ABOUT THE ARTIST

Mitra Sadeghpour, DM, opera educator and soprano, joined the University of Northern Iowa School of Music in 2014 after 12 years at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire where she was honored as a Max Schoenfeld Distinguished Professor. At UNI, Dr. Sadeghpour directs the opera program, which includes productions, Opera Performance I and II, and Advanced Vocal Performance. She also teaches applied voice and collaborates with the Theatre Department on musical theatre productions. Since joining the UNI faculty, she has directed full productions of "L'Enfant et les Sortilèges," "Signor Deluso," "Susannah" and "Merry Wives of Windsor," directed two Opera Showcases, and taken opera students on tour to Costa Rica. She also teaches applied voice, Soundscapes: American Musical Theatre, and collaborates with the Theatre Department on musical theatre productions. Sadeghpour is committed to opera education and outreach to students and the community, and is currently collaborating with the School of Education to develop new ways of integrating opera into the K-12 curriculum. As a performer, Dr. Sadeghpour regularly performs in recital and concert. She served from 2012-2016 as the NATS National Vice President of Outreach, and joined the board of directors of the National Opera Association in 2017. Special interests are American opera, art song, and musical theatre. Mitra wishes to thank her incredible collaborators on this program for their outstanding musicianship and collegiality.
