Great Teaching Makes the Difference

A campus-wide commitment to great teaching lies at the heart of the University of Northern Iowa's reputation for providing exceptional undergraduate education, as well as complementary programs at the master's, specialist's and doctoral levels. Building on its historic strength in teacher education, the University has developed a number of outstanding programs in business, natural sciences, humanities and fine arts, and social and behavioral sciences.

Northern Iowa prides itself on providing a student-centered educational experience. The University's medium size allows it to offer the faculty, facilities and academic choices of a major university, while retaining a friendly, small college atmosphere. Small classes enable the University to foster one-on-one working relationships between faculty and students. More than 90 percent of UNI's classes have 50 or fewer students.

Students enter the University well-prepared, demonstrated by their selection of high school courses and rank in class. In recent years, over 90 percent of the entering freshmen ranked in the top 50 percent of their high school classes, with about 60 percent ranking in the top 30 percent. The average undergraduate arrives at UNI with an ACT score of 23.

U.S. News and World Report has recognized the University by ranking it 11th among 119 Midwest regional colleges and universities. The magazine also named UNI the Midwest's most efficient regional university. UNI also received a "1" rating in academic reputation, the highest of any of the top 15 universities in the Midwest region.

The College of Business Administration has become the largest undergraduate business school in Iowa. The College's Department of Accounting is ranked among the 10 best in the country by educators and accounting professionals. In a national survey of 400 accounting faculty, Northern Iowa ranked as one of their top programs.

Considered a long-time leader in the field of teacher education, UNI has implemented several programs that continue this tradition of excellence. The Regents' Center for Early Developmental Education is a leading setting for research and training in the education of young children. The Center is the only educational resource of its kind in Iowa.

Northern Iowa's 19 men's and women's intercollegiate athletics programs compete at the NCAA Division I level with major conference affiliations. The Panthers boast a nationally recognized coaching staff to maintain consistently competitive programs.

The Northern Iowa campus combines the grandeur of early 1900s architecture with striking, modern building designs that have characterized an impressive growth period over the past dozen years. The attractive, park-like campus contains more than 40 major buildings on 861 acres, yet is compact enough to cross in a 10-minute walk.

UNI is located in Cedar Falls, an inviting and historic community of about 34,000 people. Together with the adjacent city of Waterloo, the metropolitan area has a culturally diverse population of 100,000 and combines big city opportunities with small town friendliness. Cedar Falls/Waterloo is a center for industry, finance, commerce, recreation and cultural activities for northeast Iowa.

The University was founded in 1876 and is one of three state-assisted universities administered by the Iowa State Board of Regents. Additional private support is provided by the UNI Foundation and Northern Iowa Alumni Association, representing more than 65,000 alumni in the United States and other countries.
UNI Facilities: No Place Like The Dome

The UNI-Dome, a unique, multi-purpose athletic facility built in 1976, has gained a reputation as one of the finest collegiate facilities in America. The Dome combines the features of a fieldhouse, football stadium and large auditorium. It contains accommodations for a variety of events such as concerts, exhibitions, trade shows and convocations, in addition to football, basketball, softball, wrestling and track events. It has been host to the NCAA football playoffs, gymnastics and wrestling championships, high school football and basketball, the Iowa high school football playoffs and many other non-athletic events.

The Dome’s versatility allows for football and basketball games or track meets to be held the same day. Underneath the artificial football turf, on a synthetic floor area, are basketball and tennis courts, and an eight-lane, 220-yard oval running track.

The turf was replaced in 1992 with a new AstroTurf manufactured by the Balsam Corporation, the same material that lasted 16 years prior to the installation of the new. It's a premier surface utilized by every domed facility in North America with the exception of one and offers the best durability and playability of any material on the market.

Approximately 16,400 spectators can be seated for football games and track meets and, although normal capacity is 10,000 for basketball, seating can be expanded to over 20,000. For stage productions such as concerts, total capacity can reach 25,000.
Dr. Robert Koob, President

Robert Koob, a Northern Iowa alumnus, returned to his alma mater in August as its eighth president. A 1962 graduate of what was then State College of Iowa, Koob was named president July 1 by the Iowa State Board of Regents.

Koob had been a senior vice president and vice president for academic affairs at California Polytechnic State University at San Luis Obispo, Calif., since 1990.

Prior to his position at Cal Poly, the 53-year old Koob was vice president of academic affairs at North Dakota State from 1985-90 and served a one-year term as interim president from 1987-88.

At Cal Poly, Koob was director and chair of the Cal Poly Foundation and served on a number of CSU system committees, including the CSU Commission on Telecommunications Infrastructure.

He began his teaching career at North Dakota State in 1967 as an assistant professor of chemistry, advancing to professor of chemistry in 1972. He served that institution in several capacities before assuming the vice presidency. He was chair of the chemistry department for six years, and acting chair of the physics department one year, as well as dean of the College of Science and Mathematics from 1981-84.

Koob graduated from State College of Iowa with a bachelor’s in chemistry and earned his doctorate in chemistry from Kansas in 1967. He and his wife, Yvonne, have seven grown children.

"It’s an honor for me, as a UNI graduate, to return as president," he said. "I can’t imagine anyone being more honored in the State of Iowa."

Chris Ritrievi, Athletic Director

Chris Ritrievi is in his fourth year as the Director of Athletics at The University of Northern Iowa. Since the day he joined the department, he has worked to develop a competitive Division I athletic program at UNI.

A former Division I athlete himself, Ritrievi earned three varsity letters at Princeton University, where he also received a bachelor’s degree in economics in 1979. He earned a master’s in business administration from Lehigh University in 1983.

Ritrievi’s career in intercollegiate athletics started as a graduate assistant at Lehigh. He has served in administrative and coaching positions at the Eastern College Athletic Conference, Bowling Green State University, Princeton, The University of Pennsylvania, and Stanford University, prior to coming to Northern Iowa.

During his tenure, he has reorganized the management of the athletic department to make it more effective and set priorities to increase the competitiveness of Panther teams. Emphasizing increased operating budgets for all sports and increased scholarships for women’s sports, the department has enjoyed its best performances since joining the NCAA’s Division I in 1980. Since 1992, UNI has celebrated its first Missouri Valley Conference championships in men’s cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field and volleyball. Football has won three Gateway Conference titles and has enjoyed the highest attendance, including five of six UNI-Dome football sellouts, in school history.

The department has successfully hosted NCAA Playoff games in football and volleyball. In 1996, the NCAA West Regional Wrestling Championship will be held on campus. And, in 1997, the UNI-Dome will host the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships -- a first at Northern Iowa. Increased emphasis on athletic performance has not diminished the positive public image the program enjoys. The department operates on a balanced budget and student-athletes graduate at rates equal to or better than the student body as a whole.

Ritrievi served as vice president of the Missouri Valley Conference athletic directors in 1994-95 and chairs the MVC long-range planning and Gateway Football Conference finance committees. He also serves on the Division I-AA Athletic Directors Association’s Executive Committee.

A native of Levittown, Pennsylvania, Ritrievi is married to the former Stephanie Homeyer of Wellsburg, Iowa.

Tony DiCecco begins his first season as Northern Iowa’s basketball coach after six seasons as an assistant coach at Creighton University.

DiCecco takes over a program that will look to blend a youthful squad with five sophomores and three freshmen, along with four juniors and only two seniors. He is the sixth head coach in UNI women’s basketball history.

DiCecco was an assistant coach at Creighton University where the Bluejays finished with a 122-52 record. Creighton won two Western Athletic Conference Championships, a Western Athletic Conference Tournament Championship and made two NCAA Tournament appearances, advancing to the second round both times. Nine players made first-team Missouri Valley Conference or Western Athletic Conference All-Conference during DiCecco’s tenure as an assistant at Creighton. The Bluejays also had one player of the year, one defensive player of the year and three freshman of the year.

At Creighton, he was the assistant director of women’s basketball camps and before coaching at Creighton, was a member of the camp staff teaching techniques and drills.

While at Creighton, DiCecco was responsible for on-floor practice and game coaching including post and perimeter players. He also served as the recruiting and academic coordinator.

DiCecco was also involved in developing and implementing “We’ll Be There”, “Adopt-A-School” and “Fun To Read” programs for the basketball team to interact with students to promote drug-free awareness and education awareness in the Omaha, Nebraska area. “We will try to incorporate some of the programs that were done at Creighton here at Northern Iowa,” said DiCecco. “The student-athletes of today are very fortunate in what they have and we would like to have a program where they go into the elementary and junior high schools to give presentations on education and saying no to drugs. We feel a need for them to have the opportunity to give back to the school systems,” said DiCecco.

While coaching, DiCecco developed a four-year promotional program to elevate the women’s basketball program in the Omaha area. Through the interaction with the community and school groups, attendance doubled the first year. He also directed all phases of the season ticket program as well as assisting with advertising sales for the program and established a youth support group for the team.

“Bruce Rasmussen, the former head women’s coach at Creighton and now the athletic director gave me a great opportunity to expand my coaching career and be part of college athletics,” said DiCecco. “I will always be grateful for the opportunity he gave me.”

“College athletics is a great place to be at this time in my career,” said DiCecco. “Because of the focus of their work, the student-athlete provides me with many challenges.”

Prior to his arrival at Creighton, DiCecco was the head girls basketball coach at Montezuma Community Schools in Montezuma, Iowa. He compiled a 306-69 record including eight conference, 10 sectional and two regional championships as well as two Iowa Girls State Tournament appearances.

DiCecco, a 1971 graduate of Upper Iowa University, also was the head girls softball coach from 1974-86 at Montezuma and head coach from 1971-73 at West Central in Maynard, Iowa. He recorded a third-place finish in the 1973 Iowa State Softball Tournament while at West Central.

While at Montezuma, he was a physical education teacher for grades 3-12 and a 7th and 8th grade social studies and junior high physical education instructor at West Central.

DiCecco, originally from Niagara, New York, lives in Cedar Falls with Kristi, his wife of 26 years.
Assistant Coaches

Colleen Heimstead

Colleen Heimstead begins her third season as a full-time assistant on the Panther coaching staff. Heimstead began her coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Panthers in 1992 and was elevated to full-time status the following season.

She serves as the Panthers’ recruiting coordinator and is co-director for the summer basketball camps. In addition to coaching the power players, Heimstead also is the director of the conditioning program and assists with scouting and facilities.

Heimstead was a four-year letterwinner and a two-year team captain at Southern Illinois, starting 81 of 124 games and averaging 3.3 points and 2.1 rebounds as a senior. She also dished out 309 assists, the fourth-best total in SIU history.

While attending SIU, the Elk Mound, Wis., native served on several athletic and academic advisory committees, including the Intercollegiate Athletic Advisory Committee and the Gender Equity Committee. She was an honor student and was named to the Gateway Conference All-Academic Team. During the off-seasons, Heimstead served as a counselor at the Wisconsin Coaches Scouting Service Basketball Camps from 1988-91.

Heimstead earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Biological Sciences from Southern Illinois in 1992 and is working toward a Masters degree in Science Education at UNI.

Tanya Warren

One of two new assistant coaches this season is Tanya Warren. Warren was named a full-time assistant in August, bringing with her a wealth of playing and coaching experience.

A native of Des Moines, Iowa, Warren joins the Panther program after one year as assistant coach at Iowa State University in Ames. Warren is responsible for academics, scheduling, coordinates team travel, directs the strength program and is co-director for the summer basketball camps. Warren also assists with recruiting and scouting.

Warren earned a bachelor’s degree in social work at Creighton University in 1988 after leading her team to a Western Athletic Conference Championship. She was named a Kodak All-American after her senior season and finished as the university’s all-time career leader in assists, second in steals and fourth in scoring. She was named the team’s most valuable player twice, invited to the 1988 Olympic Trials and had her number retired after her collegiate career. Warren was inducted into the Iowa High School Hall of Fame in 1992 after leading Lincoln H.S. (Des Moines) to a 75-13 record and three conference championships.

Her other coaching experience includes two seasons as head coach at Duchesne Academy HS (Omaha, Neb.) and three seasons as basketball, volleyball and track coach at Boys Town HS (Boys Town, Neb.).

Jenny Sandvold

The other newcomer to the Northern Iowa staff is Jenny Sandvold, who begins her first season as a graduate assistant. Sandvold earned a bachelor’s degree in psychology at St. Ambrose University in Davenport, Iowa in 1995.

She is responsible for film exchange, directing fifth year staff members, study table and game management. She also assists with conditioning.

A native of Cedar Falls, Sandvold was a member of the St. Ambrose women’s basketball team where she was named to the all-region basketball team. Prior to playing at St. Ambrose, Sandvold played a season at the University of Oregon.

Sandvold was an assistant coordinator for Youth Volunteer Corps of the Quad Cities (Davenport, Iowa) from March-August 1995 where she organized and supervised youth teams to work at various project sites. She was a volunteer coach for Davenport Assumption High School’s women’s track team in 1995 and a counselor/coach for AAU Girl’s Basketball (ages 16 and under) in the summers of 1988-94.

A member of the Dean’s List at St. Ambrose, Oregon and Kirkwood Community College (Cedar Rapids), Sandvold was a JUCO all-American player and academic all-American.
A new coach, a new season. That's the way the Northern Iowa women's basketball team is looking at its 1995-96 campaign. Tony DiCecceo, an assistant coach at Creighton the last six years, becomes the sixth head coach in UNI women's basketball history. DiCecceo will look to blend a youthful squad with five sophomores and three freshmen, along with four juniors and only two seniors. With the youthful team came inexperience last year, but with a season under their belts, this year's team looks to build on the confidence gained a year ago.

DiCecceo, a 1971 graduate of Upper Iowa University, began coaching at West Central Community Schools in Maynard, Iowa, from 1971-73. He spent 16 years, 1973-89, as head coach at Montezuma (Iowa) Community Schools where he compiled a 305-69 record before coaching at Creighton.

"I'm very excited to be back in Iowa," said DiCecceo. "There is a lot of good people in Iowa, and many of them are girls' basketball coaches who are friends of mine."

DiCecceo says he wants his players to make a commitment to UNI. "We want our players to make a serious commitment to the program. A commitment that not only includes basketball, but social and academic development as well. We want them to strive to be champions." He added he wants his players to succeed in whatever they do and he knows the only way to achieve that is through hard work and a competitive spirit. "If you don't work like a champion, there's no way to expect to be a champion on the court. Whatever they are doing, we want them to be successful."

When discussing the 1995-96 Panther squad, DiCecceo said UNI needs to strengthen its inside game. "I'm excited about the team's potential to shoot the basketball," said DiCecceo. "But we have to be able to develop an inside game - that will be an emphasis this season." UNI returns three starters and 11 letterwinners from last season's 4-22 (1-17 MVC) team.

Forward/guard Jen Steffens was one of the top freshmen in the Missouri Valley Conference and finished second on the team with an 8.9 scoring average to go with 4.0 rebounds per game last year.

"Jen is our strongest physical player," said DiCecceo. "We need her strength, toughness and hard-nose approach to the game to be shown on the team. She knows the way the game is supposed to be played. She has that tough mental approach we need in our program."

Steffens, along with junior Karen Fenske, will be looked on to score for the Panthers. "We are looking for both of them to increase their scoring potential. We need all of our players to be more conscious of scoring," said DiCecceo.

The Panthers finished 10th in the MVC in scoring last season and with the loss of leading scoring Laura Volbrecht, it is a major concern for DiCecceo.

Karen Fenske

Fenske established herself as one of the top three-point shooters in the Valley last year. She started all but three games, averaged 8.5 points, nailed 48 treys and led the team in minutes played with 31 per game. "She has great offensive abilities, but she has to develop a consistency in her play from game to game," said DiCecceo.

Junior guard Kelcy Westhoff built on a strong freshman year and became the main point guard the latter half of the season. Westhoff is expected to be the leading candidate at point guard this season. "She is a big key for us," said DiCecceo. "She has the potential to be a very good point guard in the Missouri Valley. She needs to assume the leadership role as our point guard. As our floor leader, she will be instrumental in the development of our program."

Junior Kate Lawler came on strong at the end of the season after seeing limited time in the early going. Lawler gained a starting role and averaged over 11 points and five rebounds in the last six games of the year. "We're excited about Kate because of the positive way she finished her season. Kate comes from great basketball tradition," said DiCecceo. A tradition DiCecceo wants to incorporate into this squad. "Her high school and family tradition is important and she has to be part of our development." DiCecco says Lawler has perimeter skills as well as post-up skills. "She gives us more flexibility versus our opponents."

Jessica Johnson, a 6-0 sophomore from Kentucky, played well last season at forward. Johnson was one of UNI's top shooters, shooting at a 45 percent clip from the floor and 80 percent from the free throw line. She started 14 of 26 games. Another sophomore, Shannan Kadner, figures to be a factor in the post after a good first season. Kadner averaged 12 minutes per game after an early season illness forced her to miss five games.

"It's exciting the potential these two bring to our program. Our emphasis this year will be to develop a consistency in their game. They both must be able to contribute on offense as well as on defense. Kadner and Johnson can operate from the post as well as the perimeter," said DiCecco.

Seniors Becky Simonson and Carrie Jaspers averaged 14 minutes between them in the post. "I'm excited about the seniors. I know they have not played a lot of minutes, but that must change. We need a strong contribution from both of them in the post for our team to make a successful jump."

Simonson has the size and strength to be a major force in the Missouri Valley, according to DiCecco. "She has the ability to be a great post-up player. At 6-4, and with her mobility she can cause defenses to adjust to her play. Jaspers runs the floor as good as any big kids around," said DiCecco. "An area of concern is her ability to finish in the post. Carrie must also be a factor on the boards."

Sophomore Adrienne Miskel is a post-player and according to DiCecco, needs to be aggressive. "She has to give the team quality minutes and be a defensive contributor. She should give us great strength on the boards."

Miskel saw action in 24 games last season. Sophomore Danelle Vander Plas and junior Amanda Truax averaged six and four minutes in the backcourt and should be important parts of the team. "They should challenge through competitiveness and force players to work hard and be challenged every day," said DiCecco.

Three talented freshmen join Northern Iowa. Mary Koch (Pequot Lakes, Minn.) was a four-year all-conference selection, a Minnesota All-Star and all-state honorable mention. Kate Hanneman (Center Point, Iowa) was a first team all-state selection the last two seasons and all-conference three seasons. Erin Fox (Denver, Iowa) earned two-time first team all-state selections, two-time conference MVP and was a USA Today honorable mention All-America.

"I'm excited about the freshmen," said DiCecco. "They bring with them great high school basketball tradition. Their tournament experience in their high school careers hope to carry over to their college careers."

DiCecco hopes the freshmen will bring a competitive element to the Panthers. "We expect them to be contributors on this team. They all bring offensive scoring potential and speed. Their abilities will fit well into our style of play."

Overall, DiCecco wants to make the players believe in themselves. "If they prepare themselves to be successful now, they have a greater chance to be that way in the future," said DiCecco. "If they believe they can be successful, we can move in the right direction. They must develop a love and passion for the game they play if they want to be successful in the Missouri Valley Conference."

DiCecco said they will be challenged every time they go on the floor and he hopes the team accepts the challenge and prepares themselves to be winners. "We are going to work hard on building a toughness that I feel is needed to be successful in college women's basketball today," said DiCecco. DiCecco said as young as the team was last season, the experience gained will be a positive factor. "I understand the program must learn to crawl before it can walk, and walk before it can run. It's the beginning stages of a sense of pride that this program will be built upon."

Missouri Valley Conference

The Missouri Valley Conference, the oldest athletic conference west of the Mississippi River, begins its fourth year sponsoring women's athletics. The MVC took on a new look in 1992 when it officially began administering women's programs into what had been -- for 85 years -- a league which sponsored men's athletic programs only. The league merged with the Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference, which concluded a decade of excellence in women's athletics.

The St. Louis-based MVC began operating as a basketball conference in 1907, and through the years has produced many individual and team national champions in basketball and several other sports.

The Missouri Valley was formed on January 12, 1907, when eight administrators representing five midwestern state universities got together in a hotel room in Kansas City. In the fall of that year, basketball became the first competitive sport in what was then the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The season ended with the crowning of a conference champion, which was the first step for a league which has had four teams win national basketball titles, sent 17 others to the NCAA Final Four, and scores of players into professional basketball.

In recent years, the league has built a reputation as one of the premier conferences in college basketball. Since 1980, some 27 MVC teams have competed in the NCAA basketball tournament, with seven advancing to the College World Series in the last 11 years.

But basketball is not the only sport that has been around a long time in the MVC. Last spring, the league contested its 82nd outdoor track and field championship, while intercollegiate tennis in the Valley has been contested for 77 years.

Those programs, plus the other current sponsored sports of golf (52 years), baseball (48), cross country (38), indoor track and field (28), and soccer (4), have helped establish the Missouri Valley as one of the most respected conferences in the nation.

Through the years, there have been 32 colleges or universities representing 13 states which have been a part of the Missouri Valley. Membership has stabilized in the past decade, and now a league that has survived in what has been a volatile environment for the past few years has entered a new era with women's athletics.

The Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis and volleyball.

Members of the MVC include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, the University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University, Southwest Missouri State University, the University of Tulsa and Wichita State University. The University of Evansville became the 32nd member of the Missouri Valley Conference in November of 1993. The Purple Aces officially joined the MVC July 1, 1994 elevating membership in the conference to 11 institutions, the highest total in league history.

Where can you find beautiful tree-lined bike trails, modern theatre, and rich history all in one spot? Where do annual fun filled events abound? Take the scenic route to Cedar Falls and find out exactly what you’ve been missing in this Northeast Iowa town.

Cedar Falls is home to the University of Northern Iowa and the UNI-Dome. Sports fans come and enjoy hard hitting college football as the Panthers do battle in the Dome for another successful season. “The play’s the thing” - Put your hands together for quality theatrical performances at the Strayer-Wood Theatre also located on the picturesque campus. Catch dramatic and comedic performances performed in the plush theatre complex.

History abounds in Cedar Falls’ faithfully restored older homes. Take a turn through the Victorian Home and the Carriage House Museum in Cedar Fall’s historical district. The Italian Revival style Victorian Home was built in 1863 and now houses a collection of beautiful antique furniture and gowns. The first Sunday in December the house comes alive when the Victorian House Christmas Walk brings back old tidings of Cedar Falls holidays past. The Carriage House Museum contains memorabilia of Bess Streeter Aldrich, a native novelist, and John Livingston, an early aviation pioneer.

Grab your bike, feet, and roller blades and head out to the Cedar Valley Nature Trail, stretching from Waterloo to Cedar Rapids. The paved trail offers fun, sun and scenery to all ages. The trail sponsors free weekends and an annual concert series in Buzzards Quarry where you can enjoy a picnic lunch and live music.

Take part in one of the numerous annual events that take place in Cedar Falls. Every year over 200,000 people migrate into town for the three day Sturgis Falls Celebration the last full weekend in June. The weekend is filled with Dixieland Jazz, old time rock and roll, outdoor food vendors, and countless other fun activities.

Art lovers look no further than the annual College Hill Arts Festival held the third Friday and Saturday of July. Purchase art from juried artists representing many states. The performing arts are presented throughout the festival which is located on the UNI campus.

Mark the week before Labor Day for the Old Time Power Show located at Antique Acres. The Show highlights antique farm machinery and takes you back into our rich Iowan farm past with antique steam and tractor threshing, home cooked meals and live music.

Cedar Falls...We’ve got it all! Attractions and annual events are plentiful in the land William Sturgis first settled. Quality hotels and bed and breakfasts are waiting to accommodate you. Whether your stay lasts a few days -- or longer -- Cedar Falls is the place to be! Cedar Falls is a dynamic university community whose citizens are characterized by pride, warmth, and a full measure of Iowa hospitality.

Our city offers many educational, cultural, and recreational activities. Students find the Cedar Falls environment contributes to their collegiate experience, and travelers, tourists and other visitors appreciate the friendly restaurants, accommodations, and services.

Cedar Falls, with a population of about 36,400, has a secure, small-town atmosphere with all the advantages of a much larger city. In combination with neighboring Waterloo, a population of more than 100,000 forms a culturally rich metropolitan area.
