Bruce Erickson
Head Coach
2nd Season
Career Record: 260-208-43
Record at UNI: 14-5-1

University of Northern Iowa Director of Athletics David Harris announced the hiring of Bruce Erickson as the new head women's soccer coach for the Panthers on Feb. 10, 2017.

Erickson becomes the sixth head coach in the program's history and brings a wealth of experience to the position. Erickson most recently served as the head women's soccer coach at Wayne State (Neb.) for the past two years and prior to that was the head women's soccer coach at Creighton University from 1999-2014. In 24 years as a head coach at the collegiate level, Erickson has compiled an overall record of 246-203-42 (.544).

"We are excited to announce the addition of Bruce Erickson as the head coach of the UNI women's soccer program," Harris said. "We believe that Bruce has the right combination of leadership, experience and a proven track record of success within the Missouri Valley Conference (MVC). Our soccer program made significant strides this past season and is poised to build on that momentum in 2017 and beyond. Bruce has won multiple MVC regular season and tournament championships and taken five teams to the NCAA tournament. We expect that Bruce will help us continue to build on our foundation while also giving our student-athletes stability in the leadership of our program. We look forward to having Bruce join the Panther family."

"I'd like to thank Christina Roybal (UNI's Senior Woman Administrator) and David Harris for this great opportunity to lead UNI women's soccer," Erickson said. "I have been blessed to work for great administrators in the past and look forward to working with them both in continuing the success of UNI soccer. I was impressed with everyone I met on my interview and can see why the athletic department is successful. I look forward to working with the team as we pursue winning a Missouri Valley Conference championship."

Erickson guided Wayne State to nine victories in 2016, the most wins for the NCAA Division II program since the 2006 season. In each season he was at Wayne State, the Wildcats earned the NSCAA team academic award.

At Creighton, Erickson was a two-time Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year (2002, 2010) and helped guide the Bluejays to five NCAA Tournament appearances (2002, 2004, 2005, 2007, 2010). Erickson ended his 16-year tenure at Creighton as the winningest coach in school history with a record of 163-125-32.

Erickson earned his bachelor of science degree in industrial organizational psychology from Viterbo University in 1990.

Erickson has three children – Emma (21), Olivia (19) and Noah (16).

Josh Alford
Assistant Coach
1st Season

Alford joins UNI after coaching at the University of South Carolina Aiken. He has served as an assistant for Illinois Futbol Club in Urbana, Illinois, and the head coach at Parkland College in Champaign, Illinois.

A two-time MWAC Coach of the Year in 2014 and 2015, he also earned Region 24 Coach of the Year honors in 2011.

Alford guided the Parkland College Cobras to a 78-22-7 record and a top-15 national rankings in his last six seasons at the helm. Under his tutelage, Parkland College won back-to-back M-WAC Championships in 2014-15 while student-athletes garnered NJCAA first-team All-America and all-region honors. Alford's student-athletes have gone on to play for Division I, II, III and NAIA squads, as well as making the professional ranks.

A two-time M-WAC Coach of the Year (2014-15), Alford picked up NJCAA Region 24 Coach of the Year in 2011. He was also the M-WAC Chair from 2014-16 and has developed and staffed soccer clinics for the Air Force since 2012.

Alford played for Olivet Nazarene and Parkland College. He spent 2003-05 with Parkland College, earning all-conference and all-region accolades while being tabbed an All-American Contender. From 2005-07 Alford attended Olivet Nazarene and picked up all-tournament team honors and was nominated for all-region first-team accolades. In 2010, Alford received the M-WAC first-team Player of the Decade.

He graduated from Eastern Illinois with a degree in general studies.

Alford is a graduate of Eastern Illinois. He and his wife, Ricki, have a daughter, NicoElla (7) and two sons, Hawke (5) and Caspian (9 months).

Chris Kowalski
Assistant Coach
2nd Season

During the 2017 campaign, the Panthers set records for a season in victories (14), goals (34), assists (29), shots (309) and shutouts (11). The Panthers also advanced to the MVC Tournament championship match for the first time in the program's history.

From 2015-2017, Kowalski served as the head coach for the Cedar Falls High School girls' soccer team. His teams went to three substate finals and finished the 2017 season ranked in the top 15 for the state of Iowa for the first time in school history.

From 2004-2012, he served as the director of operations for FC Midwest Soccer Academy, as well as the head coach for the U13, U17 and U18 Girls Teams. During his tenure with FC Midwest, Kowalski coached over 30 players who subsequently competed as collegiate student-athletes at the NCAA Division I, II, III and NAIA levels.

Kowalski also serves as an associate professor in the Leisure, Youth & Human Services Division at UNI. He has spent 20 years teaching in the division, and his research involves topics related to youth development and success in athletics, including coaching efficacy, leadership, and hazing/bullying prevention. He has co-authored or written chapters for nine books as well as published over 50 articles and presentations at the state, national, and international levels.

Kowalski holds NSCAA Regional, Goalkeeping I, and Zonal Defending diplomas. He also has his USSF "D" License. He earned his doctorate in education with an emphasis in youth development from the University of Northern Iowa, his master's degree in recreation management from the University of Idaho, and his bachelor's degrees in psychology, sociology, and criminal justice from Creighton University.

He resides in Cedar Falls with his wife, Crystal, and their two children, Norah (5) and Lukas (3).
