Meeting of the Executive Council of the Iowa Science Teacher's Association*January 30, 1965 9:15 a.m.*Memorial Union Room No. 64, State University Campus, Ames, Iowa

Presiding: President Mr. David Fagle

The minutes of the Fall meeting of the Iowa Teacher's Association were read by Secretary Sister Mary Martina.

Mr. Cameron Christiansen, Treasurer, read the Treasurer's report.

Membership Chairman Lyle Anderson reported 180 members in the Association to date.

The following motions were made, seconded and approved by vote:

1. That certain expenses of the "Iowa Science Teacher's Journal" be covered by the ISTA treasury such as printing of covers and etc.
2. That Lyle Anderson investigate the system that would permit membership to begin and end at any month that dues are paid. Also that Mr. Anderson be given the amount not to exceed fifty dollars to hire help, if necessary, and obtain equipment to set up a system.
3. That we have membership cards that are of billfold size, and that cards be sent to members to notify them of the expiration date of their dues. It was also moved that these cards be printed.
4. That members attending the Short Course on March 5th and 6th should pay the fee of $10.00 for registration and meals, while those not wanting meals pay $6.00. The registration for Saturday meetings only be $6.00.
5. That applications be made to State Department of Education for subsistence for the Short Course.
6. That the ISTA offer mileage and postage to the Regional Directors and their limited committee.

The affiliation with the NABT was explained by the President, Mr. Fagle. For every membership to the NABT received through the ISTA the latter would be given $1.00 of the membership fee.

The duties of the Regional Directors were discussed.

Mileage of two cents was paid the members present.

Fall plans for ISTA were considered.

New Business:

NSTA Denver meeting. $50.00 be paid the representative.

No new committees appointed at this time.

Mr. Warren Classon offered to be Election Chairman again this year.

Regional Directors would get directives from President Fagle explaining Regional Directors' duties.

It was agreed that $50 be given for stationery.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:10 p.m.
