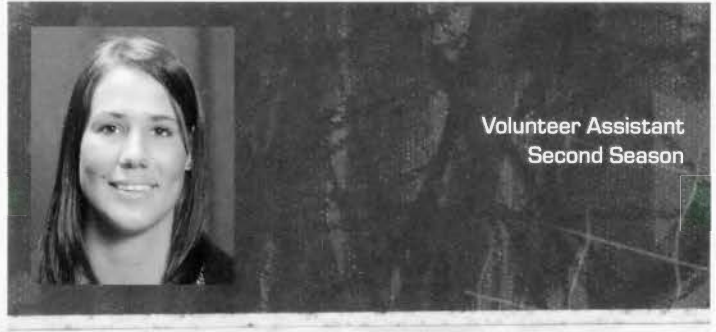

Administrative Assistant
Sixth Season

MICHELLE COULTER

Michelle Coulter is in her sixth year as an administrative assistant to the volleyball program. Coulter coordinates team travel, match personnel, merchandise, and other behind the scenes duties.

She was a four-year letterwinner for the Panthers as a defensive specialist from 1992-95. She racked up 430 digs over her career, and UNI posted a cumulative record of 98-19 during her career, with two NCAA tournament appearances.

Coulter is a 1996 graduate of UNI with a degree in Therapeutic Recreation. A native of Dike, Iowa, she and her husband, Todd, have three children, Broden (8), Avery (6) and Brielle (2), and live in Dike.

Volunteer Assistant
Second Season

STEPH GERMANN

Former UNI standout middle blocker Stephanie Germann is in her second season as a volunteer assistant for the Panthers.

Germann played for the Panthers from 2001-05. Her senior season, she earned first-team All-Missouri Valley Conference honors, averaging 2.62 kills and 1.20 blocks per game, while hitting .281. She ended her career ranked in the top 20 all-time at UNI in both block assists, total blocks and blocks per game.

A native of LeMars, Iowa, Germann received her bachelor's degree from UNI in 2005 in psychology, and is currently pursuing a master's degree in mental health counseling. In addition to her work with the volleyball team, she also works at the Cedar Falls Recreation Center. She plans to become a licensed counselor upon graduation and hopes to work at a university counseling center.

Athletic Trainer

MEGAN BRADY

Megan Brady is the women's volleyball athletic trainer for UNI. She joined the UNI athletic staff in 2001.

Prior to coming to Cedar Falls, Brady was an assistant athletic trainer at Morningside College during the 2000-01 athletic year, responsible for athletic training coverage of all women's sports.

Brady graduated in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in Health, Physical Education and Recreation from Briar Cliff College in Sioux City, Iowa. She received her master's in athletic administration from Idaho State University in 2000.

Heading into fall camp in 2005 and 2006, the University of Northern Iowa volleyball team had major question marks. Whether it was heavy graduation losses, a variety of illnesses and injuries, or unproven players having to step into the lineup – UNI found itself having to remake its team on the fly.

Things look different this season.

With five starters returning, as well as five fifth-year seniors on the roster, UNI has high hopes of defending its 2006 Missouri Valley Conference championship. After a two-year absence from the top of the conference standings – and accompanying NCAA tournament bids – the Panthers were back on top of the league a year ago. And there's good reason to think UNI will be one of the favorites to repeat as Valley champs.

Eighth-year head coach Bobbi Petersen, who ranks ninth in the NCAA among active coaches for winning percentage, thinks the experience of this year's team – and particularly, what the group has gone through to get to this point – is the team's biggest asset.

"This group has been through a lot," Petersen said.

"They have been through the grind and they know what it takes to be successful. It hasn't always come easy, and I think that is a huge motivating factor for this group. They are willing to do what it takes, and I know they're very excited about getting this season underway to see what we can achieve."

By posting 28 wins a year ago, the Panthers won at least 20 matches for the ninth straight year (and 20th in the last 22 seasons). In addition, UNI advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament before losing to eventual national champion Nebraska. That was the team's seventh NCAA berth in the past nine seasons, and marked the sixth straight time that the team has won at least its opening match.

"Winning the conference is always our goal," Petersen said. "We want to play in the NCAA tournament again. After missing it for two years, last year's team – particularly our upperclassmen – really had an appreciation for how hard you have to work to make that happen. It was rewarding for them to get there, and I know they want to get back again this season."

Below is a breakdown of the team's returning players as well as the newcomers that will make up the 2007 edition of the UNI volleyball team.

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

The past few years, the Panthers have been one of the top blocking teams in the country, and last year was no exception. In addition to leading the Missouri Valley Conference in blocking, UNI ended 2006 ranked 13th nationally with 3.30 blocks per game. Four players averaged near or above 1.00 blocks per game, with three of them returning.

"We are returning two starters, both with a wealth of experience," Petersen said. "We lose an all-conference player in Trista Humpal, but with Brazy and Ashten back, we feel very good about their ability to produce. We also have a couple younger players that we think can develop into outstanding middles."

The "Brazy" that Petersen referred to is second-team All-Missouri Valley Conference selection Danielle Brazda. A four-year starter, Brazda led the Valley and ranked 20th in the nation in blocking a year ago with 1.54 bpg. Brazda enters her senior season with 500 career block assists, and needs just 154 more to pass former All-American Molly O'Brien for both UNI and Missouri Valley Conference records in that category. She was also voted one of the team's captains for the upcoming season.

Danielle Brazda

"Brazy has been a wall up there for us blocking-wise for three years," Petersen said. "She's one of the best in the country in that. Where I'm so pleased with her, though, is her continued improvement. She continues to work on her offensive game and her decision making with her shots. She's always been an emotional leader for us, and with her being a captain, she'll need to lead by example both on and off the court. I know she can't wait to get started."

Stelken, a junior, has played a variety of positions for the Panthers her first two seasons, including quite a bit at right side. This year, with the graduation of Humpal, she steps into the middle blocker role full time. She averaged 2.32 kills and 0.97 blocks per game a year ago, while hitting .251.

"Ashten is the player I'm most excited about seeing perform," Petersen said. "She was our MVP for the spring, both in her conditioning level and her improvement in the middle. She's the best offensive middle we have and has the potential to be one of the best middles in the league. She's poised for a big year."

Two freshmen will vie for playing time behind the two veterans, in Sarah Oexmann and Michelle Burow. Oexmann redshirted last year, after suffering a torn ACL in preseason camp last year, but has been cleared to play. In addition to missing all of last fall, she missed much of spring practice. Burow is a true freshman from Lincoln, Neb. Petersen sees both players with the potential to contribute.

"Sarah is extremely physical, and has the potential to be a very good player, but will just need time to adjust to the pace of the game after her injury. Michelle is a great pure athlete and is the quickest and smoothest moving middle we have," Petersen said.

PIN HITTERS

If middle blocker is a position of strength for UNI, then the pin hitter position is one of strength, depth and experience. The three players that saw the majority of swings on the outside all return, and that trio – Laura Rowen, Amy Sampson and Shannon Aschoff – combined for nearly 900 kills a year ago.

"The thing I like about our pin hitters is their versatility," Petersen said. "Each of them can hit from either of the pins, right or left. We can move people around and not lose much if anything offensively. I really like our options here."

Laura Rowen

Leading the way is 2006 first team all-conference performer Rowen. She led the team in kills (457) and attacks (1274 – a UNI record), while also averaging 0.37 service aces and 3.02 digs per game. She posted 11 double-doubles a year ago (kills-digs), including a match with 23 kills and 23 digs (vs. Clemson, Aug. 26). She also posted a career-best 26 kills against Alabama Sept. 9.

"Row is a tremendous all-around player," Petersen said. "Her biggest weapon is her big arm and physical presence at the net. She's battled some physical problems during her career, but when she's healthy, she's one of the best hitters in the league. I look for her to help bring our younger hitters along."

Sampson, a junior, finished second on the team a year ago, averaging 2.66 kills per game. She had eight matches of double-digit kills, including a career-high 18 against Clemson Aug. 26.

"Amy has always had a very powerful attack," Petersen said. "She has a big arm and the best variety of shots of anyone on our team. I look for her to take on a bigger role for us this season. She has to continue to improve in the back row so she can be an all-around player for us."

Aschoff, who was named to the Valley's all-freshman team in 2006, averaged 2.51 kills a year ago. She was playing some of her best volleyball at the end of the year, including recording 12 kills with just one hitting error against Nebraska in the second round of the NCAA tournament.

"Shannon made big contributions as a true freshman," Petersen said. "She made great strides physically in the spring, and I look for her role to expand even more this year. She is very coachable and very smart, and is willing to do what it takes to improve."

A pair of redshirt freshmen also have the potential to see the floor, according to Petersen. Beth Discher and Kali Karsten each sat out last year to learn the UNI volleyball system and each benefited from that experience.

"Both Beth and Kali have come a long way in the last year," Petersen said. "Beth is one of the best jumpers on the team, and her arm swing has gotten so much better. She also has made great strides in the backcourt. Kali is very, very quick and a great natural athlete. She continues to get better all the time."

SETTERS

Back for her third season as the Panthers starting setter is the team's other captain, senior Kristin Belzung. A first-team All-Missouri Valley Conference selection a year ago, she averaged 11.83 assists per game, 2.30 digs per game, and a team-best 0.40 aces per game. She also posted a .321 attack percentage.

Kristin Belzung

Against Clemson last year (Aug. 26), Belzung became just the 12th UNI player ever to record a triple-double, with 11 kills, 20 digs and a career-best 64 assists. She could move into as high as third place on UNI's all-time assist list by the time her career is over. She missed spring practice after having shoulder surgery in January, but has been fully cleared to play for fall camp.

"Belz is the best all-around player on our team," Petersen said. "She takes control out there and runs our team, like a good setter should. As far as running an offense, I truly believe Belz is one of the best in the conference. She makes great reads and gets the ball where it needs to be. I wouldn't trade her for anyone."

Backing up Belzung is redshirt freshman Jessa Benson. At 6-2, Benson's height allows her the ability to be an effective attacker and blocker. The redshirt year, and especially the spring, were keys for Benson's development.

"With Belz out in the spring with the shoulder, Jessa was the only setter we had, and she got almost all the reps," Petersen said. "She learned a lot about the game and herself. She also made huge strides physically and continues to improve all the time."

True freshman Bre Payton, from Columbus High School in nearby Waterloo, will also be training in the setter position and Petersen is excited to see what she can do.

"Bre was a great multi-sport athlete in high school, and now that she can concentrate solely on volleyball, I'm really excited about her potential," Petersen said. "She has a bright future."

DEFENSIVE SPECIALISTS

The one position that has yet to be set entering fall camp is libero. Gone to graduation is the team's all-time dig leader, four-year starter Stephanie May (1570 digs), along with reserve Patricia Dietz, who holds the school's single-game dig record (45).

Three other players return and UNI welcomes a pair of newcomers, each of whom has the potential to see the floor, according to Petersen. "This position is wide open," Petersen said. "I look for great competition from all our players. Everyone has the potential to see the floor. It's all going to be based on what we see and how they progress as time goes on."

Seniors Brittany Bakker and Melissa Schmitz are the veterans of the group. As an on the court contribution in 2006, Bakker saw action in all 128 games, averaging 1.78 digs per game. She reached double-digits in digs six times, with a high of 12 on several occasions. Schmitz, who has also trained as an outside hitter during her time at UNI, will move exclusively to the back row. She saw action in 25 games a year ago.

"Britt is the most experienced player we have in the back row, and you can't make up for what experience gives you," Petersen said. "She saw a lot of action as a junior. Mel is one of the best passers on the team. If she concentrates and dedicates herself to being a good back row player she can help us."

Also returning for UNI, after a redshirt season a year ago, is sophomore Kayla Grunder. Grunder played in 35 games as a freshman, averaging 1.54 digs per game, before sitting out last year due to injury.

"Kayla has an unbelievable defensive attitude, and goes and gets balls," Petersen said. "Her key is to whether she can stay fully healthy. If she can, she'll compete to be on the court."

A pair of newcomers dot the roster, in Chelsea Saunders and Ellie Blankenship. Saunders was the state of Texas 5A Defensive Player of the Year a year ago, averaging 4.5 digs per game. Blankenship was a multi-sport star at Cedar Rapids (Iowa) Kennedy High School.

"We're looking for Chelsea to come in and make an impact on our team," Petersen said. "She's a very quick and fast athlete and played for an outstanding club team. We see the ability for her to become a very good player, it's just a matter of how quickly she can adjust to the speed of the college game. Ellie understands the game of volleyball and has great instincts and reactions on the court. She has a great deal of potential."

SCHEDULE

Petersen annually puts together a national-caliber schedule, and this year is no exception. In the first three weeks of the season, the Panthers will face no less than seven teams that qualified for the 2006 NCAA tournament.

For the first time since 1990, UNI opens its season at home, hosting the UNI Invitational in the McLeod Center. Wright State, Western Michigan and Kentucky come to the Cedar Valley Aug. 24-25.

The Panthers then hit the road for consecutive tough tournaments. At the BYU tournament Aug. 31-Sept. 1, UNI will face three 2006 NCAA tournament teams in American, Wisconsin and the host Cougars. After returning home to face intrastate rival and NCAA qualifier Iowa State, UNI travels to Kansas State's tournament (Sept. 7-8) where it will face KSU, Arkansas and Fresno State.

This all leads up to an 18-game Missouri Valley Conference schedule, which kicks off Sept. 14 with a match at Missouri State. Last year, both UNI and MSU qualified for the NCAA tournament, and Wichita State and Creighton each won at least 20 matches. Petersen says the Valley will be even tougher this year.

"I think this will be the toughest Valley season I've ever been associated with," she says. "There are at least five teams that could win the league, and every team has the ability to knock off anyone else on a given night. You have to be ready to compete each time out or you're going to get beat."

This year's State Farm Missouri Valley Conference tournament, with the winner receiving an automatic bid to the 2007 NCAA tournament, will be hosted by Missouri State Nov. 23-24.

2006 REVIEW

SEASON IN REVIEW

Entering the 2006 season, UNI was anxious to get back to the event that it had missed the previous two years – the NCAA tournament.

With the return of five starters (plus the team's libero) from the 2005 squad – and the addition of a top 25 recruiting class – hopes were high for the Panthers to return to the top of the Missouri Valley Conference standings.

Despite not making the NCAA tournament field, the team was not short on talent and had posted a successful season in 2005. The Panthers were coming off their eighth straight season of at least 20 victories, and the preseason coaches poll picked UNI to win the league.

As preseason camp broke, the Panthers headed to Purdue's tournament to start the season, posting a pair of wins. Included was a 3-2 victory over Clemson, in which Kristin Belzung posted a triple double. After a road loss to Iowa State, UNI headed to Georgia Tech's tournament for four matches in two days. The Panthers posted wins over Georgia State, Mississippi State and Georgia, before suffering a 3-2 loss to the host Yellowjackets.

The Panthers opened their home season the next weekend with the UNI Invitational. After a tough 3-1 loss to Kansas State, the Panthers came back with back-to-back 3-2 wins over Alabama and 23-ranked Notre Dame. Against the Crimson Tide, UNI came back from 2-0 down to claim the victory, and rallied from a 2-1 deficit versus the Fighting Irish.

UNI then traveled to Rochester, Minn., for the "Border Battle" with the University of Minnesota. The Panthers played hard, but suffered a 3-1 loss to the Golden Gophers, and entered Missouri Valley Conference play with a 7-5 record.

After sweeping Bradley and posting a non-conference sweep of North Dakota State, UNI hit the road where it suffered a loss at Wichita State.

The next night, at Missouri State, may have been the turning point for the Panthers season. After falling down in a 2-0 hole against the Bears, UNI won the last three games – 15-13 in the fifth – to rally from a two games to none deficit for the second time in two weeks.

The victory over Missouri State started a string of eight straight wins, five of them by 3-0 counts, in MVC action. Wichita State stopped the winning streak with a 3-1 victory in the West Gym, but UNI then reeled off 11 straight wins, nine of them by 3-0 counts. The last regular season match was a 3-0 win over Bradley in UNI's new on-campus home, the McLeod Center, in front of 5,522 fans.

Included in that 11-match winning streak were a pair of 3-0 victories over Creighton and Missouri State in the 2006 State Farm Missouri Valley Conference tournament. That gave UNI its eighth MVC tournament title in the past eight seasons, and the corresponding berth in the NCAA tournament.

UNI was shipped to Lincoln, Neb., to face Winthrop in the first round. Winthrop came in with an 18-match winning streak of its own, but UNI was able to pull out the 3-1 win. The Panthers season came to an end the next night, as top-ranked and eventual national champion Nebraska won 3-0.

In addition to the conference championship, NCAA tournament berth, and a host of individual honors, the season was also marked by the closing of the West Gym as UNI's volleyball home. Over the past 27 seasons, the Panthers posted a 284-37 record in the venerable building, including 188-12 since 1990.

2006 TEAM NOTES

- Three UNI players -- junior setter Kristin Belzung, senior middle blocker Trista Humpal and junior outside hitter Laura Rowen -- earned first-team All-MVC honors, while junior middle blocker Danielle Brazda was a second-team all-conference pick. In addition, outside hitter Shannon Aschoff was named to the MVC All-Freshman team.
- The Panthers ended the season having won 11 of their last 12 matches and 19 of their last 21. Fourteen of those 19 wins, including both matches in the 2006 State Farm Missouri Valley Conference tournament, were by 3-0 counts.

- 2006 marked UNI's 12th appearance in the NCAA tournament, and first since 2003. The Panthers have an overall NCAA tournament record of 11-12. With the win over Winthrop in the first round, UNI has now won its NCAA first round match the last six times it has made the tournament, advancing to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1999, 2001 and 2002. The Panthers have lost their first round match just four times in their history.
- Since making its first NCAA tournament appearance in 1986, the Panthers have failed to make the NCAA tournament field just nine times. Three of those years UNI was selected to play in the now defunct National Invitational Volleyball Classic (NIVC), meaning that only six times in the last 21 years have the Panthers failed to make some sort of postseason play.
- 2006 was the second time UNI was sent to play in Lincoln, Neb., for the NCAA tournament. In 1987, the Panthers fell to the Huskers, 3-0 (15-9, 15-1, 15-6) in the first round. Current UNI head coach Bobbi (Becker) Petersen was an outside hitter on that UNI team.
- With its win over Drake Nov. 3, UNI reached the 20 win plateau for the ninth straight season. In fact, the Panthers have won at least 20 matches 20 of the last 22 years, having won 30 or more matches five times during that span. UNI's 28 wins this year are the most in a season since the 2003 team finished 28-6.
- UNI ranked 13th in the NCAA in blocking, averaging 3.30 blocks per game. UNI has ranked in the top 15 nationally each of the past four seasons in blocks per game. Junior Danielle Brazda ranked 20th in the NCAA in individual blocking, averaging 1.54 bpg., while senior Trista Humpal was 33rd in blocking at 1.47 bpg.

THE UNIVERSITY

THIS IS UNI

Building on a strong tradition of teacher education, the University of Northern Iowa has evolved into one of the finest comprehensive public universities in the country. UNI emphasizes excellence in undergraduate education and offers selected graduate programs at the master's, specialist's and doctoral levels.

UNI's heritage and philosophy place great value on providing a student-centered educational experience. The university offers a learning environment that is small enough to provide students with individualized attention, yet large enough to provide a variety of resources, including distinguished faculty. UNI's special combination of challenge and support is indeed a key ingredient of a "Students First" education.

Today, UNI offers more than 120 undergraduate majors. Outstanding academic programs, many of which are nationally-recognized for their excellence, have been established in the colleges of Business Administration, Education, Humanities and Fine Arts, Natural Sciences, and Social and Behavioral Sciences. In addition, UNI participates in the bachelor of liberal studies program offered by Iowa's Regent Universities and provides classes in centers around the state through the division of Continuing Education and Special Programs.

Recognized as the premier public undergraduate university in the state, UNI is experiencing an increasing demand for its high-quality programs. Enrollment at UNI was 12,260 students in the fall of 2006. Students come from every county in Iowa, and about 94 percent of UNI's undergraduate students are residents of Iowa upon enrollment.

The University of Northern Iowa was founded in 1876 as the Iowa State Normal School. It became Iowa State Teachers College in 1909. In 1961, the name was changed to State College of Iowa, and in 1967, the Iowa Legislature changed the status of the institution to that of a university under its present title.

FACTS & HIGHLIGHTS

- U.S. News and World Report ranks UNI in the top two among public comprehensive universities in the Midwest.
- Kiplinger Personal Finance magazine places us in the top 50 in the nation for best value in public colleges.
- The Education Trust (www.edtrust.org) named UNI first among peer institutions nationally for overall high performance in graduation rates.
- UNI prides itself on smaller class sizes that enhance faculty-student interaction and personalized instruction. Thirty-two percent of classes have fewer than 20 students, and 83 percent have fewer than 40 students.
- UNI students are actively involved with more than 200 student organizations, including special interest clubs, sororities and fraternities, religious groups and academic groups.
- UNI is the alma mater of NFL and Super Bowl MVP Kurt Warner, as well as U.S. Sen. Charles Grassley.
- The UNI Wellness/Recreation Center, attached to the north side of the UNI-Dome, features a climbing wall, two pools, a running track, weight and fitness rooms, and courts for basketball, volleyball and racquetball.

BENJAMIN ALLEN
University President

Benjamin J. Allen was named the ninth president of the University of Northern Iowa on April 28, 2006. President Allen assumed the duties of president at UNI on June 5, 2006.

Most recently, Dr. Allen was the Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost at Iowa State University and was responsible to the President for all aspects of the academic programs of Iowa State

Before joining the faculty at Iowa State University in 1979, Dr. Allen taught at Washington State University and was a Brookings Economics Policy Fellow in the Office of Transportation Regulatory Policy, U.S. Department of Transportation.

He served as chairman of the Department of Transportation and Logistics at Iowa State from 1984 to 1988. In 1988 Dr. Allen was named the first University Distinguished Professor in Business at Iowa State University.

From 1988 to 1990 he served as Director of the Midwest Transportation Center, a research consortium consisting of Iowa State University and The University of Iowa.

He was the Visiting McKinley Professor of Economics and Public Utilities at the University of Illinois during the 1986-87 academic year and also held the Oren Harris Chair in Transportation at the University of Arkansas during the 1990-91 academic year.

Ben and Pat Allen

Dr. Allen has also been a consultant for various private corporations and public agencies throughout his career. He served as Dean of the Iowa State University College of Business 1994-2000. During 2001-2002 he served as Interim Vice President for External Affairs.

He earned his bachelor degree in business economics from Indiana University, and both his master's and doctorate in economics from the University of Illinois.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR RICK HARTZELL

RICK HARTZELL
Director of Athletics

Now entering his ninth year as Director of Athletics at the University of Northern Iowa, Rick Hartzell has overseen unparalleled success and growth for the Panthers athletics program. He was named the university's fourth full-time director of athletics since joining the Division I ranks on August 9, 1999.

Take some time to talk to Hartzell, and his passion for UNI athletics – and college athletics in general – comes across loud and clear. His love for the Panthers should be no surprise, as he was a UNI student-athlete during the mid-70s, and was able to come back home in 1999 to lead his alma mater's athletic program into the 21st century. He also believes strongly in the "student" part of the term student-athlete, and understands the importance of shaping well-rounded individuals for a life after competitive athletics are over.

His dedication to the UNI athletics was rewarded this past June as he was named one of 29 winners of the AstroTurf AD of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA). Hartzell was honored by being the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) recipient for the central region.

This past year, UNI teams claimed four conference or regional championships. The Panthers posted a third place finish in last year's Missouri Valley Conference all-sports standings – their second highest finish. UNI's men's track and field finished ninth at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field championships this past March, its highest finish ever. The Panther volleyball team advanced to the second round of the 2006 NCAA tournament, while wrestling won its 22nd straight West Regional title and advanced six wrestlers to the NCAA championships. In addition, UNI's 431 student-athletes shined in the classroom, holding a combined spring cumulative grade point average of 3.00.

The list of individual and team athletic successes since Hartzell took over at UNI is long and distinguished. The football team has claimed three conference titles the past five seasons, and advanced to the NCAA FCS championship game in 2005. The men's basketball team won its first-ever Missouri Valley Conference championship in 2004, and made three straight NCAA tournament appearances – including at-large bids in both 2005 and 2006. UNI volleyball has won seven of the past nine conference championships, and made three appearances in the NCAA tournament's Sweet 16 during that span. Panther wrestling crowned its first Division I national champion in 2000, and has placed as high as 11th in the national tournament. Track and field and cross country have claimed numerous conference titles, including the last eight indoor men's crowns, and baseball made its first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 2001, winning the rugged MVC crown. In fact, no less than 10 sports have seen teams or individuals in postseason action since Hartzell came back to the Cedar Valley.

The success on the field has been a direct result of Hartzell's hiring of quality head coaches during his tenure, many with Iowa and UNI ties. Mark Farley (football), Bobbi Petersen (volleyball), Greg McDermott and Ben Jacobson (men's basketball), Brad Penrith (wrestling), Rick Heller (baseball), Sachin Kirtane (women's tennis) and Tanya Warren (women's basketball) are among the coaches that Hartzell has brought to UNI, with most garnering conference or regional championships and NCAA postseason appearances.

Off the field, UNI student-athletes have shined academically as well. UNI's overall student-athlete graduation rate is among the leaders in the Missouri Valley Conference and Gateway Football Conference. UNI's overall student-athlete cumulative grade point average has risen dramatically, to an impressive 3.0 after the spring 2007 semester for more than 400 student-athletes. The Panthers had numerous student-athletes that earned academic all-conference honors in 2006-07.

UNI's overall athletic success has been a constant under Hartzell. The Panthers have ranked in the top 100 of the U.S. Sports Academy Director's Cup standings six of the past eight seasons, including twice in the top 70. UNI is consistently among the top schools nationally in the all-sports rankings among those that sponsor FCS football.

Hartzell has been a key figure involved in several facility upgrades, including the development of the McLeod Center, which opened in November 2006. The McLeod Center houses the men's and women's basketball programs, and volleyball and wrestling teams. Another new aspect added to the McLeod Center is a panther statue that will be located west of the Eldon Miller Plaza.

In addition, Hartzell has overseen the effort to turn the UNI-Dome and McLeod Center into an economic development site for the Cedar Valley, by garnering concerts and other special events to campus. Other key fund-raising initiatives include the construction of a new football locker room, weight room and enhancements to the outdoor track. The Human Performance Center located to the north of the UNI-Dome will be completed this fall. The strength and conditioning center will be expanded as well.

Another key effort spearheaded by Hartzell was UNI's radio and television agreements. Panther football and men's basketball have local television contracts for TV with KFXA (Fox 28), and for radio with KXEL (1540 AM), each of which was renewed for multiple years in 2004. UNI women's basketball and volleyball is currently carried by KWLO (1330 AM) radio, and is one of the only schools in the Midwest to have a regular-season home for volleyball.

Hartzell has helped guide the university through the NCAA's certification process, and overseen the addition of women's soccer to varsity status. He was a key player in the recent cooperative merger with UNI's Health, Physical Education and Leisure Services (HPELS) department, bringing the athletic training and strength and conditioning programs under one umbrella with the university.

A past president of the Gateway Football Conference athletic directors, he is currently vice-president of the Missouri Valley Conference administrators. He also serves as chair of the MVC sportsmanship committee, as well as serving as a member of the officiating committee and the centennial celebration committee. He recently received the All-American Football Foundation's General Robert Neyland Outstanding Athletic Director Award.

In addition, Hartzell is a highly-respected NCAA Division I men's basketball official, having worked games for the ACC, Big Ten and Conference USA among other conferences, and officiated numerous NCAA tournament games. This past winter, Hartzell was named to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Rules Committee and will serve a four-year term.

Prior to being named at UNI, Hartzell had served as director of athletics at Bucknell since 1988, directing a Division I program with FCS football consisting of 28 sports. Prior to his appointment at Bucknell, he was Director of Athletics and Chairman of Physical Education and Recreation at the University of Maryland-Baltimore County from 1985-88, directing a 19-sport program which moved from Division II to Division I during his tenure.

Hartzell played football and baseball for the Panthers. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education and English from UNI in 1974, and his master's in educational administration in 1977. A native of Klemme, Iowa, he was a five-sport letterman at Klemme High School.

Hartzell's personal interests include reading, fitness, auto racing and spending time with family and friends. He has three children, Nate, who works for Young Plumbing and Heating in Waterloo; Amanda Hartzell Barkhurst, who owns and operates Centennial Stables in Waverly; and Jackson, who was born Jan. 16, 2007. Hartzell and his wife, the former Jill George, a Doctor of Chiropractic and owner of Hartzell Family Chiropractic in Waterloo, reside in rural Cedar Falls.

THE McLEOD CENTER

University of Northern Iowa
CENTER

After years of dreaming and planning, UNI opened its new home arena, the McLeod Center, in 2006. It serves as the home for the Panther volleyball, basketball and wrestling programs.

Construction began in the fall of 2004, and the building cost $26 million. It is attached to the south end of the UNI-Dome, and when combined with the Wellness and Recreation Center, it combines for a state-of-the-art athletic and recreation complex. Capacity in the building is more than 7,000, and it accommodates sports, concerts, exhibitions and other community events.

Named for the Clark and Mary McLeod Family, the McLeod Center provides a focal point for students, faculty, staff, alumni and the community to come together to cheer on the Panthers. It bolsters the university as a premier performance center, and ensures continued success and growth of UNI's student-athlete tradition.
