Sciences

1. Catalog Page: 105 (1994)
Present Program Title: Major in Social Science
2. Proposed restatement of the program as it should appear in the Catalog
(Delete: This major is available only to students taking Professional Core A or B. A student must select two areas of study, one of which should be her/his emphasis from the following departments Economics, Geography, History, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology and Anthropology.) Replace with: The M.A. program in Social Sciences is designed for individuals who have current teacher licensure and wish to enhance their content and curriculum knowledge in Social Sciences. The Graduate Record Examination (General Test) is not required for admission to the program. The Social Science M.A. is a non-thesis program consisting of 30 hours of credit which includes a 3-hr teaching seminar and a 3-hr research paper & project conducted in the final semester. Students will also take graduate level classes from the following content areas American Government, American History, Economics, Geography, Psychology, Sociology and World History. No more than 6 hours can be taken from any one content area. Additional information can be obtained from the graduate coordinator of Social Science, college of Social and Behavioral Sciences, or to the Dean of the Graduate college.
