A SURVEY COURSE IN THE BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES

C. W. LANTZ

A review of a Survey course in the biological sciences which is being given at Iowa State Teachers College. It is a course extending over a period of twelve weeks, meeting five times a week including two double periods. The following five points are considered: (1) objectives of the course, (2) the major units, (3) methods of presentation, (4) some results obtained, (5) criticism of the course by the students.
