Head Coach Meredith Bakley

Meredith Bakley enters her 11th year at the helm of the Panther softball program. Bakley has an AIAW Division II National Championship to her credit, leading the Panthers to the title in 1982. She also recorded a 22-10 record her first year at UNI enroute to a second place finish in the AIAW State Tournament, the same year the team finished sixth at the regional championships. She has a UNI record of 279-199 and has brought the Panthers into Division I, where they have been facing a steady diet of top notch teams. Bakley’s commitment to strengthening the UNI softball team is shown by past schedules which have included Creighton, Arizona, Central Michigan, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

A graduate of Black Hills State College in Spearfish, SD, Bakley received her master’s degree from Colorado State University in 1974. She has completed hours toward her doctorate from the University of Iowa and Northern Colorado.

Bakley was an instructor at Valley State College in Valley City, ND, where she was head basketball and softball coach before coming to UNI. Her Valley City softball team placed second in the state in 1978, losing to North Dakota State in the finals. Her career record is 337-233-2.

Assistant/Pitching Coach Dr. Gene Bruhn

Dr. Gene Bruhn is beginning his seventh year as assistant softball coach and is, in fact, the first part-time assistant coach ever hired in the history of UNI softball. Dr. Bruhn handles a strong pitching staff with the most experience in the Gateway Conference. A chiropractor practicing in Clarksville, he studied two years at Ellsworth Junior College, one year at Wartburg and received his degree from Palmer College of Chiropractic in Davenport. Dr. Bruhn has been a softball player for over 25 years, competing in the service in Vietnam and at Ft. Still in Oklahoma. He also has competed in city leagues in the Quad City area.
1989 Outlook

What is the recipe for success in the Gateway Conference this year? Northern Iowa head coach Meredith Bakley hopes she has the proper ingredients for a Gateway Championship.

Bakley’s recipe starts with three talented and experienced pitchers. Next add two of the conference’s best catchers who also double as third baseman. Mix in three outfielders who have a combined five years of starting experience. Now lightly sprinkle the leadership of a senior co-captain and all-American candidate, and you are ready to start cooking.

The recipe includes nine letterwinners, along with three freshmen. The Panthers also return starters at seven positions.

Three pitchers will battle for the starting honors this year. Bakley said she expects to see two of the three pitchers become dominant early in the spring with one or two taking the starting duties.

Senior co-captain Krista Fosbinder has been the Panthers’ top pitcher the past three seasons. “We’re looking forward to her having a really good senior year,” Bakley said. “I know she wants to go out on top. I think one of her goals is to be an all-conference performer this year.”

Fosbinder has the capability to do so. She holds the majority of UNI’s pitching records, including career and season victories (43 and 18, respectively), career games (89) and career shutouts (20). Her career ERA is 0.97.

Fosbinder was sidlined with an injury last summer and fall, but she should be back to 100 percent this spring.

Last season, Fosbinder was 18-13 with a 1.22 ERA. She led the team in wins and ERA. She uses a repertoire of off-speed and breaking pitches.

Complementing Fosbinder will be hard-throwing lefty, Sarah O’Byrne. O’Byrne came into her own last year as a sophomore, going 17-12 with a 1.39 ERA. She also picked up both Panther wins in the Gateway tourney last season.

O’Byrne set three Panther records last year. She pitched six consecutive shutouts over one stretch and also set the record for consecutive scoreless innings at 46. Her third record was for nine season shutouts.

Back from a one-year layoff is senior Nancy Dykstra (formerly Nancy Sackett). The right-hander is a talented pitcher, but she also could contribute as an infielder and DH, according to Bakley. She will first battle for a starting pitching job.

In 1987, Dykstra was in a three-way rotation with Fosbinder and O’Byrne. She had a 10-6 record and a 1.59 ERA. The threesome set the UNI record for team ERA that still stands at 1.24.

“We should have a very strong pitching staff,” Bakley said. “A lot of top pitchers graduated (at other conference schools). We should have the most experienced staff in the conference.”

Pitching is not the only area UNI is blessed with depth. “We have two of the better catchers in the conference,” Bakley said. Junior Holly Harrison saw some starting duty last year. She batted .205 and had nine doubles, third on the team, despite getting only 73 at bats. Harrison’s real strength is behind the plate, though.

“The umpires comment on it. They pick it out right away, she (Harrison) does such a good job,’” Bakley said. “She stays out of the way of the ball and no one tries to steal on her.”

The other half of the duo is freshman Vicki White. Bakley said she thought White could contribute, but still was pleasantly surprised by White’s play during the fall.

“We knew she was good, but we didn’t realize she would play such an important role right off,” Bakley said. “The way the infield worked out we need her or Holly at third when they’re not catching.

“They’re pretty equal. I’m comfortable with either one of them back there,’” Bakley said. “Holly is a little more experienced, she knows the pitchers a little better, but that’s where fall was so important (for White).”

“They’re very good athletes. They have very high softball skill and I want them in the game all the time,’’ Bakley said. “If they’re not catching, they’ll be playing third. They’re too good to be sitting out.”

UNI’s one-two punch on offense is located in the outfield where all three starters return this season.

Melissa Schafer got her first taste at leadoff this fall and was a pleasant surprise. She led the team in hitting, runs and RBIs. The centerfielder batted .220 last season and scored 18 runs, fourth on the team.

“Melissa has really started to come into her own. She’s very competitive and really gets into the game,” Bakley said.

Although Schafer is small in appearance, she has displayed deceptive power since high school. “She’s always had power. In high school, she could bounce it off the fence,” Bakley said. “She’ll get up and they (the other team) will say ‘move in left field, move in’. She loves it when they do that. She hits it over their heads and it’s not a lob, either. it’s a lined shot.”

Defensively, Schafer is very fast and she has a more than adequate arm.

Batting behind Schafer will be rightfielder Jenny Schultz. Schultz hit .311 last season and is far and away UNI’s best bunter. She had 33 sacrifices last season to lead the team by a wide margin. Schultz’s specialty actually is her defense. She set a UNI record last season for assists by an outfielder with 16.

“Jenny plays a good right field. She loves the challenge of the base hit to right field. That’s kind of her trademark, challenging the batter/runner on the hit to right,” Bakley said. “She’s quick. She has a good arm. And she can throw across to third base well.”

Mary Decoster returns for her third year in left field. Although she doesn’t put up the big stats other players do, Bakley calls her a solid outfielder who rarely makes mistakes and who really has added to UNI’s softball program. Decoster is a line-drive hitter who showed signs of improved hitting during the fall.

“Although she hasn’t hit for high average yet, Mary has gotten some key hits for us in the past and she plays an excellent left field,” Bakley said.

UNI’s only reserve in the outfield is freshman Tammy
Mercurio. She will see action as primarily a pinch runner. "Tammy is at the skill level where we can develop her and bring her along and work into a position," Bakley said.

UNI's question mark going into the season is whether the infield can come together and play the type of defense that has been UNI's bread and butter the past few years.

The person the Panthers may be counting on to lead the infield is senior co-captain Chris Ehlert. Ehlert, a two-time all-Gateway pick at third base, is expected to move to shortstop. Schultz also will work out at shortstop. One of the two will be in right and one will be at shortstop. Bakley said both are versatile and will fill in at their position well.

"Chris anticipates so well and she has a strong arm," Bakley said. "I think she's excited about moving. It's a challenge for her. I think she'll do well."

Ehlert will be counted on heavily on offense. She led the Panthers in seven offensive categories, including hits (64), RBIs (32), doubles (13), batting average (.335), slugging (.440) and games (60).

Expected to start at second base will be Lynell O'Connor, the starter last year. O'Connor injured her knee this fall, but is expected to be back 100 percent. The former walk-on hit .292 last season and she tied the school mark of nine triples. Her 15 extra base hits were second on the team.

O'Connor is expected to supply leadership and her offensive production will be another key for UNI this season.

First base is undecided and may stay that way for some time. Cindy Franzen is one candidate. The sophomore has made the adjustment to college pitching well and will be counted on offensively. She did not play last season, but she hit well for the Panthers during the fall. She is capable of playing all four infield positions and may also be used at DH occasionally.

Dykstra is another first base candidate. She's the quickest of any infielder, a strength Bakley likes. Her quickness could help improve UNI's bunt defense.

Another infielder is Vicki Foresman. The freshman has a strong arm and is sound defensively, but her offensive potential is yet unknown as she was recently added to the roster and has yet to play.

With nine returning letterwinners and starters returning at seven positions, the Panthers are expecting nothing but success. Defending their UNI-Dome Classic title is definitely on the team's agenda. The Panthers also are very capable of making a serious run at the Gateway title this spring.

The Panthers will play in five tournaments this season. Four tourneys will make up the majority of UNI's non-conference schedule. The Sooner Invitational in Norman, OK, will open the spring trip and the 1989 schedule. The Panthers stop in Pittsburg, KS, on their return to Iowa for the Pittsburg State Invitational. After Gateway Conference action begins, UNI hosts the UNI-Dome Classic. The Panthers are defending champions and will be among the favorites again this year. The final non-conference tournament matches UNI against three teams at the DePaul Invitational it has yet to play since moving to Division I. The final tournament of the year is the Gateway Conference Tournament hosted by UNI.

1989 Captains

Chris Ehler, Sr.
Shortstop/Outfielder, Nevada, IA (Nevada HS)

All-America candidate Chris Ehler should be a mainstay for the Panthers this season if her play the past three years is any indication. A two-time all-Gateway selection at third base, she was named to the second team all-Midwest region team. This season, Ehler will play at either shortstop or in the outfield, her high school position. She should be one of UNI's top fielders wherever she plays. She has had at least a .947 in her three seasons at UNI and had a .974 average her sophomore year. Ehler is far from a one-dimensional player, though. She led the Panthers in hitting with a .335 average. She also led the team in RBIs (32), doubles (13) and slugging (.440).

Krista Fosbinder, Sr.
Pitcher, Moline, IL (Alleman HS)

Senior pitcher Krista Fosbinder is undoubtedly one of UNI's most productive pitchers ever. She holds the majority of the Panther school records and is a pre-season contender for all-Gateway honors. Her school records include most games, season and career; most innings, season and career; most victories, season and career; and career shutouts. Last season, she was third among Gateway pitchers in innings (223), fourth in victories (18) and fifth in ERA (1.22).

Co-Captains Krista Fosbinder and Chris Ehler

Facilities

The UNI softball team found its home on the UNI campus in the 1978 season with the construction of its own diamond after previously playing all home games at a softball complex in Waterloo. Ground-level dugouts were added five years ago to afford protection for the athletes from the possibility of inclement weather.

However, if the weather dictates that games can no longer be played outdoors, the UNI softball team has the advantage of being able to play indoors in the UNI-Dome, a multi-purpose, air-supported coliseum. Thus, the Panthers are rarely rained out when they play at home.

UNI is assured of playing in the Dome at least three dates this season as the UNI-Dome Classic returns for its fifth year. The three-day tournament is played entirely in the Dome on two diamonds set up opposite each other. Fourteen teams are scheduled for action April 14-16.
The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference

In the late 1970's and early 1980's, a need arose for conferences to represent collegiate women's athletics. The cause of the needs was the decline of the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) and the increased role of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) in women's sports.

During this period of transition, some midwestern universities with similar academic and athletic interest bound together in 1982 to form the Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference.

In August, 1982, the NCAA officially recognized the conference and in September, Patty Viverito was named the first commissioner. Before moving to its permanent headquarters in St. Louis, the Gateway spent three organizational months on the campus of Eastern Illinois University. Eastern Illinois was the original president institution.

The conference is comprised of schools which are members of two different conferences for men's athletics. Six Gateway members are in the Missouri Valley Conference: Bradley, Drake, Illinois State, Indiana State, Southern Illinois and Wichita State. Four others are in the Association of Mid-Continent Universities: Eastern Illinois, Northern Iowa, Southwest Missouri State and Western Illinois.

On August 21, 1985, the Gateway Conference Presidents Council voted to add a Division I-AA football division, for six of its members, to their previously all-women's athletic organization. Football playing members of the Gateway include Eastern Illinois, Illinois State, Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois, Southwest Missouri State and Western Illinois. In 1986, Indiana State became the seventh member of the Gateway football division. This move marked the first time in college annals that men's football was added to a women's conference.

The Gateway sponsors championships in ten sports, including women's cross-country, volleyball, basketball, indoor track and field, swimming and diving, golf, tennis, softball, outdoor track and field and men's football.

Northern Iowa is an excellent choice for students who want the atmosphere of a smaller college but the faculty and resources of a larger university. Northern Iowa is student-oriented and makes you feel welcome and challenged while you earn your education with a minimum of hassle.

Located in Cedar Falls, UNI was founded in 1876 as the Iowa State Normal School. From a single building on a 40-acre campus, the University has grown to include more than 40 major buildings and 11,500 students.

UNI emphasizes outstanding undergraduate education with complementary graduate programs at the master’s, specialist’s and doctoral levels. Building on its historic strength in teacher education, Northern Iowa has developed other fine programs in its School of Business, College of Humanities and Fine Arts, College of Natural Sciences and College of Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Northern Iowa publishes the prestigious North American Review, a quarterly journal of literature that has received two National Magazine Awards. The University also operates KUNI-FM and KHKE-FM, serving Eastern Iowa with quality music and public affairs programming. The Management Development Center and Small Business Development Center are two outreach programs of the School of Business, whose Department of Accounting is ranked among the best in the country.

Landmarks on the 840-acre campus include the Campanile, the Education Center, Strayer-Wood Theatre, Maucker University Union and the UNI-Dome. Special academic resources include the 600,000-volume University Library, the Industrial Technology Center and the Communication Arts Center.
