TITLES OF PAPERS PRESENTED

Memorial of J. H. Paarmann.....	31
Memorial of Bruce Fink.....	34
Memorial of Melvin P. Somes.....	40
Memorial of Addie Grace Wardle.....	41
Memorial of Clifford H. Farr.....	42

The Address of the President — Atomicity in Physical Nature .....	45
---	----

Presented in General Session

Star count in the ring nebula (dark) in Cygnus. D. W. Morehouse and Richard S. Zug.....	55
Epidemiology of poliomyelitis (infantile paralysis) with special reference to its occurrence in Iowa. Henry Albert.....	97
What shall we do with our state parks? B. Shimek.....	125
Land animals of Iowa during the Ice Age. A. O. Thomas.

Bacteriology

Status of stream pollution in Iowa. A. H. Wieters.....	63
Nitrate assimilation by certain soil organisms. Frederick B. Smith....	69
Bacteria in some Iowa soil profiles. P. E. Brown and T. H. Benton....	75
Tests on Soilvita. P. E. Brown and L. W. Erdman.....	81
Some biological effects on certain nitrogenous fertilizers. P. E. Brown and F. H. Mendell.....	87
Factors influencing the death time of microorganisms. C. H. Werkman...	97
Sanitary control of swimming pools. Jack J. Hinman.....	98
The bearing of the Kluyver-Donker fermentation theories upon systematic bacteriology. R. E. Buchanan.
Anaerobes in dairy products. R. V. Hussong.
Purification of industrial wastes. H. N. Jenks.
Observations on the viability of colon and typhoid organisms. C. S. Linton.
Brucella melitensis , variety abortus (Bang's bacillus) as a cause of human infection. A. V. Hardy.
Some observations on stream flow aeration of beet sugar wastes. Max Levine and G. H. Nelson.
Technic and interpretation of results obtained in stream pollution purification. M. J. Lonergan.
The organisms present in the cultures used in buttermaking. M. P. Baker.
Studies on the pectin fermenting bacteria. L. A. Burkey.
Some observations on the chlorination of a milk waste. H. E. Goresline.
Some observations on the bacteriology of home canned vegetables. Gertrude Sunderlin.
Studies in the fermentation of corn stalks and their constituents. E. I. Fulmer, R. M. Hixson and C. H. Werkman.

Botany

Competition studies in the ecotone between prairie and woodland. J. M. Aikman .....	99
Iowa plant notes III. R. I. Cratty.....	105
The pubescence of Lithospermum canescens and L. gmelini . Henry S. Conard and Cornelia Clarke.....	111

Additional notes on Iowa mosses. Betty Blagg.....	113
Cicatrization of wounded citrus leaves. R. B. Wylie.....	117
Notes on Iowa fungi, 1927. G. W. Martin.....	131
Sap hydrion concentration as a factor in plant metabolism. W. F. Loehwing .....	135
Color photography in biology—methods and applications. Ralph O. Marts .....	141
Prairie vegetation and environmental factors. Myrel Burk.....	143
Temperature and catalase activity in germinating corn. C. W. Lantz....	147
Pyrenomycetes or black fungi of Iowa. Jessie A. Parish.....	151
Marsh cress, its geography and ecology in Iowa. L. H. Pammel, C. M. King, Ada Hayden.....	157
Studies of germination and juvenile forms of some trees and woody shrubs. L. H. Pammel and C. M. King.....	169
Studies on the germination of pumpkin pollen. Edward F. Castetter ...	199
Inheritance of shape in tomato fruits. E. W. Lindstrom.....	199
A study of the early stages in the development of the staminate inflorescence of corn. Karl P. Longnecker.
Will watermelons and pumpkins cross? E. F. Castetter.
Studies of the structure and content of pollen. Ada Hayden.
Ethylene glycol as an atmometer reagent to measure the evaporating environment at temperatures below freezing. A. L. Bakke and J. M. Aikman.
Dormancy of Irish potatoes. W. E. Loomis.
Additions to the moss and lichen flora of Emmet county, Iowa. B. O. Wolden.
Flora of Linn County, Iowa. John E. Anderson.
Some Iowa Algae new for North America. G. W. Prescott.
The present status of the prairie problem. B. Shimek.
Foliar wound responses of Berberis nervosa . R. B. Wylie.
Flood control in the Mississippi valley. B. Shimek.
Four Gladiolus diseases in Iowa. I. E. Mellhus and G. A. Huber.

General and Physical Chemistry

The simultaneous adsorption of salts by colloidal aluminium hydroxide. Ben H. Peterson.....	201
Water softening for municipalities. Edward Bartow.....	205
Copper salts in nutrition. J. M. Evvard, V. E. Nelson and W. E. Sewell	211
A study of the absorption of hydrogen bromide by cinnamic acid in the presence of ultra-violet light. Gladys M. Woods and Thomas C. Poulter .....	217
The adsorption of hydrogen, ethylene, acetylene and ethane by stannous oxide. J. N. Pearce and Sylvia M. Goergen.
Some visual instruction aids. L. P. Sherman.
Microscopic examination of precipitates as aids to precise analysis. I. Barium sulfate. Stephen Popoff, B. E. Thomas and Roger Mullinex.
Chemical sterilizers and their action on metals and alloys. G. N. Quam.
The precision determination of oxidation-reduction potentials. I. Ferric-ferrous. Stephen Popoff, Adolph H. Kunz and J. A. Riddick.
Some improvements in micro-analytical methods. Stephen Popoff and E. W. Neuman.
Copper content of milk and animal tissues. Arthur Hellwig and G. N. Quam.
The chemical training of high school and college students. Jacob Cornog and George D. Stoddard.
The adsorption of the vapors of water, ethyl alcohol, acetic acid and ethyl acetate by certain oxides. J. N. Pearce.

Organic Chemistry

The effect of lecithin in dairy products upon butter fat determinations. O. W. Chapman.....	218
---	-----

The reaction of nitrogen trichloride with unsaturated acids. G. H. Coleman and G. M. Mullins.....	218
The quantitative estimation of the halogens in organic compounds. Leo P. Genung and H. F. Lewis.
The quantitative estimation of total tin in organo-tin compounds. Henry Gilman and W. B. King.
The effect of substituents in the benzoin condensation. L. C. Raiford and W. F. Talbot.
Studies on the utilization of agricultural wastes. Henry Gilman, R. E. Brown, J. B. Dickey, A. P. Hewlett and E. A. Zoellner.
Action of bromine and hydrogen bromide on alkyl aryl ethers. L. C. Raiford and L. H. Howland.
Structure of B-glucochloralose and xylochloralose. R. M. Hixon, L. D. Goodhue and H. W. Coles.
Decane, its preparation from recent commercial products. H. F. Lewis.
Formation of primary amines from monochloroamine and secondary and tertiary alkyl magnesium halides. G. H. Coleman and C. B. Yager.
The intermediate formation of organo-magnesium compounds from compounds having a halogen and a grouping that reacts with the -MgX group. Henry Gilman and R. J. VanderWal.
Former observations on the bromine derivatives of Vanillin. L. C. Raiford and W. C. Stoesser.

Geology

Composition of Burlington limestone near Oakville, Louisa county. Nicholas Knight.....	217
Nonconformable relations of Bethany limestones. Charles Keyes.....	219
Eastward extension of ancestral Rocky Mountains geosyncline into Iowa. Charles Keyes.....	220
Geological date of Western Iowa syncline. Charles Keyes.....	223
Meteorites in the museum of Coe College at Cedar Rapids. Glenn S. Dille .....	225
Tornado as it passed Glenwood. Paul S. Rowe.....	239
Eight unusual boulders in Madison County. Arthur Goshorn.
Interpretation of records from deep wells at Nevada. S. W. Beyer.
Some Pleistocene deposits of the Buchanan interval in Iowa. Geo. F. Kay.
A faulted area near Syracuse, N. Y. C. S. Gwynne.
Recessional moraines in Boone and Story counties. John E. Smith.
Some new crinoids found near Iowa City. A. O. Thomas and L. R. Laudon.
Internal characters of some pentameroid brachiopods. C. H. Belanski.

Mathematics

Definition by geometric implication. E. R. Smith.
Supplementary reading in freshmen mathematics. Edmund E. Ingalls.
A differential method of determining the longitude or time from two altitudes of the sun. C. C. Sherman.
Pacioli and his summa. R. B. McClenon.
The use of machine factoring in multiple correlation. A. E. Brandt.
Arithmetical changes in statistical constants due to coding and their correction. A. E. Brandt.
Calculation and use of the standard deviation of a partial regression coefficient. A. E. Brandt.
The almanac in a Lincoln trial. C. C. Wylie.
Notes on the orthocentric triangle. W. J. Rusk.
An analogy between certain functional relations and Yule's nonsense— correlations in time-series. H. L. Rietz.
The graphs and tables used in the study of grades at Fletcher college. Paul C. Overstreet.
Are the freshmen at Fletcher getting a square deal in grades. Paul C. Overstreet.

- A few odds and ends of illustrations. Paul C. Overstreet.
 Infinitesimal and finite integration of  $\frac{1}{x}$ —Mrs. Yetta Maizlish.
 On estimating freshman average grades. G. W. Snedecor.
 Disabilities of the correlation ratio. G. W. Snedecor.
 Note on solving a certain type of nth order partial differential equation.
 John F. Reilly.
 The cissoid. W. M. Davis.
 Note on hyperquadrics in Euclidean S4. C. S. Carlson.

Physics

Simplified deduction of Maxwell's distribution law. LeRoy D. Weld	241
Cooling by evaporation in moving air. Roy A. Nelson	245
Heat flow in a finite cylinder with variable surface temperature. George F. Thompson	246
Reflection of atoms from crystal surfaces. Alexander Ellett and H. F. Olson	248
X-Ray diffraction in liquids: isomers of normal heptane. G. W. Stewart	250
Determination of purity of liquid isomers by x-ray diffraction. G. W. Stewart	251
Dimensions of carbon chains. G. W. Stewart	251
Ubi facit ibi est. John A. Eldridge	253
New form of carbon arc. L. B. Spinney	253
Visible phase relations in an a. c. circuit. L. B. Spinney	254
A photomograph. L. B. Spinney	254
New value for optimum thickness for x-ray scattering. F. D. Leamer	255
Thomson effect in single crystals of zinc. L. A. Ware	255
Factors governing growth of single crystals of zinc. E. P. T. Tyndall and A. G. Hoyem.
Resistance change of single crystals of bismuth in a longitudinal magnetic field. G. R. Watson.
Status of courses in general college physics and in teaching of physics in colleges and universities in Iowa. E. C. Blom.
Fine structure of 1(1) S-2(3) P line of mercury excited optically. E. H. Collins.
Fine structure of 2967Å and 3025Å mercury lines excited optically. C. L. Albright.
Inelastic collisions in mercury vapor at different electron velocities. John A. Eldridge.
New method for detection of inelastic collisions. J. W. Whitney.

Psychology

A summary of the facts and a restatement of the theory of sound localization. Otis C. Trimble	256
The use of the new type of examinations. B. F. Zuehl	257
Various uses of mind, soul, spirit, heart, etc. O. M. Norlie	259
Some basic experimental results in audition. A. R. Root	265
Report of an intelligence survey of the State Training School for Girls at Mitchellville, Iowa. Gladys Palmer	269
The relation of certain medical and physical data to scholastic success. Frederic S. Beebee	277
Some relationships between physical strength, skill and scholastic A comparison of two methods of college instruction. Norma V. Scheidemann	286
emann	287
An experimental study of variations in breath pressure in the vocal vibrato. J. H. Tiffin	297
An audio-oscillator technique in the study of beating intertones. Ingvald B. Hauge	298
The experimental psychology of the preschool child. Both L. Wellmann	299
Some aspects of the problems of fatigue. Christian A. Ruckmick	299

New developments in the tonoscope: measurements on correct intonation in singing. H. M. Williams.....	300
The growth of the hand and wrist from birth to maturity. Bird T. Baldwin .....	301
A method of testing the auditory reaction time of white rats. Martin F. Fritz.
A technique for validating interest analysis data. Frank K. Shuttleworth. The differentiation of kindergarten children by certain group and individual tests. Nira M. Klise.
Reliability of the yes-no vs. the true-false question in psychology. E. O. Finkenbinder.
A study of maladjusted college freshmen. Paul E. Fields.
A statistical study on the character value of Old Testament literature. Geo. H. Beiswanger.
A preliminary excursion into the psychology of the spacetime concept. Ivy C. Husband and Edwin D. Starbuck.
The reliability of the psycho-galvanic reflex. Alvah H. Lauer.
An experiment in verbal learning. George D. Stoddard.

Zoology

The distribution of white grubs in Iowa in 1927. H. E. Jaques.....	303
A recount of Baltimore orioles nesting in Mount Pleasant. H. E. Jaques	305
A study of the Coccinellidae of Iowa. Karl Longnecker.. ..	307
Oxygen consumption at 20°C. in certain snakes. Francis M. Baldwin .....	313
The dissection of an abnormally developed foetal pig. F. L. Fitzpatrick..	319
Fish collected in the vicinity of Vinton. David T. Jones.....	327
The teaching of biology in high schools and junior colleges. L. H. Pammel .....	333
The increase in temperature and weight of young house wrens. Dayton Stoner .....	337
The organs of the parietal fossa in Elasmobranchs. H. W. Norris.....	341
A study of the duration of fertility in poultry. V. Curtis.....	345
Observations on a hen which had some structural doubling and limited cock characteristics. R. G. Schott and V. Curtis.....	347
