GENERAL REGULATIONS.

1. Conversation is not permitted in the library, as it results in confusion.
2. During their vacant hours, students are expected to be in the library for study.
3. Loitering or loud talking in the halls or cloak rooms is forbidden.
4. Mark plainly your books, wraps, hats, caps, overshoes, umbrellas, etc., so they may be known.
5. The city residence of each student is required at this office. In case change is made report it at once.
6. Every case of sickness should be reported promptly to teachers and also to the office.
7. In passing to and from all classes. keep to the right in single file and refrain from conversation. In case it is necessary to cross a column, stop until you can proceed according to this rule.
8. Reasons for absence from school or from any class, are to be presented at the office before entering the class again. If excused, the lessons can be made on the first or second day following. If further time is wanted, present a written request to the teacher. In case this is not returned the student may understand that the time is extended to the next Monday.
9. All reasons for absence must be in writing and must be returned to the office after being exhibited to the several teachers.
10. Senior addresses must be ready for rehearsal one week before they are to be delivered.
11. Society and rhetorical exercises are due Monday morning before the time of their appearance upon the program.
12. Regular faculty meetings occur at two o'clock p. m., Fridays, during term time. Students must arrange their business with the faculty to conform to this time.
