

Call for Papers
Undergraduate Research Conference on International Economics
April 17, 2020

The Lawrence M. Jepson Endowment and the UNI Department of Economics invite submissions (abstracts or papers) to the Annual Undergraduate Research Conference on International Economics.

Eligibility: All undergraduates are eligible.

Deadline for Abstract submission: March 6, 2020

Topic: Any research on international/global issues including but not limited to international business, trade, finance, immigration, health, labor markets, gender, and development.

The research could include senior thesis, major academic papers completed or in-progress through coursework. Co-authored papers are permissible. If multiple authors of the same paper wish to apply, they may submit one paper.

Awards All papers presented at the conference will be considered for publication in the open-access BE Press journal The Proceedings of the Jepson Undergraduate Conference in International Economics [<https://scholarworks.uni.edu/jucie/>].

All papers presented would receive a $50 award along with a certificate.

Submission: Please send your abstract/paper to Professor Shahina Amin at shahina.amin@uni.edu by March 6, 2020.

Questions? Please email Professor Shahina Amin, the Lawrence Jepson Professor of International Economics, at shahina.amin@uni.edu.
