Offensive Materials Statement: Materials located in UNI ScholarWorks come from a broad range of sources and time periods. Some of these materials may contain offensive stereotypes, ideas, visuals, or language.

9. Be and know yourself. Become aware of and respect the ideas of others, but hold to your convictions. Profit from the experience of others. "Better instruction moves forward on two legs - imitation and innovation."

10. Never lose hold of your goals. There is nothing as discouraging as having what you consider a great idea fail completely. But profit from your own mistakes as well as those of others. The old game of trial and error has no boundaries in the world of teaching. Keep your discouragements in yesterday - your hopes in tomorrow. As a philosopher once said, "When the going gets tough, the tough get going."

CURRICULUM MATERIALS FOR ISCS

An annotated list of new, free, teacher-constructed curriculum materials for ISCS is available upon request. The curriculum materials consist of novel, remedial, and enrichment excursions, audio-tapes for students with reading problems, and equipment-organizing aides prepared during a summer NSF-ISCS institute. Send request and self-addressed envelope with 16 cents postage to M. P. Goodstein, Department of Chemistry, Central Connecticut State College, New Britain, Connecticut 06050.

Also, a collection of 375 multiple choice test questions on Level I-ISCS and 150 questions on Chapter 1-12, Level II, is available from the same source as above in the same way.
