Report of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors met with representatives of Wartburg College at Waverly, Iowa, on October 26, 1961 to organize the program of the seventy-fourth session. At this meeting Dr. Paul F. Romberg resigned as Secretary-treasurer of the Academy. Dr. Romberg has since left Iowa State University to become Dean of Instruction at Chico State College. The Board of Directors elected D. C. Foley as Secretary-treasurer pro tem.

The regular meeting of the Board was called to order by President Hulbary at 3:05 p.m., April 12, 1962, at Wartburg College, Waverly, Iowa. All Board members were present.

Reports of the Secretary-treasurer, Auditing Committee, Librarian, Editors, and the six standing committees were read and accepted.

The following actions were taken by the Board:

1. The Interim Committee for management of the Parish Farm was authorized to make further improvements and repairs as needed.

2. Recommended that the changes, suggested by Editors T. E. Rogers and Elizabeth Rogers, in Article III and V of the by-laws be presented at the annual business meeting for approval by the members.

3. Authorized the Science Talent Search Committee to proceed with 1963 program assuming sponsorship by the Iowa Academy of Science.
